JUDGMENT ASKED AGAINST POWELL

He Makes Sharp Report About the Proceedings and Jurors Are Told Not to Come In

Judgment against Auditor General A. W. Powell was asked to-day by Deputy Attorney General W. M. Hargest, the Dauphin county court being requested to issue a writ of habeas corpus against the chief accounting officer of the State to compel him to issue a warrant for the payment of a bill from the Highway Department, which provided that the case should be taken from the income from automobile licenses. This is the latest move in the controversy over the disposition of about a million dollars and the court took the matter under advisement. Just what the Auditor General will do is a matter of conjecture on the Hill. If he wants he can take an appeal and throw the whole matter into the Supreme Court, but this is doubted. He wants some abatement from the State for counsel fees.

When Powell heard of the motion and was asked for a statement he said: "I am busy with other duties in my office. I don't see any necessity in devoting all of my time to highway matters and immature pleadings."

Owing to the situation the jurors summoned to appear in the Dauphin county court on Monday in the event of Powell asking a jury trial have been notified that they will not be needed.

Attack Rates.—Attack on the rates of the Pennsylvania railroad came from two places to-day. The Delaware River Steel company, of Chester, charged improper demurrage charges and the Westmoreland Specialty Co., of Craneyville, attacks its coal rates. The Public Service Commission approved the contracts for the abolition of the Pennsylvania's grade crossings in Wilkensburg and Duquesne. These projects involve spending over $2,000,000.

Army Deeds.—State officials expect the title deeds of the Sixth regiment battalion armory at 41st and Manton, Philadelphia, to be delivered shortly. When that is done, steps to improve the building will be taken. The State is furnishing $10,000 to buy the building, the balance being contributed.

Dauphin Suits.—Thirty-two prosecutions for the sale of watered milk and other offenses against the pure food and drink laws were inaugurated to-day in seven counties of the State, one of the most remarkable authorized by Dairy and Food Commissioner James Foust being of a Schuylkill county man who sold buttermilk containing twenty per cent of water. This is the first case of its kind in the State.

Recall Charters.—The Attorney General Department has started to clear out the charters of a number of inactive corporations. This step has been taken in the Dauphin county court to rescind the franchises. Most of the proceedings are amicable, the companies being willing to surrender charters.

Big Auto Day.—To-day was a field day for automobile license revenue, over $10,000 being paid in as the day's receipts from cars and trucks which were entered. The number issued is away up.

Can Build Pier.—The State Water Supply Commission last night announced its approval of the application of the Harrisburg Light and Power Company for permission to build a pier at Cedar street, Bridges for Blair and other central counties which were approved. An application for permission to build a wall in the Allegheny at Warren was refused.

Glanders in City.—State Veterinarian Marshall is combating an outbreak of glanders in Philadelphia. This is the only point of trouble in the state.

To Build Armories.—The State Armory Board is awaiting the deeds and reports of soil tests for the armory sites in Lebanon, Oil City and Allentown. As soon as received plans for buildings will be drawn up. Steps to take over the Sixth Regiment battalion armory in Philadelphia are under way.

Ready for Trouble.—By direction of the State Armory Board, civilian treasurers will replace all national guardsmen acting as treasurers of local armory boards. There are twenty-three places where this change will be made. Should the guard be called into active service the affairs of armories would not be interfered with.

APPOINTMENT OF A REBEL COMMISSIONER

...to-day assumed by the Constitutionalists to the mediation were of the opinion that their delegates would come without previous communication and advise the mediators that he had been authorized to give them any information desired about the Constitutionalist purposes and program.

Many Constitutionalists' prominence have long realized the value to them of having a man on the ground where the destinies of the southern republic are being discussed in a forum commanding world-wide attention. This fact is known to the mediators who, however, are most curious to learn whether General Carranza has authorized these delegates to representative here and under what circumstances.

Vasconcelos Is Well Known

Jose Vasconcelos, who is the man who would represent the Constitutionalists is well known to many of the Mexicans. He took a prominent part in the Madero revolution, being confidential agent at one time of Washington. He is a close friend of General Carranza. He has been in the United States for the last few months looking after the interests of the Constitutionalist cause and is now said to be in Montreal. He is a young man and achieved prominence as a lawyer in Mexico City.

