Harrisburg shooters were again among the leaders in the Pennsylvania State shoot at Pittsburgh yesterday. H. Brewster Shoop, of Harrisburg, was third in interstate amateur championship event, breaking 96 targets. W. S. Brehm, of Reading, was high man with 98, and Charles H. The three-man team race for the Harrisburg trophy, was carried away by the Harrisburg team, Keller, Shoop and Martin, with 73 out of 75. The four-man team contest resulted in a triple tie between the Harrisburg team, the Philadelphia Independents, Newcomb, Greenwood, Glegg and Ford and Herron Hill, of Pittsburgh, all three teams scoring 92 out of 100. Dual Track Meet Tomorrow Between Central and Teck High

Local Athletes Promise to Afford Excitement When They Lineup For Local Honors

Having won State high school track honors, Technical athletes will go after local honors to-morrow in the annual dual meet with Central high school. The program calls for fifteen events and the trial heats in the 100-yard dash will be called at 2 o'clock sharp. Unusual interest is manifested in this meet because Central high claims that Tech's victory last Saturday was helped by other schools having a small representation in the series of events. Central high will have all their candidates out to-morrow. Tech will present new faces in their lineup. George Bogar will present the winning team with a silver cup. Because of this meet, all baseball games scheduled for Municipal Field have been called off. Games arranged between amateur teams will be played elsewhere or postponed until a later date.

Smallest Mermaid Is After Women Swimmers

Can you imagine a pretty child of ten vying for athletic honors against the best of full grown rivals? It does seem absurd, doesn't it? Yet there is no doubt that Florence McLaughlin of Philadelphia, the smallest mermaid in the world, threatens the laurels of the leading women swimmers in her district and will take a lot of beating in next summer's important contests. Florence is not a newcomer of unknown ability. She has already proved her worth. Last August, when a tot of nine, standing 4 feet 3 inches and weighing 68 pounds, she swam five miles in the practically still waters of the Schuylkill river in a trifle over three years. At the time this performance was met with general skepticism, for none believed it possible that a mere baby should do such amazing work. Nevertheless, every doubt of the feat was swept aside, for the chubby miss entered a five-and-one-half-mile race for her sex, and not only complete the long course without turning a hair, but defeated eight of eleven mature opponents.
