How to Make Your Hair Beautiful

Ten Minutes' Home Treatment Works Wonders. Stops Falling Hair, Itching Scalp and Dandruff and Makes the Hair Soft, Brilliant, Lustrous and Fluffy.

Better than all the so-called "hair tonics" in the world is a simple old-fashioned home recipe consisting of plain Bay Rum, Lavona (de Composee), and a little Menthol Crystals. These three mixed at home in a few minutes, work wonders with any scalp. Try it just one night and see. Get from your druggist 2 oz. Lavona, 6 oz. Bay Rum and 1/2 drachm Menthol Crystals. Dissolve the Crystals in the Bay Rum and pour in an 8 oz. bottle. Then add the Lavona, shake well and let it stand for an hour before using. Apply it by putting a little of the mixture on soft cloth. Draw this cloth slowly through the hair, taking just one small strand at a time. This cleanses the hair and scalp of dirt, dust and excessive oil and makes the hair delightfully soft, lustrous and fluffy. To stop the hair from falling and to make it grow again rub the lotion briskly into the scalp with the finger tips or a medium stiff brush. Apply night and morning. A few days' use and you cannot find a single loose or straggling hair. They will be locked on your scalp as tight as a vise. Dandruff will disappear and itching cease. In ten days you will find fine flowing new hair sprouting up all over your scalp and this new hair will grow with wonderful rapidity.

Any druggist can sell you the above. The prescription is very inexpensive and we know of nothing so effective and certain in its result.—Advertisement.

COUNTRY CLUB GOLF MERRILY GOING ON

Formal Opening of Lucknow Links For 1914 Takes Place on Saturday

Golf will be in full swing at the Country Club of Harrisburg after tomorrow when the formal opening of the Lucknow Links for 1914 will take place. For several weeks the course has been in preparation under direction of T. J. Dinan, the golf professional, and the new poles and flags will be set out to-morrow morning and at 2 o'clock the golfers of the club, divided into teams captained by Robert McCreath and Carl B. Ely, will begin an eighteen-hole team match.

It is the plan to have either a mixed foursome or a tournament for the vice-president's cup on the afternoon of Decoration Day, when there will be an appropriate observance of the holiday at the club and golf will be one of the events.

For next Saturday a "round robin" match is planned. To-morrow the "great board" will be open for the season's matches. The standing of all members has been announced in a circular.

Two Harrisburg Boys Figure in Yale Tap Day

"Hundreds of people crowded outside the gates" of the New York Sun to-day, "and hung to the iron railings of Berkeley Oval at 5 o'clock yesterday waiting for the elections of Juniors to the three senior societies at Yale—Skull and Bones, Scroll and Key and Wolf's Head."

"Among the men who got a tremendous cheer when they received their election for Bones was Howard A. Pumpelly, Yale's prominent athlete."

Thomas Bayne Denegre, captain of the varsity crew, was also picked for Bones. Two Harrisburg boys were among the favored ones—John Osted Herman being elected to the Wolf's Head, and Edward James Stackpole, Jr., to Bones.

The New York World says: "To Thomas Bayne Denegre, of New Orleans, the unsated captain of the Yale crew, came the greatest honor of the day. He was the last man tapped for Bones and there was great enthusiasm. There were also cheers when Johnny Rilly went to Bones and Captain Jack Blossom of the baseball team tapped Barnes Newberry for Wolf's Head. There was applause when the Yale crew came through the crowd and some of the Yale men shouted: 'Don't hurry, Hen. He won't get away from you to-day.'"

Bones is the oldest senior society at Yale, including on its rolls President Hadley, ex-President Taft, Chauncey M. Depew and other prominent graduates. Locally the late Colonel Henry McCormick was a member. There are fifteen elected to each of the three societies.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

THE LATE LYMAN D. GILBERT

To the Editor of The Telegraph:

It was my privilege and pleasure to be associated with the late Lyman D. Gilbert during the nine years that he filled the office of Deputy Attorney General and when I read the eloquent tributes to his memory by his colleagues at the bar and by the State officials I could well appreciate how worthy he was of all those eulogiums. When Mr. Gilbert assumed the duties of the office of Attorney General he was both young in years and in experience in his profession, but he quickly demonstrated his ability to perform the many responsible duties of the office in a manner that called forth the unstinted praise of Attorney General Dimmick, Lear and Palmer. Early in his career as Deputy Attorney General the present Constitution of the State was adopted and many changes in the laws relative to the taxation of corporations to the end that said laws might conform to the requirements of the Constitution became necessary, and he, in conjunction with the late Mr. Oimsted, had a prominent part in shaping that legislation. Subsequently this legislation was contested in the courts by some of the ablest attorneys of the State, representing the corporations, and I recall that in the preparation of an argument to be used in the State Supreme Court in a case in which a very important Constitutional question was involved he spent the entire night in the office of the Attorney General, in the old Capitol, dictating his argument to me, and as stenographers and typewriting machines were not then to be found in the State Departments, it was taken down by me in long hand. He appreciated that I had somewhat of a task confronting me and allowed many breathing spells, during which he would tell a humorous story or relate some interesting incident in his life and then proceed with his argument.

pace the floor as his words came with marvelous fluency.

The several State officials frequently requested legal opinions from the attorney general and I happen to know that in many instances these opinions, treating of matters of great importance, were written by Mr. Gilbert, and he also wrote many veto messages during the sessions of the Legislature to which the Governor invariably placed his signature and transmitted to the Senate or House.

Mr. Gilbert had a charming personality as every one who enjoyed his friendship can attest, and the fact that the friendship that existed between us in the days about which I have written had survived all the intervening years is to me a possession that I will always treasure most highly. The death of such a man is a great loss to any community and I mourn the loss of a personal friend. Peace to his ashes.

GEORGE F. ROSS.

Thin Blood Causes Backache

Every muscle in the body needs a supply of rich, red blood in proportion to the work it does.

The muscles of the back are under heavy strain and have but little rest, the blood is thin they lack nourishment and rebel. The result is a sensation of pain in those muscles.

The best medical authorities agree that backache seldom or never means kidney trouble. Real organic kidney disease may have progressed to a critical point without developing a pain in the back. Doctors detect its presence themselves.

Pains in the back should always lead the sufferer to look to the condition of the blood. It will be found in most cases that the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to build up the blood will stop the grumbling of the ill-nourished muscles of the back. How much better it is to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for the blood than to give way to unreasonable alarm about your kidneys. If you suspect your kidneys, any doctor can make tests in ten minutes that will set your fears at rest or tell you the worst.

All druggists sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. A free book, "Building Up the Blood," will be sent on request by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.—Advertisement.
