

WHEN THE CIRCUS COMES TO TOWN

BIG CIRCUS PARADE REPAYS LONG WAIT

was coming. Anyway, it furnished quite a diversion for awhile.

It was 4 o'clock this morning when the eighty-nine double length cars rumbled in from Altoona, bearing the sleeping thousands, who, as the train pulled into the Pennys yards, were roused from their slumbers. Then the work of the day began as the men brushed the sleep from their eyes and uncured themselves out of corners where they had been sleeping. Later on the performers awoke and rode out to the grounds and had breakfast, for almost by sunup the cooking tent was up and the first of the 4,200 meals that are served daily was begun. Meanwhile the heavy wagons were rolling from Paxton street up Front and turned down at Reily to Fourth and thence to the grounds at Sixth and Division streets. Such was weight and pressure of these vehicles that when an unusually big wagon turned the corner at Fourth and Reily streets it crushed through the asphalt, tearing out huge chunks of it for a considerable distance.

To-night, after the last huzza has been cheered, and the tired crowds are wending their way homeward, the canvassmen will renew their attack on the tented city, and demolish it. Then they will pile it again into the red wagons gleaming in the light of torches and traverse the silent streets to the railroad tracks that lead away to Reading. And to-morrow they will have it all to do over again!

Really a "Big" Show

It is really a big show. Four million dollars is the figure given out by the management this morning when asked how much money was invested in the enterprise. The average daily expenses is $8,000; and they ought to know, because they employ fourteen expert bookkeepers, twenty-seven assistant treasurers and six of the highest salaried auditors in America.

There are 750 horses and twenty acres of waterproof canvas. The circus is managed with more attention to detail than is to be found in the average municipality. It has its own select service department, medical staff of a physician and four nurses; veterinary staff of three surgeons; its own lawyer; its own postmaster and its own weather forecaster. Of course every show is the greatest in the world; but this one is probably it.

Miss Grace Mary Plank, sister of the renowned "Eddie" Plank, who has figured in many an Athletic victory, was married to-day in the parsonage of the Pine Street Presbyterian Church to Howard S. Spangier, of Biglerville, Adams county. Miss Plank is from Gettysburg. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Lewis S. Mudge.

WOMAN'S NEATNESS

Women are neater than men—it's expected of them. An untidy man is bad enough; a slovenly woman—unbearable. So, the careful woman will keep her frocks clean. Substantial fabrics may be "tubbed," dainty, sheer organdies, dimities, swisses, etc., should be dry cleaned. Troy Laundry does either of them well. Either phone for our wagon.

PAPA

If you were going away on a long journey wouldn't you leave some money for me and mamma to spend until you came back home? How about that journey you will some day be compelled to take and from which you never return. Won't you please see Mr. Eslick about it to-day? His office is in the Union Trust building. It's insurance.

"Pappy" Swartz Forgot It Was Circus Day

It took Truant Officer Henry A. Swartz until 10 o'clock this morning to find out that to-day was circus day.

"Pappy" Swartz, as he is better known among the children, was leisurely walking down Second street, this morning, when he spied several small boys on their way to see the circus parade. The veteran truant officer approached the youngsters and nabbed the biggest one.

"What are you doing here?" barked "Pappy."

"Oh, shucks, we're only out to see the parade," whimpered the youngest. The gray-haired truant officer stood

WHO CARES WHETHER SOUSA COMES TO TOWN OR NOT?

To date Harrisburg has had no assurance that Mr. Sousa and his band are coming to town. But it doesn't matter.

For three days next week Kilgore's Colonial Kid Band will hold forth at the Colonial Theater. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the youthful bandmen will play programs that will please the crowded houses—that there will be crowded houses goes without saying, of course—and the proceeds will be for the young musicians' benefit.

One of the tablets proves to be an important list of kings, who ruled over Larsa in the third millennium, B. C.

London, May 15.—Sentences of a month's imprisonment each were pronounced to-day on "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond and Mrs. Dacre-Fox, two militant suffragette leaders. They were charged with disturbing the peace by camping on the doorsteps of the residences of Sir Edward Carson and Lord Lansdowne yesterday. The accused women refused to give bond to keep the peace for six months. They were dragged out of court screaming and shrieking.

SECOND COMMITTEE APPOINTED

By Associated Press

Denver Colo., May 15.—The refusal of the Colorado House of Representatives yesterday to concur in the Senate's amendment to the military expense bond issued and the failure of the joint conference committee last night to agree on the proposition in the measure to refuse payment as militiamen to nine guards and detectives necessitated the appointment of another joint committee to-day.

GOING TO PUT STEELTON OVER A LARGER MAP

"Having put two towns upon the geography of Western Pennsylvania, 'Billy' Donner, as they call him in Pittsburgh, has been called upon to scatter Steelton over a somewhat larger part of the map of Dauphin county. Also to make Sparrows Point a livelier spot.

"Who was that poet fellow who 'lisped in numbers and the numbers came?' I fancy that Mr. Donner cut his first teeth on a bit of steel and so got his taste for it right in the beginning.

"When hardly more than a boy he created the town of Monessen—the first syllable denoting Monongahela and the 'essen' a copy of the great German steel center. The way he grew it was to build a steel mill on the flats and the town just naturally grew up on all sides of it.

"That did so well—and they say Mr. Donner never turns around for less than $1,000,000—he planted another mill at Donora and there sprang into existence a second town.

"H. C. Frick says he is the best steel man living, and H. C. ought to be a nifty judge on such matters. Anyhow, they got Mr. Donner to take hold of the huge Cambria Company, and, as you know, he has just been selected to manage the Pennsylvania Steel Company, which is a steel town.

"These are the new companies which A. J. Cassatt, at the suggestion of E. B. Ricketts, bought for the Pennsylvania Railroad for a price which looks small compared with their present value.

"As making a success is Mr. Donner's habit, he cannot fail with the fine new material now just in his hands.—'Girard,' in Philadelphia Public Ledger.
