Junior Long Trousers Suits

Which Are Mannishly Boyish

Unusual Sizes and Kinds For Boys 15 to 18 Years

A Message to Mothers:

One of the most trying moments of a mother's life is when her son is transferred from boyhood into young manhood by the Evolution of Dress.

When he is about to don his first long trousers. The young man eager to wear them for the first time fears somewhat the good natured "kidding" of his companions.

Our fashion "Boysish Mannish" Junior Suits has changed this condition and instead of being kidded he will be greeted with "where did you get that swell suit?" And they are swell. Of Ultra English Models with every style feature included, made in every popular fabric, they are just the style your boy should have, and the sizes are such that any boy can be fitted outright. We call your attention to these special suits at

BIG HEARINGS ARE HELD AT CAPITOL

State Public Service Commission Has Three Public Sessions During Today

The hearing rooms of the Public Service Commission today were thronged all day with the biggest hearings held by the commission since it began work. Men representing railroads and trolley companies and industrial plants appeared to discuss recent orders and technical information was in the air.

The big hearing of the day was on the objections to the commission's order refusing to allow railroads to cancel rate agreements with short line or industrial railroads on five days' notice. The commission held that thirty days' notice must be given. This was objected to.

Other hearings were on the scope of the individual drinking cup order, to which railroads object, and to the requirement that jacks be carried on all trolley cars.

Movie Regulations.—Complete regulations for the operation of moving picture and small theaters so that the modern demands for safety will be met will probably be framed by tonight by the special committee of the moving picture, furnishing, building, city and State interests which has been working on the drafts of the proposed rules. The Department of Superintending Industry. The committee was in session all day and it is the idea to have its report placed in the hands of the State Industrial Board when it meets tomorrow morning. The regulations are approved they will be promulgated without delay.

Hill Visitors.—Colonel Fred Taylor Pusey, of Media, a member of the Governor's staff; Alfred Marvin, former member from Pike; Senator Walter McNichols, Scranton; Senator C. W. Sones, Williamsport, and Warren I. Simpson, former member from Huntingdon, were among Hill visitors.

More Camp Sites.—The State Forestry Commission today approved of fifteen additional camp sites on State reservations. The number granted runs into the hundreds.

Preparing the Casings.—The casings which will cover the State's battlefields to preserve them are now being prepared under direction of Superintendent Rambo. They will be of silk netting and can be seen through. The transfer will take place next month.

Journal Cured For.—Superintendent of Public Printing and Binding L. N. Pomeroy has arranged for issuance of the Legislative Journal in complete form, the salvage from the State Printing fire having been greater than expected. The Journal, Appendix and Index are practically intact.

Speaker Here.—Speaker George E. Alter, of the House, came over from Pittsburgh on some departmental business.

Awaiting Action.—Fiscal and Highway Department officials said today that they were merely awaiting action by the courts in the automobile license suit. It is believed that the Auditor General will appeal to the Supreme Court at once.

RAILROADS FINED FOR VIOLATIONS

Wabash Soaked For Keeping Cattle Too Long in Cars Without Feeding

Washington, D. C., May 5.—Because they shipped in interstate trade, meat products which did not bear the mark of Federal meat inspection, a number of persons have been recently fined, according to the United States Department of Agriculture's announcements.

In New York Armour and Co. was fined $25 and costs for violation of this act. In Kansas, W. West, in Kansas, was fined $7.50 and costs for similar transportation of unmarked meat from State to State.

Because it confined livestock in cars for more than twenty-eight hours without unloading for feed, water and rest, the Wabash Railroad Company, in Indiana, has had two penalties of $100 each imposed for two distinct violations of the twenty-eight-hour law. The fines also covered the costs, which amount to $16, in one case and $12.10 in the other.

May Adopt New Emergency Stop.—Tests now being made on a new air-brake emergency stop on the Pennsylvania Railroad are surpassing all expectations. It is probable the new device will be adopted.

With this new stop it is possible to stop a train of twelve steel passenger cars and a locomotive, all weighing 1,000 tons, within 1,000 feet, or the length of the train, when running at a speed of sixty miles an hour. The momentum of such a train running at that speed is equivalent to that of a ton weight falling from a height of twenty-one miles, says the Springfield Republican. The emergency developed corresponds to that of a blast of dynamite sufficient to blow the same train 120 feet into the air. With an emergency application of the high-speed brakes in general use the same train could be stopped in a distance of 1,000 or 1,500 feet.

