Does Marriage Excuse Jealousy?

BY BEATRICE FAIRFAX

From three who are unmarried:

"I am twenty and have been keeping company with a young man two years my senior. I love him and he loves me. But he objects to me speaking to other men, which has caused many quarrels. Do you think he is right?"

"I am nineteen and love a girl one year my junior. We are not engaged, but for a year we have taken it for granted that we will be some day. The other day a boy asked her to go to the theater. I didn't object, he went, and he then asked permission to call on her. Now, instead of waiting what I consider a reasonable length of time, he called within three days. We quarreled about it, as I insisted this growing intimacy should cease. Was I right?"

"I am eighteen and deeply in love with a man three years my senior with whom I have been keeping company two years. He comes to see me every night, and when he fails to come, which is seldom, and I ask him why, he gives an evasive answer. Don't you think I ought to know where he goes when he fails to come to see me. Do you think he has another girl? How can I find out without letting him know it?"

From three who are married:

"My husband said not long ago that I must be giving wine suppers because I was short of money. He gives me $20 a week for four of us. I pay $26 rent, $4 gas, insurance $8.80, machine $3, piano $5 and have until recently been paying on some jobs purchased on installments. This leaves me the magnificent sum of $11.50 to be wildly extravagant on. Now when you feed four people from $11.50, clothe them, give them care fare, etc., can you tell me where the wine suppers would come from? Please tell girls who are loved by suspicious men about me."

"Life is made miserable for me by a jealous husband. I have but one thing to live for, and that is my baby daughter. He is constantly nagging me and accusing me wrongfully through jealousy. If I go to the store, he times me, and accuses me of flirting with the clerks when I am detained. We go to the same movies often and the man who runs it knows us. If I pass the time of day with him, in response to his greeting, my husband scolds me. I was brought up to be friendly to people, and think and intend no wrong, but my husband's jealousy makes every innocent act one of deceit. He watches me all the time, staying home to do it, and never lets me even visit a woman friend. He says I could win any man if I tried, and won't believe that I have never tried to win another."

"My wife accuses me of leading a double life, though I am home every hour when not at work, and keep only enough of my wages for lunch and car fare. What can I do?"

Quickly Yielded To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Baltimore, Md.—"I am more than glad to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. I suffered dreadful pains and was very irregular. I became alarmed and sent for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it regularly until I was without a cramp or pain and felt like another person, and it has now been six months since I took any medicine at all. I hope my little note will assist you in helping other women. I now feel perfectly well and in the best of health."—Mrs. AUGUST W. KONDNER, 1632 Hollins Street, Baltimore, Md.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

CHARMING BLOUSE IN LATEST STYLE

Rolling Collar Is Seen on Most Frocks This Season

8210 Tucked Blouse, 34 to 42 bust.

WITH TUCKS THAT CAN BE STITCHED TO ANY DEPTH DESIRED, LONG OR ELBOW SLEEVES.

The simple blouses this season are very charming for they are made of thin, dainty material. This one is laid in three tucks at each side of the front and, since these tucks can be stitched for the entire length or part of the way as liked, the blouse can be made a becoming one to both large and slender figures. As shown here, there is trimming of lace banding on the collar and cuffs but plain edges are liked this season and embroidery is much used. A pretty effect could be obtained by making the blouse of white lawn with collar and cuffs of the same material in color lined with itself, or the edges could be finished with piping and small cords and underfacings. The sleeves are sewed to tie armholes without fullness and the back is plain but all the fashionable blouses pouch slightly over the belt.

For the medium size, the blouse will require 3¼ yds. of material 27, 23½ yds. 36, 1½ yds. 44 in. wide, with 1½ yds. of banding.

The pattern of the blouse 8210 is c t in sizes from 34 to 42 inches bust measur. It will be mailed to any address by the Fashion Department of this paper, on receipt of ten cents.

Rengo Belt

Corsets

are especially made to Reduce Stout and Medium Figures

The new 1914 models are exquisite examples of the new figure lines with low bust and medium length—they will prove a revelation to women who have found nothing but discomfort in all other reducing corsets. Rengo Belt corsets are strong—in this respect they surpass corsets which bulge and stretch and lose their shape. They have elastic webbing placed exactly where it is needed and so they give freedom for dancing and active exercise—they are not cumbersome or trying on the nerves. Boned with double watch spring steels—very flexible but unbreakable—and guaranteed not to rust.