Constitutionalists Say One More Battle Will End Their Campaign

By Associated Press

Washington, May 22.—American Consul Hanna at Monterey has informed the State Department that Constitutionalists' authorities have agreed to hold in Mexico the long missing American Vice-consul, John R. Silliman, who cannot be found since Huerta's agents assured Secretary Bryan that he had been released from custody of Mexican federalists at Saltillo.

Unofficial reports were that Silliman might arrive at Mexico City to-day but the department has received no such advice.

Perfect Order Prevails in and About Tampico

By Associated Press

Tampico, May 22.—Perfect order is being maintained in Tampico. The shops are open and it is expected that all business will soon be resumed on a normal basis.

The Constitutionalists' authorities display the most friendly spirit toward Americans and are doing all in their power to facilitate the resumption of their business. In the case of one American who complained of being robbed in a neighboring town by a detachment of troops was dispatched there immediately to demand reparation.

Many former residents of Tampico who fled during the federal regime are beginning to return. All departments of the municipal government are running smoothly.

Permission is being granted the oil men to proceed up the river to the oil camps and already there is a strong demand for labor in the oil fields.

It is rumored that some federal troops have reappeared in the neighborhood of Tampico. A detachment has been sent there with doctors to care for the federal wounded who were left behind in the retreat of the main body.

It is also reported that oil wells in the Panuco region are overflowing into the river, with the possibility that the oil may be ignited.

Loyal Mexicans Save Oil Wells at Tampico

By Associated Press

Washington, D. C., May 22.—Loyalty of Mexican natives who were left in charge of oil wells at Tampico and Panuco after the foreign operators fled from the danger zone, was responsible for preservation of the properties, according to R. Meates, an official of the International Petroleum Company, whose report on conditions in the oil fields has been forwarded to the State Department.

Meates recently returned to Tampico to inspect the damage to the wells and made an exploration of the wells at Panuco also and found that they had suffered only minor damage, due to depredations by stragglers after the fleeing Federals had evacuated the town.

Body of American Killed in Mexico, Taken to Laredo

By Associated Press

Washington, D. C., May 22.—The body of Porfirio Laurel, an American, who was killed by Mexicans in Mexico, has been recovered and taken to Laredo, where it will be buried to-day, according to State Department advices to-day. Examination showed that Laurel had died from bayonet wounds.

Another America Put to Death by Mexicans

By Associated Press

Washington, D. C., May 22.—Confirmation of the killing by Mexicans of Richard Urban, an American citizen of German birth, was received by the State Department to-day. American Consul Agent Montagu, at Cananea, reported that Urban and a companion were attacked without provocation at Pointed Mountain, eighteen miles west of Nacoarzi. A band of Mexicans fired from a house without warning. Urban fell dead, but his companion escaped.

Constitutionalists Will Help to Locate Silliman

By Associated Press

Washington, May 22.—General Carranza's report of a plan for sending a representative to the Niagara conference and Secretary Bryan's renewed efforts to learn the fate of John R. Silliman, American vice-consul at Saltillo, were absorbing features in the Mexican situation here to-day.

Dispatches from Niagara Falls stating that it was not generally believed that a Constitutional representative would be admitted to the negotiations at this stage excited little comment here. It was pointed out that if Carranza did send an emissary he would go to inform the mediators of the northern faction's general aims; he would not commit the Constitutionalists to any specific plan for Mexico's pacification that the envoys might suggest.

Announcement of the Constitutionalists' plans, however, was received with satisfaction in official and diplomatic circles as opening an avenue, ultimately, for a general discussion of proposals to settle the entire Mexican problem.

communication to-day with Justice Lamar and former Solicitor General Lehman, the American representatives at Niagara Falls, he renewed his inquiry for information of Vice-consul Silliman's whereabouts. Dispatches were sent to the Brazilian legation in Mexico City and to officials at Eagle Pass and Monterey. Since the South American envoys and the British embassy here were informed several days ago that Silliman had been released and sent on his way to Mexico City for safe conduct to Funston's lines at Vera Cruz, nothing had been heard from him. The lack of rail communication between Saltillo and Mexico City was suggested as a possible reason for absence of news. The evacuation of Saltillo by Huerta's 12,000 troops and the near approach of the Constitutionalists resulted in the hope that news soon might be received of Silliman.

One More Fight Expected

Constitutionalist officials to-day jubilantly predicted that there remained only one more battle to bring their long campaign to an end. They believe the final desperate struggle of the revolution, the queer of Huerta's last stand, will be at Queretaro. That place, they point out, is more adaptable for fortifications than San Luis Potosi, where a federal garrison still remains.