All Directors Re-elected.—Annual meetings of the following Pennsylvania Railroad subsidiaries yesterday in Philadelphia resulted in the re-election of retiring directors and officers: Columbia and Port Deposit Railway Company, Elmira and Williamsport Railroad Company, Fairmount Coal and Coke Company, Hollidaysburg, Bedford and Cumberland Railroad Company, Lancaster and Quarryville Railroad Company, Lewisburg and Tyrone Railroad Company, Lykens Valley Railroad and Coal Company, Ocean Electric Railway Company, Pomeroy and Newark Railroad Company, Shamokin Valley and Pottsville Railroad Company, Southern Pennsylvania Railway and Mining Company, and the Trenton Delaware Bridge Company.

Blazing Hay Back of Runaway Team

Residents of the lower end of Steelton received a few thrills, late yesterday afternoon, when a horse, drawing a wagonload of flaming hay, dashed madly down Buser's street.

In the wagon was 600 pounds of hay belonging to Wolfe Shorr, of 756 South Fourth street, which he was transferring from one stable to another. Shorr had loaded the hay and was closing the door when a small boy touched a match to the hay to see what would happen.

David F. Baker, Dauphin county court interpreter, stopped the horse; then, with a companion's aid, upset the wagon which by that time, had acquired of its load, but blazing. The flames were beaten out before they did much damage to the wagon.

COLD WATERMELON AND A WARM WELCOME

On one of his visits to Terre Haute Bill Nye lost a valuable umbrella which had been a gift to him. He was quite distressed about it, but somewhat relieved when I assured him that I thought it would be recovered. A few days later I received a letter from him asking, "Have you received any tidings of the beautiful umbrella I had the pleasure of losing at Terre Haute?" The lost umbrella was never recovered, but Nye's unfeeling humor always was.

A late Spring prompted Nye to quote the words, "Winter lingers in the lap of Spring," and to this he added with characteristic wit, "Yes, and the neighbors are beginning to talk about it."

Nye once complained to Riley that he had an "acrid" feeling and suspected that his "thorax" was out of plumb. Riley ventured to suggest it might be his "sweetbread" that required attention.

In the last communication I received from Riley was a note that he had been in the hospital.

RAILROAD NOTES

At the meeting of the board of directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Young Men's Christian Association F. H. Gregory, general secretary, will present an interesting report for April. Due to the falling off in freight traffic the Pennsylvania Railroad has ordered all surplus cars stored on the Pottsville branch. About 400 cars are already stored there.

Members of the Brotherhood of Federated Employes advised council Sunbury will await the action of W. H. Pierce to-morrow.

PROCLAIM CLEAN-UP IN THREE TONGUES

Reason for the Official Scouring is Going to Be Explained

The official clean-up period begins to-morrow. In English, Slavish and Macedonian languages that fact will be proclaimed throughout Steelton today.

Burgess Wigfield last evening secured the consent of council to allow him to have several hundred circulars printed in foreign languages so that the foreign-born residents of the borough may learn the "why" of the clean-up period. David P. Baker, court interpreter, has consented to translate the circulars for the burgess.

For ten days there will be extra wagons, forces of men, brooms, shovels and whitewash brushes in service trying to make Steelton a "spotless town."

Burgess Wigfield has set aside a ten-day period so that the men employed during the day at the steel works this week can get busy next week when they are working night.

The equipping of all the borough fire companies with motor driven apparatus was further discussed. The Town Property committee was instructed to secure estimates on the cost of at least three motor driven apparatus. Council accepted the invitation from the Steelton A. C. to attend the opening of the Central Pa. baseball league here Saturday.

President Reynolds reported that Warren H. Manning, one of the world's foremost landscape experts, who planned Harrisburg's park system, had drawn a plan for the development of the Luther R. Kelker park.

Black, North Market street, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by the Rev. L. M. Dice, pastor of the Grace United Evangelical Church. Burial will be made in the Mount Zion Cemetery, near Churchtown. The child died on Sunday evening following an illness of anemia.

WHEN THE BOY'S AWAY THE COW WILL EAT GRASS

"Boys is boys—and cows is cows." At least that is what Frank Givens, of the West Side, informed the Steelton borough council last evening.

Mr. Givens appeared before council to endeavor to have that honorable body pass some ordinance that would make the cows stop eating his best greens. He complained that some of his neighbors' cows are pastured in the streets of the West Side with only a small boy to see that they keep out of mischief. When the boys begin to play, the cows will eat the grass, he says, much richer pasture.

President Reynolds, of council, referred Mr. Givens to Burgess Wigfield and the police department for redress.
