The fight in the Democratic pparty over the senatorial and gubernatorial nominations was reflected in the congressional districts, at least two present Democratic members of Congress being defeated. John H. Rothermel, who has served four terms in the Thirteenth district, was defeated bp Arthur G. Dewalt, of Allentown. Robert E. Diffenderfer, present member from the Eighth district, lost the Democratic nomination to Harry E. Grim, John J. Casey was renominated by the Democrats in the Eleventh district.
Cingressma A. R. Brodbeck was again named by the Democratics in the Twentisth as was also Robert E. Lee, ppresent Democratic incumbent from the Politics

The bitter struggle between the McCormick and Ryan factions for the city vote was reflected yesterday in the contest for the Democratic nominations for the House in the city district. The Republicans had no contest for the nominations in the city and that in the county was nothing very exciting.

In the city district Augustus Wildman was renominated by the Republicans, receiving 2,542 votes, while J. W. Swartz, his colleague, received 2,723. In the county district returns indicate the nominations of Walter S. Young, Lykens, and John C. Nissley, Lower Paxton. The Democrats had no fight in the county district returns indicate the nominations of Walter S. Young, Lykens, and John C. Nissley, Lower Paxton. The Democrats had no fight in the county district, for a wonder, Lykens, and J. E. Martin, M. H. Saussaman, Williamstown, and H. B. Saussaman, Williamstown, and H. B. Martin, M. Williamstown, and J. E. Martin, M. Williamstown, and M. Williamstown, and J. S. Martin, M. Williamstown, and J. W. Barker, with 408, and Wilmer Crow, with 389.

Mayor on Committee

Mayor John K. Royal, known to fame as the nonpartisan Mayor of Harrisburg, won a place on the partisan Democratic State committee, The Mayor was busy all day and rolled in at the head of the partisan parade with 3,319 votes, receiving 1,944 in the city of which he is the nonpartisan mayor, and 1,375 in the county.

The vote for the others was this way:

Mosslein, city 1,840, county 1,222; total, 3,062.

Holstein, city 753, county 444; total, 1,103.
