Astrich's 1/2 Price Suit Sale

To-morrow we have arranged to start our dismissal sale of every suit in stock. We wish particularly to emphasize the fact that all suits will go in this sensational sale, without exception or reservation. Remember the bigger values go with the earlier choosing.

$15.00 Suits $7.50 | $25.00 Suits $12.50 $20.00 Suits . . . $10.00 $30.00 Suits . . . $15.00

Saturday Sale of $18 to $25 Silk and Crepe Dresses $4

All new Spring models, one and two of a kind, good assortment of colors and sizes. Choice

$8 to $10 Sample Coats $5 and $6 Serge Dresses Reduced to

About twenty in the lot, few Balmacaans.

broken lots and samples-a Navy, Copen, Brown and

Special For Saturday Only 100 Sample Wash Dresses $

Regular $6.00, $7.00 and $8.00 values-Linens. Voiles and Crepes

Summer Lines Now Complete

Splendid assortment of Linen, Voile, Ratine and Plain and Flowered Crepe Dresses-Linen, Pique and Fancy Weave Tub Skirts-Linen Dusters, etc., at Popular Prices.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. George F. Johnston, of 2037 Swatara street, entertained in-formally at dinner Wednesday even-ing, in celebration of their wedding anniversary. The table appointments were of pink and white, and the guests were of pink and white, and the guests were of pink and write. were of plink and white, and the guests included Miss Margaret Paget, Miss Anna Foerster, Miss Edith Johnston, Carl Cross, William Johnston, Alfred Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. William Mc-Alister, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Johnston,

MARRIED FIFTY-THREE YEARS

riage, Saturday, May 16, at their Lightner home. They have taken "The Tele-

The ladies' auxiliary of Division No. 1, A. O. H., will hold a euchre and dance in the Benton club hall, Steel-ton, this evening. A large attendance is expected.

Personal Social S Miss Shaub's May Dance

Shaub's May Dance Enjoyed by Young Folks MR. SKIFF'S PUPILS

Friends of Miss Mary Shaub enjoyed May dance last evening at Hanshaw's hall where decorations of pink

A my dance last evening at Hanshaw's hall where decorations of pink and white prevailed.

In attendance were: Miss Vera Yenther the bigger values go with the sensational sale, without exher the bigger values go with $25.00 Suits $12.50 $30.00 Suits $15.00

of $18 to $25 $25.00 Suits $15.00 Suit

LUNCHEON WITH MRS. BOAS Mrs. Butler, of Leeds, England, who has been visiting her sisters, Miss Rachel Pollock and Dr. Martha Pollock, for a time, was guest of honor yesterday at a luncheon given by Mrs. Henry D. Boas, at her residence, 505 North Front stret. Covers were laid for six guests.

MARRIED FIFTY-THREE YEARS

Mrs. Charles F. Etter, of 904 North
Second street, is a guest of Mrs. San-soon open her cottage at Mount Gretna ford D. Lent at Allentown this week. for the summer.

More Than 3,000

Just after the arrival of Miss Mary Baum, of Wormleysburg, at the residence of Miss Helen Bratten, 2152 Green street, last evening, a witch presented her with a boat with a man in it, and said: "You will soon cross the water to stay." Later a basket arrived for Miss Baum, which was found to contain a variety of kitchenware, for her new home in China, after her marriage to A. Maxwell Paget, of Canton, next Fall.

The house decorations were of yellow and white, and the refreshment table was graced with a May Pole centerpiece, with tiny dolls dancing around it. Just after the arrival of Miss Mary terpiece, with tiny dolls dancing around it.

