BUSY TIMES SOON IN SOUTH HARRISBURG

Tests Under Way to Ascertain Conditions on the Bed of the River; Sidings Completed

Work on the proposed New Cumberland Valley bridge across the Susquehanna may start within the next two weeks. The construction was made to-day. Work on the subways at Front and Mulberry and Second and Mulberry streets is practically under way.

Engineers started yesterday to drill about the piers of the Cumberland Valley bridge to ascertain if there are any quicksands about the piers, and to arrange for the building of the coffer dams. The specifications for the new bridge call for concrete piers to be built around the stone piers now supporting the iron bridge. To get a solid foundation it may be necessary to go below the foundation of some of the present piers.

The placing of the sidings along Mulberry street for unloading material and machinery to be used in the bridge and the subway construction, will be completed to-day. Work has also been resumed on the sewer along the river front in the vicinity of Mulberry street, in order to have the work completed in time so as not to delay the work in the bridge and subways. All the new work will be under the direction of W. K. Martin, assistant engineer in charge of construction on the Pennsylvania railroad, who has opened offices in Harrisburg. No definite time is fixed for starting work in earnest on the subways, but it will be within the next week.

Supplemental Schedule.—Announcement was made from the Pennsylvania railroad passenger department to-day that no new schedule would be forthcoming on May 24. A supplement to the present schedule will be made public on Thursday. Only change affecting Harrisburg is announced. An accommodation train will be run between Harrisburg and Philadelphia leaving Harrisburg at 9:15 a. m. daily except Sunday. In order to relieve the heavy business on present mail newspaper trains running between Philadelphia and Harrisburg between 2 o'clock and 5 o'clock a. m., two sections will be added to the trains now running, and will be continued as long as business permits. It is said a summer schedule with a number of new trains will be announced during June.

Steelton's First Shade Tree Commission Named by Wigfield

JOHN B. MALEHORN

PROF. C. S. DAVIS

WALTER MUMMA

J. HORACE MCFARLAND

H. RUSSELL RUPP

These three men were to-day named by Burgess Fred Wigfield as members of Steelton's first Shade Tree Commission. They will serve for terms of five, four and three years, respectively. J. Horace McFarland, of Harrisburg, and Walter Mumma, of Camp Hill, a former Steelton man, were at the same time asked to act as consulting expert in engineering respectively, to the commission. Both men will accept. This commission is appointed under the provisions of a State act approved May 21, 1907. It will have complete control of the planting, maintaining and protecting of all shade trees in the streets of the borough. In order to carry out its duties it has the power to levy a tax not to exceed one-tenth of a mill. The members of this commission will serve without compensation.

Men On Commission.—Professor C. S. Davis, who heads the commission, is principal of the Steelton high school and chairman of the park committee of the Municipal League. John B. Malehorn is a practical machinist and a member of the firm of Malehorn Brothers. H. Russell Rupp is also a conservative business man who takes an active interest in borough affairs. He was formerly cashier of the Penn Mar Coal Company and is now secretary to Superintendent Smith, of the Pennsylvania Steel Company.

The youngest man connected with the commission is Walter Mumma, who will serve in the capacity of engineer. He is the son of Nissley Dauphin county. He is graduate of the Steelton high school, class of 1908, and of the Pennsylvania State Forestry Academy at Mont Alto, class of 1911. He is now in the State forestry service.

By securing the advice of J. Horace McFarland, one of the country's foremost advocates of conservation, the commission will be able to work along practical lines and will be able to consult with an expert of the highest rank.

The appointment of Steelton's first shade tree commission ends a fight of seven years. Led by the Municipal League and the Civic Club, many of the borough's progressive citizens have advocated the appointment of a commission to direct the planting of shade trees and to stop the tree butchery that has been carried on unchecked for years in the borough.

STRIKERS ARE QUIET

ON ELECTION DAY

Headquarters Almost Deserted; Answer Methodist Plea For "Golden Rule"

Strikers took a day off to-day because it was election day. It was exceedingly quiet around strike headquarters, 1334 1/2 North Sixth street. Vice-president Howard E. G'Sell is still in charge. Resident W. H. Pierce is holding conferences with members of the transportation brotherhoods who are in sympathy with the strikers.

Railroad officials made no statement. President W. H. Pierce was in consultation this afternoon with members of two Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers grievance committees. These deliberations were held in the rooms of the local Socialist party.

Encouragement came to the strikers in the action of the Methodist Preachers' Association yesterday. These ministers passed a resolution favoring the settlement of all controversies according to the Golden Rule. The resolution in full was as follows:

"Whereas certain employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company are now on strike, and whereas it seems that a prolonged labor war, entailing much suffering, is imminent, therefore be it resolved that we, the members of the Methodist Preachers' Association of Harrisburg and vicinity express the hope that both parties of this controversy will speedily settle their difficulties on the basis of the Golden Rule." In answer to this the following statement was issued to-day by the strikers:

Strikers' Statement.—"The striking employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad will certainly appreciate the appliance of the Golden Rule in their grievance as their grievance consists only of a humane treatment, that which no Christian should deny to his fellow man, as there is no money consideration in the demands of the strikers. The striking employees of the Pennsylvania Railroad are on a strike for the same principal and cause that Jesus Christ himself was crucified for and it looks very much like the Pennsylvania Railroad is trying to make history repeat itself by crucifying the humane cause. That the men are striking for seniority, that which belongs to every man. It seems unjust to take a man to give all his youth and vitality to a corporation and then in his declining years be laid off and left to seek employment elsewhere.

To replace old men with young men. A man or set of men who has justice for their goal will never object to applying the Golden Rule. "Thanking the Ministerial Association for the labor in the behalf of justice, the heads, dizziness, nervousness and their aid and hospitality given the brotherhood in their fight for justice. "H. G'SELL, "Vice-president."

Headache and Dizziness.—Headache is never a disease. It is always a symptom. Applications, powders and tablets that drug the headache into quietude are treating the symptoms, not the disease, always a useless proceeding and often harmful.

When headache is associated with some dizziness it is usually the result of nervous exhaustion and will continue as long as the person who is overworked allows the debility to continue. It rapidly disappears when rest and the proper tonic is taken.

Nervous exhaustion, the cause of such headaches and dizziness, results from a strain on the nerves with which the rebuilding work of the blood is unable to keep pace. The best tonic for such a condition is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills build up the blood and strengthen the nerves. With this treatment, unless the overwork, worry, or whatever has caused the nervous breakdown, is persisted in, the headache, dizziness, nervousness and irritability that characterize neurasthenia rapidly disappear.

The Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y., will send free on request a helpful little book on the home treatment of nervous disorders. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are obtainable at any drug store.—Advertisement.
