Movement, However, Was Considered Slow; No Important Change in Speculative Situation

By Associated Press

New York, May 14. — Speculative operations veered toward the long side during the morning and trading was more active than in recent days. Prices were advanced steadily, although the movement was slow. All of the representative issues made a good showing with many gains of a point or more. There were no important change in the speculative situation and the upturn was attributed more to an oversold condition than to outside influences. The cheerful tone of the weekly steel trade reviews helped the steel

Are You Going to Give a Bit For Poor Girl's Chair?

Sunday is the birthday of the little girl on Allison Hill who won't be able to get out into the bright sunshine if the Salvation Army can't get that roll-ing chair that Captain Neilsen is trying New York, May 14.—John Burke, former manager of the Commissary Department of the Panama Canal Zone, was indicted by the federal grand jury here to-day for conspiracy to defraud and for other alleged offenses. He was dismissed some time $20 to get the chair for the little fund. It takes $20 to get the chair for the little girlage.

Michael J. Ryan Says Things About Coal Mine in Which He

Says That Harrisburger Is Not One to Trust With Workmen's Compensation Law

Serious charges against Vance C. McCormick, candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, in connection with mining operations were made last night at Uniontown Michael J. Ryan, rival of the Harris-cattle — Receipts, $4,500; week, seeves, $1,250 gasts, stockers and feeders, $6,259,50, cows and $

cept the miserable sum of $2,000, to be divided among them all in full settlement.

"No wonder with this example of McCormick generosity and justice to his own stricken employes, the miners of Pennsylvania cry out, 'We will not trust McCormick with a workingmen's compensation bill.'"

While Ryan was speaking in the coke country other candidates on the anti-machine ticket were speaking in Lardford and Judge Eugene C. Bonni-well delivered these remarks on the question of McCormick and labor:

"There are in Pennsylvania 400,000 workmen, comprising one-third of the voting population of this Common-weight of the Harrisburg Patriot the day upon which he contemptuously struck off the Harrisburg Patriot the day upon which he contemptuously struck off the Harrisburg Patriot the day upon which he contemptuously struck off the Harrisburg Patriot the day upon which he purchased it, his veto and mayor's message that 15 cents per hold in the purchased it, his veto and mayor's message that 15 cents per hold in the purchased it, his veto and mayor's message that 15 cents per hold in the purchased it, his veto and mayor's message that 15 cents per motes at the first of the day upon which he contemptuously struck off the Harrisburg Patriot the day upon which he contemptuously struck off the Harrisburg Patriot the day upon which he contemptuously struck off the Harrisburg Patriot the day upon which he contemptuously struck off the Harrisburg Patriot the day upon which he contemptuously struck off the Harrisburg Patriot the day upon which he contemptuously struck off the Harrisburg Patriot the day upon which he contemptuously struck off the Harrisburg Patriot the day upon which he contemptuously struck off the Harrisburg Patriot the day upon which he contemptuously struck off the Harrisburg Patriot the day upon which he contemptuously struck off the Harrisburg Patriot the day upon which he contemptuously struck off the second of the s