In the party were: Miss Baum, Mrs. Edward Baum, Mrs. J. Lauer Baum, Miss Hannah Lauer, Miss Catherine Griffee, Mrs. Benjamin Brenneman, Mrs. J. H. Barnholt, Mrs. Robert C. Bratten, Mrs. George Fornwalt, Mrs. Lawrence Harvey, Mrs. Charles Koch, Mrs. Harvey Lease, Mrs. Thomas Hudgins, Mrs. Herbert McClure, Miss Belle Pancake, Miss Helen Reynolds, Miss Clara Snavely, Mrs. Earnest Steventon, Mrs. James C. Poffenberger, Miss Gertrude Trace, Mrs. Clarence Rupp, Mrs. Stanley C. Smith, Miss Nelle Work, Miss Esther Bratten, Miss Ruth Brattet, Mrs. Landis Bratten and Miss Helen Bratten.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Irving Deihl, of Paxtang, announce the birth of a son, David Heilman Deihl, Thursday, May 21, 1914. Mrs. Deihl who was formerly Miss Edna Groff, of this city, is well known by her "Aunt Este" stories published in The Telegraph. Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Paget, of 830 North Eighteenth street, announce the birth of a son, John Paget, Jr., Saturday, May 16, 1914. Mrs. Paget was formerly Miss Edith Becker, of Waynesboro. Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Morris. of

French Room Where new styles of millinery are first shown. Just now there is an extraordinarily attractive display of Lace, Panama and White Hats for

The prices are reasonable.

Just say "French Room" to the elevator man.

Astrich's

WITMER, BAIR & WITMER

Of Our Entire Stock of Suits

Tomorrow, Saturday and Monday, May 23 and 25

300 New Suits-none over 90 days old-as we cleaned house two weeks ago.

Not often we quote customers' remarks, but as we are writing this ad we hear a customer at the phone calling a friend to the suit sale which begins to-day, saying. "Are you coming down." "Oh! they are dandy," etc.

Such expressions speak volumes and there is no necessity for us to more than give pric	es for our kind.

30 Suits 22 Suits	$7.50	Values	two	and
22 Suits	$10.00	three times	s the as	sking
64 Suits	$12.50	prices; c	olors	and
24 Suits	$15.00	black; size	s 16 t	o 51
60 Suits	$17.50	bust.		1

For the Newest and the Best in the House

Though the Russian Suits with long tunic and Roman striped skirts and trimming arrived only a short time ago and cost more than $17.50, and is New York's latest craze, as the writer saw during the last three days. Yet we let these go into the sale to keep your confidence, as we say our entire stock, your choice—until we get the stock down to recrued.

New White Coats, Linen Dresses, Skirts, Waists, China and Jap Silk Dresses, etc., for Saturday business.

WITMER, BAIR & WITMER

202 WALNUT STREET

WITMER, BAIR & WITMER ANNEX: 311 Walnut St.

This is the weather that makes the Annex a veritable Bee Hive-Cool Summer cheaply priced frocks, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00 to $3.50.

Silk Petticoats, $1.75, $1.95, $2.25 and $2.75, and $2.95 for a $3.50 silk jersey top. 35 styles of low neck, short sleevalists that are little beauties, $1.00, $1.25 and $1.50.

High neck and long sleeve waists, 69c, 79c, 89c, for 40c.
Can you beat it for their style and quality?

Ordinary in Price---Extraordinary in Style

ELECTRIC HOUSE DRESSES n style or fit. They embody the very latest ideas and are neatly trimmed.

Yet we ask no more for them than you pay for ordinary house dresses. And it's this that makes the Electric so popular. They are the most wanted house dress of the many. Gracefully cut, they enable you to be neat, and attractively attired at home. Although perfectly fitting they are roomy to allow ease of action and are made extrastrong for possible strain.
Come in and see the extraordinary values in Electric House Dresses priced from $1 to $3.

Witmer, Bair & Witmer ANNEX: 311 Walnut Street

Juniors Are Giving

Reception to Seniors

Great preparations are under way for the annual reception and dance to the seniors of the Central High School at Summerdale Friday, May 29.

Mrs. Vint's parent sand sister, Mr. and Mrs. Vint's parent sand sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hindle and Miss Amy Hindle, of Southport, England. Mr. and Mrs. Hindle will celebrate their golden wedding in August, while in this country.

Will Go Acception to Seniors

Great preparations are under way for the annual reception and dance to the seniors of the Central High School at Summerdale Friday, May 29.

From many years it has been the custom for the junior class to give such prove as fine as ever before. Dancing will be the main feature, cards and so the provided of the seniors of the Central High School at Summerdale Friday, May 29. tom for the junior class to give such an affair and this year's reception will prove as fine as ever before. Dancing will be the main feature, cards and amusements being provided for those not participating in the dancing.

