

MOTHERS' PENSION ENROLLMENT BIG

Jumps Almost Twenty Per Cent. in Less Than a Month

Checks in payment of the State's half of mothers' pensions for the month of April are being mailed to a list of beneficiaries that has grown largely in the last thirty days. On April 1 the Auditor General's Department had approved 118 recommendations, of which twenty were from Allegheny, six from Beaver, fifty from Philadelphia and forty-two from Luzerne. At the close of the month the number of approved recommendations was 187. There are now thirty pensioners in Allegheny, sixty in Philadelphia, twenty-two in Beaver and forty-two in Luzerne.

The Luzerne county board of trustees, of which Mrs. George Galland is chairman, has thought it wise to recommend smaller pensions to a larger number of mothers rather than larger pensions to a more limited number of worthy women. In this way it is using the fund at its command to the best possible advantage. The assistance given is widely distributed, and there is lessening of the danger that the fund may be exhausted before all deserving applicants shall have been placed on the list.

WILL NOT CONTEST DECISION

Special to The Telegraph
Sunbury, Pa., May 1.—George B. Reolmsnyder, Sunbury, of counsel for the Snyder county "dry" forces, decided today that the court's order giving fourteen retail and a wholesale liquor license there, in spite of the fact that the lawyers had argued that the advertising was illegal, will not be contested in the Supreme Court. He said he was well satisfied with the work of the court in refusing as many licenses as it did.

"TIZ" EASES TIRED, SORE, SWOLLEN FEET

So tired of burning, sweaty, calloused feet and corns?
Use "TIZ."

When your poor, suffering feet sting from walking, when you try to wriggle your corns away from the leather of your shoes, when shoes pinch, and feet feel tight, when feet are swollen, sore, chafed and don't expect relief—just use "TIZ." Get instant relief. "TIZ" puts peace in tired, aching, painful feet. Ah! how comfortable your shoes feel. Walk five miles, feet won't hurt you, won't swell after using "TIZ."

Have Color in Your Cheeks

Be Better Looking — Take Olive Tablets
If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study with his patients.
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color.
If you want a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must get at the cause. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet save no dangerous after-effects. They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually at 10c and 25c per box.
Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O. At all drug-stores.—Advertisement.

NEW BOOKS ADDED TO NEW LIBRARY

Wu-Ting Fang's Latest Now on the Shelves at the Institution

Many new novels have recently been added to the Harrisburg Public Library and additional copies of others for which the demand is large.
A partial list of new titles placed on the shelves in the last few weeks are: Locke, "Fortunate Youth"; Mundy, "Rung Ho"; Martin, "Barnabette"; De Morgan, "When Ghost Meets Ghost"; "Overland Red"; McCutcheon, "Black Is White"; White, "First Step"; Cholmondeley, "After All"; Chesterton, "Flying Inn"; Tarkington, "Penrod"; Dairyple, "Diane of the Green Van"; Deeping, "White Gate"; Wells, "Anybody But Andy."
Additions in biography which may interest many are the Letters of Charles Elliot Norton; the biography of Thomas Wentworth Higginson, written by his wife; confederate portraits by Gamaliel Bailey; two comprehensive biographies of Martin Luther, one by Preserved Smith, the second by Dr. McGiffert; and the Memoir of William Sharp, the man who was long best known as Fiona MacLeod, under which pseudonym his exquisite poetic tales, sketches and essays appeared.

Another volume of interest is "America" by Wu Ting Fang, the Chinese minister, who found this country an interesting study, and now gives us the result of his studies in a most readable book, in which we may see ourselves and our institutions through the eyes of a highly intelligent, modern Oriental. In connection with this may well be mentioned a collection of Lyrics from the Chinese, poems translated from the Chinese text by Helen Waddell from orientals written from three to ten centuries before Christ. Their chief surprise to the modern reader is that the points of view shown by the verses are so very like our own.

Readers who love the out-door world will welcome Elizabeth Woodbridge's "Jonathan Papers," and Dallas Lora Shanno's "Face of the Fields." The many interested in the developments of auction bridge will be glad to find Elwell, Foster and Milton work in the most recent editions of their manuals; and Modern Dancing by Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Castle will also attract many who wish to master the new steps.

SOME BUDS FROZEN

Special to The Telegraph
Blain, Pa., May 1.—On examination of the fruit trees of this section it is found that in the orchards located on the high grounds the buds are not much affected by the extreme cold winter. In the valley the greater part are frozen.

VALUABLE HORSE DIES

Special to The Telegraph
Blain, Pa., May 1.—Miss Mae Bernheisel, of Madison township, lost her fine little black driving horse, which died from the effects of indigestion.

The Telegraph offers you six of the most interesting books in the world, by Charles Dickens, 3,000 pages of enjoyment. But you must bring or send the free library coupon to the Telegraph now because the last coupon will appear Saturday. See announcement on page 2.

AMUSEMENTS

MAJESTIC
To-day and to-morrow, with daily matinees—"Little Lost Sister," Friday, May 8—"Within the Law," Saturday matinee and night, May 9—Julia Sanderson in "The Sunshine Girl."

