JUDGE KUNKEL'S MAJORITY MAY BE MORE THAN 9,000

Plans Are Being Made For Vigorous Campaign; Expense Accounts Coming In

Judge Kunkel's majority for State Supreme Court Judge will run over 9,000, it is believed.

Nothing since Saturday has been received at the Kunkel headquarters, but it is believed that the official count will tend to increase rather than decrease the majority as it appeared then. Already preparations are being made for a vigorous campaign.

Ten counties have filed their official returns of the primary election at the State Department and the figures are being tabulated. The first return was filed by Cameron county on Saturday and to-day returns came in from Cumberland, Franklin, Mifflin, Monroe, Montour, Juniata, Perry, Snyder and Union.

Of nine candidates for State nominations who have filed expense accounts at the Capitol one shows expenditure of over $50. This one was Harry Watson, Greenville, candidate for congress-at-large on the Washington party ticket. He spent $52, of which $500 went to the State committee. Those filing affidavits of expenditure of less than $50 were M. H. Stevenson, Willard E. Ritter and F. W. White, candidate for gubernatorial nomination; Percy F. Smith for lieutenant-governor; Fred E. Lewis and W. N. McNair for secretary of internal affairs; S. Harper Smith, congress-at-large; and A. M. Fuller, Superior Court.

D. E. North, treasurer of the Palmer-McCormick committee, of Blair county, filed a statement that he had received $200 from Robert Toland, treasurer of the Palmer-McCormick State committee and had spent all but $44.75 which was returned.

Unofficial returns from the Seventeenth congressional district show a plurality of 2,543 for E. K. Focht over James M. Yeager for the Republican nomination for Congress. Focht got every county.

Democratic State headquarters is working up the McCormick majority with considerable regularity, every new return adding to it. The State windmill is now preparing for the State committee meeting at which the platform will be adopted and the candidates show themselves. State Chairman Morris does not expect a fight against him.

Pinchot will start his campaign to-day, traveling by automobile. He will go to twenty counties before the summer is far advanced.

SHIP CANAL TO THIS CITY IS SUGGESTED

Economic Expert of U. of P. Says Waterway Is Needed Along Susquehanna

One of the future probabilities in Pennsylvania is a canal along the Susquehanna river to Harrisburg. This is one opinion of Professor Simon Nelson Patton, of the University of Pennsylvania, in the fifth of a series of articles on problems which Philadelphia and Pennsylvania must meet within the next fifty years.

Among the transportation facilities suggested by Professor Patton, which would cost approximately $200,000,000, are a tunnel under the Allegheny mountains, a deep water channel to Philadelphia, and a ship canal to Harrisburg.

Against the fixed charges of possibly $10,000,000 a year, there would be a gain of at least $2,000,000,000 in real estate values and $1,000,000,000 in industrial values. Dr. Patton says further:

"At present it is expected that this new industry will be located on the Chesapeake Bay, because it is easier to carry coal down hill than to carry ore up hill. The coal resources lie in the Susquehanna Valley, and Eastern industry must depend upon them. A ship canal to Harrisburg would bring this industry within Pennsylvania, instead of having it develop just beyond its borders.

"But much more than this can readily be done if the people of Pennsylvania are really in earnest about centering the industries of the East within her borders. A canal could readily be built as far as Hollidaysburg. From Harrisburg to Pittsburgh the distance is 250 miles; from Hollidaysburg to Pittsburgh it is 110 miles. It is thus possible for Pennsylvania to have within its borders the town having the greatest advantage for Western trade.

"Philadelphia will get a corresponding advantage by the improvements in the Delaware river; and thus the three sections—the West, the center, and the East—can each not only maintain its present industry, but can very considerably increase on this amount by having proper transportation facilities."

Eight Cents' Worth of Business Costs Him 5 Months in Jail

Chap Who Stole Herd of Buffaloes Gets Short Term in the Penitentiary

Eight cents' worth of business transacted in Dauphin county by E. M. Minnitt, a fake magazine solicitor, cost him just five months in jail.

Minnitt was one of several defendants who were arraigned in the Dauphin county court this morning by Assistant Attorney Robert Fox with pleas of guilty. Minnitt said he tried to do business here, admitted he had no authority, but said he only got eight cents. He completed this transaction by offering the magazine but the woman in question had "only eight cents." The usual price he asked was twenty-six cents.

"And what did you do about it," asked President Judge Kunkel, "when you discovered she had but eight cents?"

"Why, I took the eight cents," John Dougherty who stole $30 worth of Buffalo nickels from Mrs. Laura McCord got from one to three years in the penitentiary. Mary Sankey got two months for larceny.
