COMMISSARY CARS SENT TO HARRISBURG

Employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad Will Be Fed During the Strike Agitation

Three more cars have been sent to Harrisburg equipped for commissary departments in the local yards and at Enola and Marysville. These cars are a restaurant on wheels.

While the strike agitation is on the officials of the Pennsylvania railroad say they want to keep in close touch with the men and have arranged the commissary departments for their special benefit. Employees can get meals or a luncheon at any time without cost.

Until further notice all foremen will report for duty at 6 o'clock every morning. The men are making extra hours in order that there may be no tie-up in rush work.

New Headlight Law.—After a series of hearings last week at which representatives of the railroads affected were allowed to present their views on the matter, the Illinois Public Utilities Commission issued an order on May 7 obliging all steam railroads within the State to comply by July 1 with the new electric headlight law. The statute makes requisite a light for passenger engines which will render an object clearly distinguishable 800 feet away, and 450 feet for freight engines.

AUTO MONEY SUIT MOVING FORWARD

More Arguments Heard in the Dauphin County Court Today in the Controversy

The automobile license suit went a more laps to-day and late this afternoon argument on motions on judgment against State Treasurer R. K. Young and Auditor General A. W. Powell to compel them to make payment of income to the Highway Department for road work was in progress before Judge McCarrill and jury.

Mr. Hampton Todd, former Attorney General, moved for a new trial for state treasurer Young, against whom a verdict was found by a jury last Monday, and also for judgment on reserved points notwithstanding the verdict. These motions will be considered by the court.

Mr. Bell then moved for an amendment to the prayer in the action and it was resisted by Mr. Todd and also taken under consideration by the court. This was followed by a formal move by Mr. Bell for an order to compel Mr. Young to sign a warrant and Mr. Todd resisted.

Mr. Powell was not in court, but C. P. Rogers, Jr., appeared for him and will take up the motions to quash later in the day.

State to Regulate.—The Public Service Commission last night stood for the right of a State to regulate its traffic conditions when it decided, in spite of intimations from the Interstate Commerce Commission, that the proposed cancellation of joint rates between trunk lines and industrial or "short line" railroads would not be justified. It was to become effective to-day. The final hearing was held yesterday, being continued from this city. The railroads interested were notified to-day.

MacNellie Nabed.—Raymond MacNellie, an attorney of Philadelphia, has been named as counsel of the Dairy and Food Commissioner in Philadelphia. The appointment was made by Commissioner James Foust to succeed Charles J. Roney, Jr.

Complaints Made.—The service and rates of the Glenside Water Company are attacked by John L. Ernst and other residents of Glenside, Berks county, in a complaint filed with the Public Service Commission. Various merchants of Pittsburgh claim that the existing class rates on fruit and produce from Pittsburgh to points within the State are excessive and unreasonable. The railroads involved are the Pennsylvania, P. C. C. and St. Louis, Pennsylvania Company and the Baltimore and Ohio. Charles F. Phelan & Co., of Philadelphia, complain to the commission because the Telephone Company demands the receiver of an attachment to a telephone receiver which is now being used as a matter of convenience.

Surface's Dates.—State Zoologist Surface plans to begin a tour of counties of the State to personally supervise demonstration for the coddling moth and other insect pests for which spraying can be done right after blossoms fall.

Spoke at Lebanon.—Commissioner John Price Jackson and several of the officers of his department spoke at the big safety first meeting in Lebanon last evening, outlining the work which his department is trying to do. A. R. Houck, chief of the Bureau of Statistics, also attended the meeting.

CAPITOL HILL NOTES
Capitol Hill pay day will be May 25. Senator Hoke, of Franklin, was at the Capitol.

Secretary Becht, of the State Board of Education, is in Philadelphia. He will leave for Harrisburg tomorrow night. Insurance Commissioner Charles Johnson has gone to Norristown. The Board of Pardons will meet Wednesday of next week for its May session.

PLANK IS THE HERO; WINS GAME IN THIRTEENTH

For thirteen innings the Athletics and Cleveland clinched and struggled yesterday. In this period only one run was scored. An innocent punt that trickled from the bat belonging to the patriarch, Plank, unexpectedly broke up the lengthy scoreless draw and let the Athletics win by a score of 1 to 0. Plank was the hero. In the thirteen innings the Naps could get only five singles, and his control was so nearly perfect that he gave only one pass. In nine innings, only three batsmen met the mound and faced him. In no inning did more than four men to the mound step to the plate. He dismissed nine on strikes and at the finish was as strong as at any time during the battle.

TO TELL OF ALASKA

The Rev. S. Hall Young, a noted missionary to Alaska, will fill the pulpit of Market Square Presbyterian church both Sunday morning and evening. In the evening the Rev. Mr. Hall will illustrate his sermon with views of the Alaskan mission field. Dr. J. Ritchie Smith will preach May 24.

The route has been laid out for the endurance run which is to follow the annual convention of the Indiana F. A. M., to be held in Indianapolis, June 5-7. The route as planned covers 600 miles and contemplates 33 hours of actual riding. A new $100,000 motorcycle and automobile speedway is to be built at Matteson, Ill.
