He was opposed by Oscar Baker, whom Reading obtained from the Athletics, and the latter also pitched a clever game, keeping the six hits scattered. The score by innings: Trenton 0 0 1 0 0 0—1 6 1 Reading 0 0 0 0 0 0—0 2 0 Batteries: Rasmussen and Smith; Baker and Nagle.

“WHAT'S THE SCORE?”

An up-to-date touch is seen in the announcement of this week's "Pleasant Sunday Afternoon" meeting which appears in the sporting pages of this issue of the Telegraph instead of among the church notices. This is in line with one of the main objects of the Allison Hill Men's Christian Association which aims to reach the man who does not customarily attend church. The speaker for tomorrow is John H. Farmer, an up-to-own layman, whose subject is announced as "What's the Score?" although it will not deal with our national pastime but refer to the more serious "game" of life. Mr. Farmer is employed at the Lucknow shops of the Pennsylvania railroad, where he is well and favorably known. He is a fearless speaker and his address is sure to be well worth hearing. Harry

Kentucky Derby Race Today; Fast Three Year Olds Entered

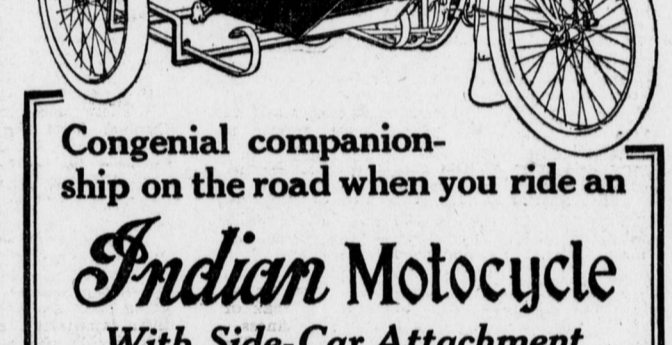

Louisville, Ky., May 9.—At least ten and possibly twelve of the crack three-year-olds of the country are expected to go to the post at Churchill Downs track here this afternoon in the fortieth annual Kentucky Derby, to contest for the richest stake in the history of this classic of the American turf. The purse, with $10,000 added, will aggregate about $3,500, of which approximately $10,000 goes to the winner. Old Rosebud, a gelding, continues the favorite in the betting at 7 to 5, but Hodge, Bronze Wing, Ivan Gardner and John Gund have a strong following with Watermelon and Belloc as "long shots." The probable starters, weights and jockeys follow: Old Rosebud, 114, J. McCabe; Hodge, 114, W. Taylor; Surprising, 117, C. Peak; x-John Gund, 117, C. Byrne; Bronze Wing, 117, J. Rooney; Ivan Gardner, 122, J. Hanover; x-Constant, 117, E. Martin; Watermelon, 112, E. Mott; Belloc, 117, J. Henry; Old Ben, 114, J. Kederis; x-A. Baker, entry. The doubtful started include Brickley, 110, and Stake and Cap, 112.

The Republican Party MUST AWAKE

In Time to Vote at the Primaries, May 19th FOR J. Benjamin Dimmick For U. S. SENATOR

The organs of the Democratic and Washington Parties are waiting breathlessly for the nomination of Penrose, when they will sweep in and shatter the Republican strength in Pennsylvania. Remember—public sentiment is against Boss Rule. Penrose must be defeated to preserve the Republican Party. In J. Benjamin Dimmick we have a leader bold enough to accept the challenge of Penroseism—a man of high character, of sound scholarship, of clear vision and a complete understanding of State and national issues. By nominating J. Benjamin Dimmick, we can remove the only issue which the Washington and Democratic Parties have and thus we can insure a normal Republican vote and victory. Every day the army of men is increasing, who believe that the Republican Party on May 19th must choose between PENROSE and DEFEAT or DIMMICK and VICTORY
