D. A. R. ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED MAY 19

Most Interesting Program Arranged For Twentieth Annual Meeting

Harrisburg Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will celebrate its twentieth anniversary at the Country Club of Harrisburg Tuesday afternoon May 19, at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Gilbert M. McCauley, the regent, will preside and as this is the annual meeting officers will be elected for the coming year.

An interesting program has been arranged which will include singing patriotic songs, the recitation of members, brief reports of officers and a short account of the recent national congress of the D. A. R. at Washington in April. Mrs. Henry McCormick will tell of plans for the dedication of the memorial gateway at old Silver Spring Churchyard and Miss Caroline Pearson, the first historian of the chapter. Will tell of interesting events in its history. Miss Mary Corbett, soprano, will sing several numbers, accompanied by Miss Bernice Logan, and a tea will follow the exercises.

Members have the guest privilege and the whole affair promises to be one of the most enjoyable in the history of the chapter.

TO ARRANGE ENTERTAINMENT

The monthly meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Ancient Order of Hibernians of Steelton will be held Wednesday evening, May 13, in the rooms in North Front street, when arrangements will be completed for a euchre and dance to be held in Benton Club Hall May 22.

MARRIAGE ANNOUNCED

Miss May D. Deppen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Deppen, of Robeson, and Harry B. Althouse, a resident of Third and Munch streets, were married Wednesday, April 29, at the bride's home. Following a wedding trip to Niagara and Buffalo, Mr. and Mrs. Althouse will occupy apartments at Third and Munch streets.

Fine Entertainment at Stevens Memorial

The Ithaca Conservatory Concert Company will arrive this evening and give one of their excellent entertainments at the Stevens Memorial Methodist Episcopal Church at 8 o'clock.

One of the cleverest numbers of the program will be a sketch from "The School for Scandal," by Sheridan. Mr. Pratt is a fine impersonator. The ladies' trio everywhere is meeting with enthusiastic reception. Soprano, contralto and violin solos, trios, duets and readings will compose the program. An evening of rare pleasure will be given to music-lovers, as a large crowd will greet the company.

Edward Book Is Host to a Mandolin Club

The members of the Central High School Mandolin Club were pleasantly entertained last evening at the home of Edward Book, Emerald street. The members spent part of the evening in rehearsing the music to be given at the junior girls' prize speaking contest on Thursday, May 14. This will be the first appearance of the club at the school.

Those enjoying Mr. Book's hospitality were Miss Katherine Peters, Miss Mary Whitmer, Miss Eleanor May and Miss Catherine Kelker, Warren Wheeler, leader, LeRoy Smucker and Paul Clouser.

TAKE MUCH INTEREST IN GIRLS' CONTEST

Central High School Juniors Compete Thursday For Argus Prizes

Thursday, May 14, is the day arranged for the junior girls' prize speaking contest at the Central high school. The change in date from Friday, the 15th, to Thursday, the 14th, is due to the circus which is coming to town. Now everyone will have a chance to hear these unusual speakers who will compete for the two prizes of $10 and $15 to be given by the Argus, the school paper.

It will be no easy task for the judges to decide who are the most worthy of receiving the prizes, as each contestant has shown marked ability. The judges will be the Rev. Thomas Reisch, Arthur Hull and Harry Boyer. The contestants include Misses June J. Miller, Miss Mary Elizabeth McCormick, Miss Katherine Fahnstreck, Miss Pauline Houck, Miss Helen Broomfield, Miss Sara Neunmacher, Miss Mabel Wright and Miss Caroline Hatton.

Contest For Gold Medal at Ridge Ave. Church

A declamatory contest under the auspices of the Women's Christian Temperance Union will take place in Ridge Avenue Methodist Church, Sixth and Herr streets, this evening at 8 o'clock. Six contestants, from Lancaster, Huntingdon, Juniata, Mifflin and York counties, will take part. They are all holders of gold medals won in other oratorical contests, and the winner of this evening's contest will be awarded a grand gold medal.

These contests are in progress throughout the country. Each grand gold medal winner will be entitled to compete for a diamond medal, and the winners of these contests will in turn appear in the final contest for the grand diamond medal. The judges at to-night's contest include James A. Stranahan, J. Horace McFarland and Professor John Hall.

Many Little Folks Guests of Ruth Smith

Miss Ruth Metcalfe Smith entertained a number of her little friends last evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Smith, 1815 Westrup street, in honor of her fifth birthday. The early evening was spent in playing games after which refreshments were served to the Misses Helen Morton, Sylvia Lerue, Dottie Morton, Constance Appleby, Mame Morton, Kathryn Morton, Winifred Watts, Gertrude Frieze, Louise Smith, Ruth Smith, Master Sam Morton, Master Charles Morton and Mrs. C. R. Morton, Miss Cooper, Mrs. James Kennedy and Mrs. M. W. Smith.