"LITTLE LOST SISTER"
"This is a period in the lives of them all when they most need direction. Eager and bewildered, they become the prey of unscrupulous employment agencies or still worse persons," says Miss Virginia Brooks, author of "Little Lost Sister," the great white slave play which is at the Majestic Theater with daily matinees. Miss Anne E. Davis, of Chicago, a trained investigator, was employed by the committee to make a special inquiry concerning the occupations open to girls between the ages of 14 and 16. She found that all of them were sparsely paid and that only a few offered any hope of advancement. It is desired to continue Miss Davis in her work and, if possible, to secure some systematic means of taking care of the girls who leave school at an early age. The school board has given Miss Davis a desk in the Chicago Technical High School for Girls, from which place she is carrying on her work.—Advertisement.

"WITHIN THE LAW"
"Within the Law," an intensely interesting new drama of present day New York life, with a clever cast of players and a lavish production, is announced as the attraction at the Majestic next Friday. This play, which aggressively depicts a good girl's struggle in the underworld after having been unjustly sent to prison, is the triumphantly successful dramatic offering of the year in both New York and Chicago.—Advertisement.

"THE SUNSHINE GIRL"
The management of the Majestic announces that Julia Sanderson in "The Sunshine Girl" will be the attraction Saturday matinee and night, May 9. Charles Frohman is sending his newest star and her entire company here after the long run at the Knickerbocker Theater, New York, and the organization comes here by special train with more than 100 people. Miss Sanderson played all last season in "The Sunshine Girl" in Manhattan, where the piece was easily the biggest musical comedy triumph of the season. The score by Paul Rubens is said to contain many tuneful melodies. Joseph Cawthorn is the featured comedian and in the role of a drink-loving cabdriver keeps auditors in a roar when he is on the stage. Others in the cast are Flossie Hope, Alan Mudie, Fred Leslie, Yra Jeane, Florence Morrison, William Sellery and Queenie Vassra, and there is in addition a chorus of 100 Sunshine Girls.—Advertisement.

FRECKLE-FACE

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots.
Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.
Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case. Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine as this is the prescription sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—Advertisement.

PALACE THEATER

At the Palace to-morrow Herbert Rawlinson, Edna Malson and Frank Lloyd will be featured in a three-reel drama, entitled "Dangers of the Velt." This feature drama takes place in Africa at the time when the brave Boers were making the first and desperate fight to establish themselves and till the soil. Produced on a lavish scale seldom attempted, it combines sensationalism with a sturdy love story that grips the heart and holds you in suspense.
Wild animals—leopards and lions—have been used, and the actors have taken desperate chances in taking many of the scenes. For instance, there is one where Edna Malson, as the heroine, is left alone with her baby boy in the farmhouse. Leopards sneak down upon the place and poke their faces against the window-glass. The little heroine stands on the other side, terror-stricken; nothing stands between her and death but the glass, and the leopards. Then we see, at another point in the thrilling drama, the villain pursued by lions; they run him up a tree and, after furious leap-

When You Try on a Suit At This Live Store

It is first of all taken from its individual hanger in the dust-proof, crystal glass case. Even our lowest priced garments are too choice to be stacked on tables. You are assisted into it by a courteous salesman whose duty it is to show the entire stock as cheerfully as a single garment.

He should know, without too much experimenting, which of the score of models here will best suit your figure, and he has positive instructions not to sell you any garment that is not right in every detail of style and fit.

You do not need to be a clothing expert when you buy here. You are not called upon to choose between the good and the near good. You decide on the price and the pattern. We guarantee quality, service and satisfaction.

It is just as much our duty to give you the right style, right model and right fit as it is to give you the right change. And because of our greater value giving, you'll find buying here just as profitable as it is safe and pleasant. Tell the salesman you'd like to try on some of the men's and young men's models in

ORPHEUM
The importance that "Butch" McDevitt associates with the statue of himself again asserted itself yesterday, when Mr. McDevitt and several of his managers took the bronze treasure up to the Capitol to see if Governor Tener didn't think it would be a good thing to place the figure in one of the alcoves such as is occupied by Quay. This is the identical statue that Mr. McDevitt took in splendor to the national Capitol some time ago. At the Orpheum this week he is offering one of the most novel and entertaining turns we have been privileged to listen to for some time. He appears on the bill with Dunbar's Nine White Hussars, Lo's Dresden China Pictures, and a number of other splendid features that found out the Orpheum's closing bill of the season.—Advertisement.

COLONIAL
Along with "Mother Goose," the delightful one-act musical comedy that is pleasing so much at the Colonial this week, and several other features of merit, the Country Store will also be an added attraction at both of tonight's performances. Some comedy surprises will be sprung, and a number of handsome gifts will be distributed. "Mother Goose" is easily the most clever, tuneful and catchy production the Colonial has had for a long time.—Advertisement.

MUSICAL AND LITERARY ENTERTAINMENT
will be given by two talented blind musicians in White's Hall, corner Broad and James streets, Tuesday evening, May 5. Both are entirely blind and an interesting program will be rendered. Tickets can be secured at J. H. Troup's music house and also at 319 Broad street. Admission 20c.—Advertisement.
