LYMAN D. GILBERT. DISTINGUISHED IN THE LAW. IS DEAD

Prominent Attorney Succumbs in Front Street Home at 8 This Morning

HOLD FUNERAL WEDNESDAY

Former Deputy Attorney General; P. R. R. Solicitor; Headed Bar Associations

After an illness of several weeks, Lyman D. Gilbert, one of the city's most distinguished citizens, died at his home in North Front street, this morning. The funeral will take place on Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. In Lyman D. Gilbert, Harrisburg has lost one of its most distinguished sons, whose personality, however, will never be forgotten. Able, courageous, and gentle in his kindliness, he exercised an influence second to none in this community.

No one could be associated with him without appreciating his refined courtesy and those whose privilege it was to know him well were charmed by his wit, his unbounded hospitality and his unostentatious charity. He was the first to greet the stranger, and many will testify their gratitude for his kindly reception of them.

Mr. Gilbert was the intimate friend of the most remarkable men of his time who reorganized the breadth of his information and the clearness of his vision. He was a man of unimpeachable honor, and with all his deference to the rights of thers he would unhesitatingly condemn in vigorous terms that which did not accord with his sense of what was right and just.