Three special cars will leave Market Square only in the evening to conduct the large crowd. Seniors desiring to enioy one of the best social affairs of the season should not fail to be present.

An invitation has been extended to the faculty and to all students of the school. Samuel Froelich is chairman of the committee of arrangements.

PETERS-BENDER WEDDING TAKES PLACE IN MARYLAND

Mrs. Laura Bender, of 1824 Park street, announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Laura F. Bender, to Clyde E. Peters, of 126 North Thirteenth street. The ceremony was performed Tuesday, May 19, at the parsonage of the First Baptist Church, Hagerstown, Md., by the Rev. E. K. Thomas.

Hagerstown, Md., by the Rev. E. R. Thomas.

The bride, formerly employed by the Bell Telephone Company, wore a traveling costume of blue cloth with black hat trimmed in wings. Mr. and Mrs. Peters are residing at 126 North Thirteenth street, temporarily.

TO SUMMER IN EUROPE

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brooks Spahr, of Cottage Ridge, will sail Wednesday, June 3, for Europe. They will spend two months touring in England, Belgium, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Italy and France, returning home early in August.

STEREOPTICON LECTURE ON "THE IMMIGRANT"

A stereopticon lecture on "The Immigrant" will be given at the Covenant Presbyterian church Tuesday evening, May 26, at 8 o'clock, by the pastor, the Rev. Harvey Klaer. There is no admission, but a silver offering will be taken.

Mrs. David J. Reese, of 237 Wood-bine street, who underwent a throat operation at the Harrisburg hospital early in the week, is getting along operation at the Harrisburg hospital early in the week, is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Samuel Means and Chalmers Stuart, of Carlisle, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Means, of North street.

Hotel the cruel electric needle electric needle simply meant grat pain, a sore and skin, and the instance of the cruel electric needle elec the birth of a son, John Paget, Jr., Saturday, May 16, 1914. Mrs. Paget Waynesboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey Morris, of Waynesboro. C., announce the birth of a daughter, Esther Mary Morris, Monday, May 18, 1914. Mr. and Mrs. Morris are frequent visitors to this city.

Miss Helen Martin and Miss Grace Martin have returned to their homes at Germantown after a little visit here with their aunt, Mrs. Ralph Craig, of Market street.

Miss Mary Emily Relly is hope in despair, when by chance should be with Walton.

Miss Edith Walton.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Beidleman, of South Thirteenth street, have gone to Evergreen cottage, Mount Gretna, for the summer.

Mrs. Christian L. Nissley, of Hamilton street, is recovering her health after a protracted illness.

Miss Kathleen Davis has gone to Cape May to remain for a month. Mrs. Emily E. Miller entertained her Sunday School class in Grace Methodist church yesterday at Hills-dale, the Sites bungalow, at Overview.

Miss Mary Kerr Blaikie, of the Central High School faculty, is spending the week-end in Philadelphia.

Benjamin M. Nead is registered at The Martinique, New York city, during the thirty-seventh annual session of the Royal Arcanum.

Business Locals

WHITE ENAMELED FURNITURE

For city or country summer residence is most charming indeed. It is so cool-looking, so dainty and clean that it appeals to the most fastidious. The dressers and chiffoniers beautifully match brass or enameled beds. See them at J. P. Harris & Son, 221 North Second street.

THAT'S THE QUESTION

Do you want good carpet and rug cleaning—or do you prefer to pay for inferior work? Our new method of cleaning and renovating carpets gets every particle of dirt, dust and spots out without the slightest damage to fabric or color. Phone us to-day. Sanitary Carpet and Rug Cleaning Company, 352 Broad street.

Mrs. Henry to Give

Mrs. J. R. Henry, of Washington FT. WASHINGTON PARK TO-NIGHT organist of Derry Street, United Brethren church, Fifteenth and Derry streets, to-night will give an organ recital in the church. The recital is one of a series of events commemorating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of Derry street church.

church.

