

THOSE WHO SEEK POSITIONS READ THE TELEGRAPH WANT ADS.

An empty house is always a source of expense to the owner - it's a good deal the same proposition as investing in horses and feeding them without getting any work in return.

More than 100,000 people read the Telegraph every evening. Perhaps this is more than you would pass your empty house in a year.

An empty house brings in no interest on the investment and invites deprecations on the part of boys and others.

You can people your empty house through the use of Telegraph WANT ADS at a very small outlay in cents - not dollars. Just LEGAL NOTICES - Office of the Board of Commissioners of Public Grounds and Buildings of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

JOHN K. FENER, Governor; JOHN K. FENER, Auditor General; R. K. YOUNG, Treasurer.

IN compliance with the Constitution and the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the Board of Commissioners of Public Grounds and Buildings, by order of the Board, has contracted for furnishing supplies for the Executive Mansion, the Legislature, the several departments, Boards and Commissions of the State Government as described, and below such maximum prices as are fixed in the following schedules, for the year ending the 31st day of May, A. D. 1915:

Schedule A, for Printing and Stationery, including the following: Addressing and Duplicating Machines; Blue Print Paper, and Laboratory and Engineering Supplies; E, for furnishing supplies for the Commonwealth, including Brushes, Glassware, Brooms, Mops, Brushes, Toilet and Cleaning Soaps, Paper, Rubbers, Carpenters' Supplies, Goods, Chemicals and Miscellaneous Supplies; G, for furnishing House and Office Supplies; H, for furnishing supplies for the Commonwealth, including Upholstering, Painting and all Hardware Supplies; I, for furnishing supplies for the Commonwealth, including Lumber, General Repairs, and Removal of Dirt and Rubbish; J, for furnishing Light, Heat and Power Supplies.

As the various classifications of the schedule will be found in pamphlet form for the convenience of the Bidders, it is therefore desired that in requesting proposals the bidders indicate those desired by using the letters set forth above.

Proposals for any contract shall be considered unless such proposal be accompanied by a certified check, to the order of the Commonwealth, in one-fourth the amount of the estimated contract; or by a bond, in such form and amount as may be prescribed by the Board of Public Grounds and Buildings. Such bond shall be conditioned for the faithful performance of the terms of the contract, if awarded, and shall have as surety two individual citizens, approved by a Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the person or persons making the proposal, or the contractor, or the principal place of business of the person or persons making the proposal, or one surety company authorized to act as surety in this Commonwealth, a bidder who shall have accompanied his proposal with a certified check, as aforesaid, and to whom a contract shall have been awarded, may, within ten days after such award, substitute for said check a bond as herein prescribed; otherwise said check shall be retained in lieu of a bond. No bond to be in less sum than Five Hundred ($500.00) dollars, and the bond shall be a faithful performance of the contract, and addressed and delivered to the Secretary of the Board of Public Grounds and Buildings, on or before 12 o'clock meridian, Tuesday, the 12th day of May, A. D. 1914, at which time the proposals

HEAVY UNDERTONE DURING MORNING

Market Grows Quiet After Early Selling Movement Had Spent Its Force; Bonds Easy

New York, May 8 - The market grew quieter after the early selling movement had spent its force and partial recoveries were made in some instances, but the heavy undertone persisted through the morning. Failure of the market to respond to yesterday's highly favorable crop report depressed the bulls and encouraged a short selling. Concentration of attack against particular stocks uncovered a degree of weakness which affected the whole market. Chesapeake and Ohio, in particular, was poorly supported, falling 2 1/2 to 49, the lowest figure for six weeks.

Bonds were easy. Philadelphia, May 8 - Wheat - Firm; No. 2, red, export, 99 1/2 @ 100; No. 1, Northern, Duluth, export, 1.03 1/2 @ 1.04.
