

SENATOR PENROSE SAYS, "LANDSLIDE NEXT NOVEMBER"

Brings Most Optimistic Message to Republican Club at Anniversary Dinner

CELEBRATION BIG EVENT Congressman Kreider, Senator Beidleman and Local Candidates Make Addresses

"Six months ago the outlook for Republican success in Pennsylvania was dreary; four months ago it was doubtful; three months ago it showed signs of improvement; to-day it is certain that a majority of the voters favor a return to Republican principles, and by November it will be a landslide."

This was the encouraging message that Senator Penrose brought to members of the Harrisburg Republican Club, whose guest he was at the twelfth anniversary dinner of the organization in Chestnut Street Hall last evening.

The senator drew the attention of his audience to the fact that for years as a member of the Legislature he had spent much time in Harrisburg, so that he has come to feel more at home here than in any other city of the State outside of his home place, Philadelphia, and he reminded his hearers that he had used his influence in behalf of Harrisburg when efforts were being made to take the Capitol to Philadelphia.

"In all parts of Pennsylvania I have been able to study conditions, and I am impressed with the steady advance of business and the steady advancement of Republican sentiment. On this last day of the campaign preceding the primaries I am sure you will be glad to know that you are about to enter upon the reward for which you have so earnestly striven. Republican victory by a tremendous majority is assured in the Fall."

Senator Penrose predicted that the Democratic majority in Congress, if not obliterated altogether, will be cut down to three or four in November, and this rendered incapable of further harmful legislation.

"The Democratic party is useful as a minority balance," said Senator Penrose. "It is a check upon a party that would otherwise be a constructive one. The people wanted a change, and they got it, but they have now concluded that a very little change goes a long way."

Senator Beidleman, toastmaster of the evening, who introduced the President L. R. Metzger. Senator Beidleman complimented the club on its services to the party and reviewed briefly its history of twenty years. The more than 200 members met in the numerous flags and draperies with which the hall was beautifully decorated.

Congressman Kreider, who was renominated to-day without opposition, in an excellent address, which was well received, showing that he had made a careful study of conditions at Washington. In part he said:

"Mr. Chairman, we have now had a little over one year of Democratic rule. On the 7th day of April, 1913, Congress was called into extra session by the President. I recall that during the campaign, the most discussed by our Democratic friends was that of tariff reform and the high cost of living. The change being made over and over again and the high cost of living, and the Republican Party was severely censured for not only accused of robbing the public, but every Democratic orator thought would

UPRISING AGAINST HUERTA PREDICTED BY DR. URRUTIA

Ex-Minister of Interior, Fearing Assassination, Flees to Vera Cruz

MOB OF NATIVES ON TRAIL Refugee and His Family Eat in Restaurant Guarded by American Soldiers

Vera Cruz, May 19.—Dr. Aureliano Urrutia, ex-minister of the interior, declared that he left the capital because he feared assassination and in the belief that a revolt would shortly occur in the city of Mexico. He arrived here yesterday.

"I left the capital," he said, "for two reasons. The first was a knowledge of a plot among General Huerta's close political supporters to assassinate me, they saying I know too much. Second, there has been planned a revolt of the people and the army."

"I would not be surprised to receive now at any minute news of an uprising against Huerta, whom the people and the army are tired of and of whom the people and the army are determined to rid themselves. I did not want to be in Mexico City when this occurred."

Twice arrested and hustled through the streets by American soldiers and hissed and threatened by his countrymen, Urrutia was forced to face yesterday some of the indignities to which he subjected others while he was high in power at the capital. He expects to sail for Europe at the first opportunity.

Urrutia May Remain. In support of the sentiments of the crowd which stood before his hotel and shouted "Let us witness that American justice has done," General Funston has been asked to order Urrutia's detention until such time as they have at Mexico City a new government and a new judiciary before whom charges against the ex-minister should be filed for alleged crimes perpetrated, as is generally claimed, while he was minister of the interior.

There appears little likelihood that Urrutia will be held. At one time General Funston did tell him to leave as soon as possible but relenting he sent word to him he might remain in Vera Cruz temporarily.

Urrutia professed that his only desire was to remain here under protection of the Americans, that he had no object in going to Europe and that to remain at the capital was to face the anger of Huerta. Before night, however, he had decided that he would

COLONEL ROOSEVELT TO REACH NEW YORK LATE THIS AFTERNOON

Friends All Over Country Are Much Concerned Over Health of Explorer

RECEPTION IS A BANDONED

Although Wireless Says He Is Improving, Only Relatives Will Be Permitted to Meet Him

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

New York, May 19.—From the steamship Aidan, nearing this port with Theodore Roosevelt aboard, came a wireless message during the forenoon saying that Colonel Roosevelt's health was greatly improved and that within a short time he would deliver a lecture on his explorations in Brazil before the National Geographic Society at Washington.

The Aidan it was reckoned, would reach quarantine about 4 p. m. There a tug was waiting to take the Colonel direct to Oyster Bay.

The Colonel's friends in this city and even his neighbors in Oyster Bay will not have a chance to greet the returning traveler if the plans of his family are carried out. They have arranged to have a strictly family party meet him at quarantine with a tug and take him on it up Long Island.
