Market Moved Slowly After Excitement of First Half Hour Had Subsided; Bonds Show Better Tone

By Associated Press

New York, April 27. — After the excitement of the first half hour had subsided the market moved slowly, and began to reflect influences aside from the Mexican situation. The better complexion of the foreign financial news, and the fact that the dreaded London settlement was proceeding smoothly, were responsible for considerable fordign buying. Purchasing of copper metal was on a larger scale here and in Europe.

The shorts continued to bid as it became more evident that selling had oben overdone. Prices hardened after the reaction which followed the opening bulge, although at noon the list asset off slightly once more.

Bonds showed a better tone.
