COULD NOT BEAR BURNING ECZEMA

Face, Hands and Back Very Red and Itchy. Skin Peeled Off, Then Scaled. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Worked Like Magic.

W. Springfield, Pa.—"At first my face; hands and back were very red and very itchy. Later my skin peeled off then it scaled. The eczema came in a rash and was so burning that I could not bear it. I could not work. If I rubbed my apron over it and then rubbed my forehead it would make my forehead itch. I used the wonderful Cuticura Soap and Oltment about a week and they worked like magic. My skin is as pure as if the eczema had never been there." (Signed) Miss Lula H. Jenness, May 15, 1913.

FACE HUHED AND BURNED

51 Laurel 8t., Carbondale, Pa.—"The rouble began as a poison. My face broke out in little red spots and went down on my neck. It made my face look badly for a while. It itched and burned and I had to scratch it. The more I scratched the worse

it got. I used ointments but with no re sults and I used a little —— but it did not seem to do much good. I started to use

Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I gradu

Business Locals LOTS OF SOAP

Spring cleaning day requires lots of spring cleaning day requires lots of soap, we are giving our patrons six cakes of any kind they like best, for twenty-five cents, and for this week we give three of any one ten-cent article in the store for a quarter. All goods sold here are of par excellent quality. Suppose you test our ability to please you. S. S. Pomeroy, 8 South Market Square.

WINTER HAS GONE

But there are others coming, and now is the time to get your home equipped with a modern heating plant. One that will last a life time and save you hundreds of dollars, hours of drudgery and think of the convenience. We install steam, hot water and hot air systems. Let us give you an estimate. Heating the old way costs more each year. Edmond Mather Company, 204 Walnut street. Harrisburg, Pa.

IN THIS COMMUNITY

Thirty-eight years ago the Yohn Bros. established their piano business in Harrisburg and are to-day recognized as the leading house of their line in this community. The quality of the goods they have handled and the methods they have employed in dealing with the public has won for them this distinction, and when buying pianos, player-planos and other musical instruments, you have a feeling that you are getting what you pay for. Ensminger-Osten Case Among Ten Listed For April Hearing on Tuesday

Argument for a

Argument for a new trial for Dr. John T. Ensminger, Jr., a well-known druggist, and Martha Osten, a trained nurse, convicted in March session of the crime growing out of Ensminger's marital infidelity, will be heard by the Dauphin county court Tuesday. Ten cases all told are listed for April Argument Court, including the mandamus to compell the county commissioners to pay a witness in the Hans Solbrig murder case for 102 days' detention in jail. The argument list as prepared yesterday afternoon by Prothonotary Harry F. Holler:

Frank R. Laverty vs. John T. En-

ternoon by Prothonotary Harry F. Holler:
Frank R. Laverty vs. John T. Ensminger, new trial and judgment; Commonwealth vs. Dr. John T. Ensminger, Jr., and Miss Martha Osten, new trials; Commonwealth vs. Jacob Judy, new trial; Nicholas I and Annie Hench vs. Central Pennsylvania Traction Company, take off nonsuit; Mary J. Vallerchamp vs. Harrisburg Railways Company, Judgment notwithstanding verdict; Commonwealth vs. W. J. Bayles, rule to show why indictment bill should not be presented to new grand jury; Commonwealth, ex-rel, District Attorney Michael E. Stroup, vs. County Commissioners, mandamus; International Harvester Company, Gardner-Baptisti, open judgment; Wetrustu Outfitting Company vs. Nina D. Williams, to open judgment.

To Hold Pipe Hearings. — Friday May 8, has been fixed by Commissioner of Public Safety H. F. Fill Election Vacancies. — Anthony Savastio was appointed majority inspector, Upper precinct, Derry, vice Samuel Habaker, removed; Benjamin F. Wert, judge of election for Upper Paxton, succeeding Edward C. Boyer; W. S. Long, judge of election, succeeding Harry H. Cassel, South Hanover township; Norman ... Manley, Democrat, succeeding John H. Lutz, Sixth precinct of the Second ward; H. E. R. udibaugh, Republican, vice B. W. Campbell, resigned, Second precinct of the Third ward.

PALACE THEATER

Jennie MacPherson and Charles Gebhart will be featured on Monday at the Palace in one of the World Special Film Corporation four-reel comedy, entitled, "The Outlaw Beforms." This is four reels of rapid-fire, lighting, fast, hilarlous action from start to finish, and a scream in every scene. The photographic quality is magnificent and the subject itself is developed with a dash and vigor which is most attractive, and will create intense enthusiasm to all who see same. Also the regular Universal program, as follows: Arthur Allardt and Edyth Sterling, in frontier drama, "Strange Evidence," in which a lost heel leads to arrest of the thief. Vera Sisson, Laura Oakley and Donald MacDonald in a Powers comedy, "The Seat of the Trouble," in which a shooting accident complicates elopement. Lloyd Hamilton and Betty Burbridge in a frontier comedy, "Black Hands and Dirty Money," showing when man finds bomb pinned to his back he hunts water hole. Pearl White in Crystar comedy, "The Lady Doctor," in which a female doctor takes unique methods of curing fits.—Advertisement.

At the Victoria Theater Monday will be shown George Kleine's striking motion-picture play, "Quo Vadis?" The production is one of the most pretatious that has ever been undertaken in the moving picture world and covers the full three-acd dramatization of the book. Eight reels and two and a quarter hours are required to present the entire picture.

For six months this picture was shown daily at the Astor Theater in New York and was witnessed by thousand of people. The New York papers in practically every instance highly commended the picture, the realistic effects produced in the burning of Rome, the staging of the various scenes and the work of the players comming in for much praise.

COLONIAL

Vaudeville and Pictures-Every after-noon and evening. "WAY DOWN EAST"

All playgoers are familiar with the story of "Way Down East," which is at the Majestic Theater to-day. "Way Down East" has been presented in nearly every city and town in the United States and Canada, during the past eighteen years and in presenting the play again this season, its producers are only complying with the demand universally made, and in keeping with the usual custom and have provided the same competent cast and elaborate production. The success which has attended this famous rural drama, would have been of a phenomenal nature under any circumstances, but considering the number of years the piece has been constantly before the public, it is really astonishing.—Advertisement.

"THE SMART SET"

The famous "Smart Set" company will make its annual appearance with its big singing and dancing chorus, one of the best in the country, at the Majestic Theater Monday, afternoon and evening. This attraction, playing the brand new musical farce, "The Wrong Mr. President," is scintiliating with effervescent humor, catchy and splendid ensemble music, dashing costumes and everything that goes to line up an upto-date musical comedy. The book and lyrics are by Salem Tutt Whitney, who is the principal comedian, and the music is by T. L. Corwell, Homer Tutt and Russell Smith.—Advertisement,

With Lasky's "Beauties" heading one of the very best variety bills yet uncovered at the Orpheum, there are reasons to believe that banner sales will attend the closing performances today. For next week, and incidentally the closing week of the present season, the management is announcing an offering that will be a fitting climate to the most successful season that to the most successful season that had, Merit and novelty are strongly blended and the layout of tident really blooks unusual. One of the set important turns will be the vocal and instrumental act of the Nine White Hussars, the finest act of its kind in present day vaudeville.—Advertisement.

AT THE COLONIAL

Harmony is the charm of the bill that goes on view at the Colonial for the last times to-day. It is supplied by the Old Town Quartet, four comedy vocalists of ability, whose voices blend in excellent harmony in a number of the late song successes as well as some of the old favorites. An expert lariat twirler and a comedy playlet, with E. T. Jordon and company, are also two interesting features.—Advertisement,
