ELECTRIC LIGHTS FOR ALL C. V. CARS

Charging Stations Are Being Built at Foot of Third and Fourth Streets

Plans for substituting electric instead of gas lights in all the day and Pullman coaches are being completed by the Cumberland Valley railroad within a few weeks it is hoped to have all the cars equipped with electricity.

The current will be furnished by storage batteries attached to the cars—and these will be charged at certain periods at "charging stations" now being erected at the foot of Third and fourth streets, and which will be supplied by electricity from the Harrisburg Light and Power company's plant.

With the inauguration of the electric lighting system on the Cumberland and Valley practically all the main roads entering this city will be provided with this style of illumination. The trains on the main line of the Pennsylvania system, some of which is generated by the steam from the locomotives, but most of which is supplied at charging stations by the seal electric light company.

The method of charging the trains much like that adopted in automobile garages for supplying the electric runabouts or trucks with the "juice." The cars are drawn up to the charging machine and the current is bargained on, the amount at one time being regulated according to the number of hours that car may remain at the machine.

Record Pension List.—Seventy-one employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad, including a general superintendent and an assistant to a vice-president, who was a former general manager, were retired on pension during the month of April, according to an announcement made yesterday.

Baer, this is to instruct that at the hour of the funeral, 2 o'clock to-morrow, Wednesday afternoon, April 29, 1914, all trains stop and all work is suspended for one minute." A similar order was issued on other divisions.

All the shops of the Reading system will shut down at noon and the general office of the company in Philadelphia will be closed at 10.30 a. m. the hour funeral services are to be held over the body of Mr. Baer at his late residence in Philadelphia.

NINE OBJECTIONS TO NOMINATIONS

Dauphin County Court Will Hear Cases on Thursday Morning

Objections to the legality of the nominating petitions of two candidates in the fourth senatorial district and to three in the Sixth and Tenth Philadelphia assembly districts have been filed in the Dauphin county court on Thursday. In the Fourth district W. Patton has attacked the legality of the nominating petition of Frank C. Reed, alleging that a number of the signers are not qualified by residence to sign the papers and that some of them are not Republicans. The senatorial papers of George D. Evans, candidate for Socialist nomination have been attacked by James McCloskey. The Sixth district contests have all been started by Representative James A. Dunn who is a candidate for renomination. He attacks the papers of George B. Cooper, Thomas E. Comber and Charles Wood, all candidates for Republican nomination, alleging that signers are in a number of cases not qualified by residence or party affiliation and that the papers are invalid. The other contests are from Luzerne, Schuylkill and Allegheny counties. That is Luzerne is against the Democratic senatorial papers of C. W. Kline in the Hazleton district.

To attend funeral.—Governor Tener and a number of State officials will leave to-night for Philadelphia to attend the funeral of George F. Baer to-morrow.

Measures All Right.—A set of brass weights made by Gillard Dock in 1800 was tested yesterday by Chief of Standards Sweeney and found to be correct. They turned up in Adams county.

Registration Day.—Numerous inquiries have been made at the Capitol about the registration to-morrow. It applies only to third class cities and is for those not registered or who desire to make changes.

Public Service.—The Public Service Commission will meet here on Tuesday when the first of a series of hearings will be held.

New Charters.—The following State charters have been issued: Scranton Dental Company, Scranton, capital $5,000; Hygrade Powder Company, Philadelphia, capital $10,000; Pottelger & Hainley, Inc., Philadelphia, capital $10,000; Electric Laundry Company, Fountain Hill, capital $20,000; Filler Machine Company, Philadelphia, capital $10,000.

Big Increases.—Two Pittsburgh hotel companies to-day filed notices of big increases of capital stock and debt. The William Penn company increased stock from $5,000 to $1,500,000 and from nothing to $3,000,000. The Fort Pitt Company stock from $80,000 to $2,400,000.

Visited Museum.—Governor Tener to-day visited the State Museum building and went through the Library and Museum, paying particular attention to the battleflags which are to be removed to the Capitol rotunda in June. It was the first time the governor had enjoyed an opportunity to make a good inspection of the flags. The commission in charge of the transfer will meet on May 12 to arrange details.

Local Charter.—A State charter was granted to the Shearer Realty Company of this city, with a capital of $5,000. The incorporators are J. L. Shearer and Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Shearer, Jr.

New Policeman.—John Rice, of Philadelphia, has been appointed a Capitol policeman to succeed John J. Casey.

Sixty-five Suits.—Dairy and Food Commissioner James Foust to-day directed that sixty-five suits for violation of the pure food law should be instituted in various parts of the State. Several of them involve the sale of "bleached" flour. This is declared to be contrary to State laws.

In New Quarters.—John P. Doherty, investigator of accidents, has taken the office of the State Bureau of Standards on the first floor of the east wing of the Capitol. Chief Sweeney has gone to the Department of Internal Affairs suite in the north wing.

Awaling Call.—While brigade commanders are urging men in command of subordinate organizations to hurry into the enlistment of their commands to the maximum and talking about organizing cavalry and artillery headquarters are awaiting the call to active service. It is said that no orders have been issued to recruit to 150 men for each infantry company, although it is known that such will be required. Colonel L. V. Rausch is at the front to prepare for company quarters for 150 men each.

In Washington General Mills said no orders had been received relative to the possibility of issuing a call for active service. It is said that the division is going ahead with its routine work, getting everything in readiness, so that if the call comes it can be complied with promptly.

The expense of mobilizing the State troops, it was explained by General Mills, would be borne by the federal government, although the State will attend to the transportation of the soldiers in the first instance. Later the States will be reimbursed for this expense by the general government.

At Special Meeting of Directors Thursday Plans for Building Will Be Discussed

At a special meeting of the school directors of Swatara township, Thursday evening, plans were laid for relieving the congested conditions in the schools and estimates on a new building or an addition to one of the present buildings will be received. MI-O-NA is the remedy. Surely get a box of these health-restoring tablets from any druggist to-day. Their action is safe, effective and immediate. MI-O-NA is not an experiment—is not a cure-all—it's a scientific remedy recommended only for indigestion distress and out-of-order stomachs. These health-giving and harmless tablets are a household remedy—keep them handy whether at home or traveling. Always sold by H. C. Kennedy, on the money back if not benefited plan. You can surely afford to try a fifty cent box of MI-O-NA on this basis.—Advertisement.

Abraham Spooner Loses Horse and Carriage; Police Have Found No Clue
 When Abraham Spooner, of 512 South Third street, turned his back for a few seconds last evening, the horse and carriage in which he had been driving disappeared.
 Spooner returned from a drive about 9.30 o'clock last evening. At Euser alley and Highland street he alighted from the carriage to let the horse walk the few yards into the stable, as it was accustomed to doing every time Spooner returned from a drive.
 Spooner started for his house to get a lantern. When he returned, scarcely a minute later, to unhitch the horse, it was gone. So were two men whom he had noticed standing on the corner.
 Hastily calling an officer, a search was started to locate the team. So far, however, neither Spooner nor the police have found a clue that might help locate the missing team.
 The description as furnished the police follows: Bay mare; white star on forehead; right hind leg white; weighs from 1,200 to 1,300 pounds; 15 years old; top buggy has left "arm" broken and wrapped with wire; harness, plain black.
