Official Anouncement Has Yet Reached the Strike Headquarters

Arrangements have been made for a mass meeting to-night at White's Hall, open to all railroad employes. The speakers for this meeting are still a matter of conjecture. President W. G. Lee, of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, is announced as the principal speaker. As no word has been received at strike headquarters from President Lee, his presence is an uncertainty.

President Lee, his presence is an uncertainty.

President W. H. Pierce, of the Brotherhood of Federated Railway Employes, is also out of the city. Whether he would reach Harrisburg in time for to-night's meeting is not known. Inquiry at strike headquarters, 1334½ North Sixth street, to-day brought the following from Secretary C. S. Shelley:

"The meeting to-night will be an open session for all transportation brotherhood men and railroaders in general. We have the assurance from trainmen brothers that President Lee will be present. I also expect President Pierce to return in time for the meeting. As far as I know, the meeting will be held in White's Hail."

At Enola yesterday eighty-five men who came here from Pierce I. V. V.

At Enola yesterday eighty-five men who came here from Buffalo, N. Y., a week ago were relieved and sent home. Their places were filled by local furloughed men and by employes secured from other points. Officials to-day denied that the men quit work because they were put on piecework.

The committee to make final arrangements for the first sociability run on Memorial Day met at the Motor Club's headquarters last evening and decided to check out the cars in the morning and after dinner. This will permit those who fine it convenient to leave in the morning to reach Lewisburg in time for dinner and then take whatever side trips they choose in the afternoon, and get back to the New Cameron House for supper with the group that leaves Harrisburg after dinner. The prizes will then be awarded at hotel Saturday evening and touring party remain at Lewisburg over night and for Sunday breakfast, after which the tour will be continued to Lewistown. From there the touring parties will return to Harrisburg by way of the Lewistown Narrows, and take any other route desired.

The rules for the sociability run will The rules for the sociability run will simply mean that each car is checked out, say at 9.01, and the time from then to the time car arrives at the New Cameron House in Lewisburg will be totaled with the running time of all the other cars and divided by the number of cars entered. The car having made the time nearest to this figure will be declared winner of the prize.

Friedrick will be declared winner of the prize.

On account of many stores usually keeping open on Decoration Day, the distribution should encourage many to join the sociability run. All those desiring to make this trip should signify their intention or ask for additional information by calling up Befl 982, and ask for the secretary of the Motor Club of Harrisburg.
