FARMER ATTEMPTS TO KILL HIS WIFE

Crazed With Liquor He Fires Off Shot Gun and Runs Several Miles

Special to The Telegraph
Marietta, Pa., May 21.—Amos Fisher, a farmer of Wakefield, this county, ran amuck Tuesday afternoon with a shot gun, and fired several times, almost killing his wife. He was finally captured and landed in the county jail. He is a well-known farmer, living on the Andrew Charles farm, and well known and highly respected. The attempted crime was due to the influence of drink, as he was inebriated freely for several days. For several miles he ran like a mad man, and threatened everybody in his path. The shot at his wife missed only by the miraculous margin of an inch, but the other shots fired did not take effect, although she was burned about the

Valuable Cattle Poisoned by Eating Green Paint

Special to The Telegraph
Blain, Pa., May 21.—Five head of valuable cattle out of a herd of seven died for George E. Stine, a tenant on the farm of William W. Woods, by being poisoned by green paint which they licked up from wooden rails in the meadow where they were grazing. The vessels were thrown there last summer and had fallen apart by exposure to the weather, which gave the stock a chance to eat the deadly stuff.

DEATH OF MRS. WM. WALLS
Special to The Telegraph
Dillsburg, Pa., May 21.—Mrs. William H. Walls died at her home in Carroll township last night from the effects of a stroke of paralysis. Mrs. Walls was 89 years old and is survived by her husband, three stepchildren, Mrs. John Grove, William Walls, Jr.,

SIX ENTRIES FOR ROLLERMOBILE RACE

Runs to Be Held in Front Street From Locust to State; Many Prizes

Space is reserved for his name, age and address.
At the meeting of the committee at the electric light company's offices the plans for the coming races were explained by Robert W. Hoy, commercial manager, and details for entering were discussed. Luncheon was served at the close of the session. The races will be held in front street from State to Locust, as last year, and permission for the use of the street has been obtained of Colonel Joseph B. Hutchison, chief of police. The first race will be run off at 9 o'clock and contestants will report at 8:45 o'clock at State and Front streets. There will be three events, one for boys 9 to 10, 11 to 12 and 13 to 14.
Ribbon badges for the committee-men have been distributed. These bear the inscription "Committee—Electric Iron Rollerobile Race—May 30." The half-hundred or more boys had their first chance to see the prizes at the meeting of the committee. There will be four awarded in each event. Here they are:
9 to 10 Year Class—First, skates; second, Brownie camera; third, watch; fourth, air rifle.
11 to 12 Year Class—First, tennis racquet and balls second, catcher's mit; third, roller skates; fourth, tennis shoes.
13 to 14 Year Class—First, baseball and bat; second, fishing rod; third, glove and ball; fourth, quills and pins.

PRESS BREAKS DOWN

Special to The Telegraph
Dillsburg, Pa., May 21.—The large cylinder newspaper printing press of the Bulletin Publishing Company broke down while printing the last week's issue of the Dillsburg Bulletin. The paper was then finished in a Mechanical printing office. The necessary repairs not being completed, the paper will again be printed in the Mechanicsburg office.

PHOTOPLAY THEATER
John Bunno, the original stout and funny comedian, with Miss Flora Finch just the opposite, will be the funmakers at this theater to-day in "Bunny in Disgrace." Many laughable scenes are shown. "The Mystery of Room 643," an Essanay in two reels, is a great detective story. The feature to-day is "A Fight For a Birthright." In three reels, shows how a young person has to fight to get what belongs to him.—Advertisement.

HE KNEW

A Washingtonian, who was touring the Shenandoah Valley, stopped his motorcar in the road one day and asked an aged dorky who was painfully proceeding in the opposite direction whether he knew where Mr. Simpkins lived.
"Yessuh," was the reply. "He live heah in de valley."
"Do you know where his house is?"
The aged negro chuckled. "Deed I do, boss," he said. "I only wish I had as many dollars as I knows where dat house is."—Edwin Tarrisse in February Lippincott's.