Friends of Mrs. Thomas Give Her a Surprise

Friends of Mrs. Charles Thomas, 2008 Green street, last night gave her a delightful birthday surprise party. The color scheme was white and purple. Following card playing, luncheon was served. Those present were: Dr. and Mrs. George W. Bauder, Edward Manarde, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bierbower, Dr. and Mrs. Carl Sheely, Mr. and Mrs. William Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Mersinger, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Orndorf, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gorkes, Mr. and Mrs. George Hollinger, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thomas.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS GATHER SPRING FLOWERS

Half a dozen Central high school girls, charmed by Miss Mary C. Orth, a member of the faculty, enjoyed a tramp in the spring woods, gathering spring flowers. The party left Reservoir Park and walked northwest for several miles to Spooky Hollow. There they built a fire on the bank of the brook and enjoyed a meal in the open in true Indian style.

The party included Miss Mary C. Orth, Miss L. Mildred Buttorf, Miss Lillian J. Miller, Miss Catherine Orth, Miss Naomi Bervard and Miss Elizabeth D. Macy.

MRS. ZELDA GERHOLD FOUND NOT GUILTY

Jury in Keller Murder Case Returned Verdict Early This Morning

MOTHER ALSO ACQUITTED

Both Women Leave Chambersburg Immediately After Being Released From Custody

Special to The Telegraph

Chambersburg, Pa., May 12.—Zelda Keller Gerhold, was acquitted at 10 this morning of the murder of her husband, Floyd Keller, by poisoning, after a trial which consumed just fourteen days. The jury retired at 5:45 last evening and took but eleven ballots.

Her mother, Mrs. Jennie Ricker, was arraigned for the same offense immediately after her daughter's acquittal, and no evidence being submitted, the jury, by instruction of the court, acquitted her also. Both women with their husbands immediately upon being discharged left the courtroom and the town.

KEYS-ROSBOROUGH BRIDAL

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rosborough, of Duncannon, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Catherine C. Rosborough, to J. Howard Keys, of West Fairview. The ceremony was performed February 19 at the Presbyterian manse, Hagerstown, Md., by the Rev. R. Boyle. The honeymoon was spent in southern cities. The bride was a successful teacher for several years at Duncannon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Althouse with Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Althouse and daughter motored to Robesonia for several days.

Miss Camilla Irvine, daughter of William Manor Irvine, president of Mercersburg Academy, was the week-end guest of Miss Annette Steel.

Miss Pearl Heisey, of Elizabetown, is the week-end guest of Miss Blanche Hatz, of 1514 Walnut street.

Mrs. Robert Campbell, of West Philadelphia, was a recent guest at the home of Mrs. Frank Comings, North Fourth street.

SURPRISE SHOWER

A very delightful surprise miscellaneous shower was given last evening in honor of Miss Alice Arment at her home, 1847 State Street. Her marriage to Roy Flood was an early event of the season. Miss Arment was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts. The evening was spent with music and games, and a luncheon was served to the following: Misses Mabel Thorn, Cora Thorn, Bessie Keys, Ruth Kramer, Lucy Manue, Ethel Pattison, Helen Spotts, Mary Wheeler, Mary Nester, Enola Crouse, Alice Arment, Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. John Brannan, Mrs. Milton Martz and Mrs. Rebecca Arment.

HARRISBURG GIRL MAKES HIT WITH PROFESSIONALS

With a program of music, readings and monologues, the Ithaca Conservatory of Music Concert Company last night entertained a large and appreciative audience at Fifth street M. Church. Owing to the absence of the regular violinist, who is ill at Chambersburg, Md., Miss Sara Lemer, of Harrisburg took her place, and won much applause for her artistic work.

MISS JOSEPHINE URICH

Special to The Telegraph

Anville, Pa., May 12.—Miss Josephine Urich, a Senior at Lebanon Valley College, was elected by the student body as May Queen for the May Day fete the 22d of this month. The May Day festivities this year will be more elaborate and picturesque than ever before. Robin Hood and his merry men, Maid Marian and all of the familiar figures of the days of the old rover will be staged on the campus. Not only will Robin Hood and his followers disport themselves on the campus, but part of Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream" will be acted upon the green. Miss Adams is teaching the latter event and Prof. R. Guyer is teaching the steps.

Nurses to Convert Army to Equal Suffrage Is Her Plan

Mrs. Jessie Hardy Stubbs

Mrs. Jessie Hardy Stubbs, of the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage, will have practically all the Red Cross force of nurses converting soldiers to the equal suffrage cause if war really comes and her plans go through. "It's a world-old story that no man can resist the woman who tenderly ministers to him in his hour of sufferings," says Mrs. Stubbs, "and practically the whole force of nurses who may go to Mexico are suffragists."