Assisting Mrs. Henry will be Mrs.
Arthur H. Hull, Prof. T. H. Davies and Roy Mathias, soloists, and Master Whitman, boy violinist of Middletown.
The recital will begin promptly at 8 o'cleck.

Miss Eleanor L. Etter, of Pino street, is visiting at Trenton and Philadelphia for a few days.

Mrs. Daniel H. Hastings has re-

SATURDAY FOOD SALE

noon and evening at the Hill market Organ Recital Tonight one of the Hill market Bread, cakes, pies and homemade candy, as well as many delicacies will be on sale.

Suffragette prize. Come and see the fun.—Advertisement.

Mrs. J. A. Stambaugh and Mrs. A. A. Stecher, who were guests of Mrs. Charles Clendenin, 37 North Thirteenth street, have returned to their homes in Carlisle.

Mrs. Daniel H. Hastings has returned to Bellefonte after a short visit with Mrs. William O. Hickok, 508 North Second street.

The Woman's Adult Bible Class of the Immanuel Presbyterian Church will hold a food sale Saturday afterfor a trip to New York and Boston.

Don't Try to Electrocute Your Superfluous Hair 💉 Electricity Always STIMULATES Hair Growth-How to Kill and Dissolve Out Roots and All.

FOR THE BENEFIT OF TELEGRAPH READERS, LADY EXPLAINS HOW SHE ACCIDENTALLY DISCOVERED A NEW ABSORPTION PROCESS WHICH PERMANENTLY REMOVED HER HARRY MASK AFTER ELECTRICITY, TWEEZERS, CAUSTIC PASTES, LOTIONS, POWDERS AND ALL OTHER DEPILATORIES AND ADVERTISED REMEDIES HAD ABSOLUTELY FAILED TO DO ANYTHING BUT HARM, BY FAILED TO DO ANYTHING BUT HARM, BY following simple directions given below, every woman now has the means of casily preparing and using in her own home this wonderful process which has hitherto been a carefully guarded secret known only to a few high-priced specialists. Full directions are now made public for the first time. All who are affired with superflux obtained, and prepared by anyone specialists. Full directions are now made public for the first time.

All who are afflicted with superfluous hair will be interested to learn of the amazing discovery made by Miss Alma Randall, who until recently was deeply humiliated by these repulsive discovery the service of the service recommende found to he ow that if an at Germantown after a little visit here with their aunt, Mrs. Ralph Craig, of Market street.

Miss Mary Emily Reily is home from Orange, N. J., where she visited Miss Edith Walton.

Miss Josephine Winters was hostess to-day at a luncheon to the members of the S. A. F. club.

Miss Mabel Taggart, of 1532 North Fourth street, is at Atlantic City for a stay of several months.

Mrs. James Henry Darlingon and Miss Eleanor Townsend Darlington are in New York City for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Powell, of Wichita, Kansas, who are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Carson Stamm, accompanied their hostess on an automobile trip to Gettysburg to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Carson Stamm, accompanied their hostess on an automobile trip to Gettysburg to-day.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Beidlaman.

Large Type Pages of Life, Love, Laughter. For Telegraph CristReaders Only Six Cloth Bound Vels. More Than 3,000 Large Type Pages NELSON NELSON

IN TIME OF WAR

The mind turns to feats of arms and the exploits of men whose fame was won by their personal courage and appetite for great adventure. Such a man was D'Artagnan, one of the most dashing and romantic heroes that ever drew a sword.

The Great DUMAS

was so impressed by D'Artagnan's adventures that he made him the hero of "The Three Musketeers"—a book that has long delighted millions of readers. Dumas' fame rests on "Monte Cristo," too. As popular plays you have probably seen them on the regular stage or in the "Movies." But the real enjoyment lies in

SIX IMPORTED VOLUMES

from the famous London publishers, Thomas Nelson and Sons, include these two immortal romances, together with "Twenty Years After," "The Queen's Necklace" and "Marguerite de Valois." These beautiful books, in large type, on Bible paper, with duotone illustrations, and binding in Red and Gold, are

All Yours For 98 Cents

Clip the Free Library Coupon on Page 2

BE QUICK ABOUT IT if you would profit by this unusual opportunity, extended for a short time to our readers, by special arrangement with the pub-