ESTATE OF $150,000 FOR COLORED PEOPLE

Baltimore Woman Wills Property to Promote Advancement and Welfare of Race

Special to The Telegraph
 Waynesboro, Pa., May 25.—By the will of Mrs. Elizabeth King Elliott, of Baltimore, who owns a handsome cottage at Charman, near Waynesboro, and where she had been spending her summer for many years, filed for probate in the Orphans Court, Baltimore, the bulk of her estate will eventually be used to promote the intellectual advancement and material welfare of the colored people of Maryland.

The corporation that is to have charge of this work is to be known as "The Elizabeth King Elliott Fund." It will receive for its purposes all the real estate owned by Mrs. Elliott, said to be worth $150,000.

REUNION OF STUMP BROTHERS AND SISTERS

Special to The Telegraph
 Marietta, Pa., May 25.—A reunion of the brothers and sisters of the Stump family was held at the Walnut street home of Michael Stump, the eldest of the family, yesterday. C. J. Stump, who is 77 years old, left this section in 1862, after the outbreak of the Civil War, and this was his first visit east since that time. A short while ago he lost his wife by death and he was severely injured in an accident by his horse running away and throwing him out. He is unable to get along without the aid of help and a son, Michael Stump, accompanied him. They live at Arkanam, Ohio. The brother, when he arrived here, was anxious to see his sister, Mrs. Lavina Swatcoff, who is 75 years of age and lives at Baltimore. His other sister, Mrs. Carolina Westenhoefer, 72 years old, lives at the eastern end of Marietta. Mrs. Swatcoff was telegraphed for and when she arrived there was a happy meeting. Michael Stump, of Marietta, is 79 years old and the senior member of the firm of Stump & Mueller, hardware merchants. He is a very remarkable man, daily attending to his duties, and moves around like a man of 40 years.

Real Estate Development Planned at Northumberland

Northumberland, Pa., May 25.—Priestley Terrace, a large real estate tract above Northumberland, has been practically sold to three brokers of Philadelphia by the Priestley Terrace Land Company. They contemplate playing from three to five miles of sidewalks, macadamizing the streets and erecting 100 to 500 dwelling houses to sell, the number depending upon the demand for the first ones. The Terrace comprises seventy town blocks and 722 lots, 40x110 feet. It occupies a very desirable position on high ground and affords a magnificent view of the surrounding country. This real estate operation, if it materializes, will mean much toward a rapid development of this town.

"The Pines" Will Be New Name For Little Hamlet

Special to The Telegraph
 Mechanicsburg, Pa., May 25.—The Pines will be the name of a little hamlet at the southern edge of town in the future, familiarly known as Frytown for many years past. The first house was built there by a man named Fry, now occupied by Frank Beck, as early as 1865, the road being built in 1864. Since the road has been reconstructed and made a fine state road residents desire a change of name and have selected the above name owing to the large number of pine trees in that locality.

V. STEPANSON famous explorer
 "Tuxedo is mild, cool and soothing—just the sort of tobacco I need. Tuxedo goes with me wherever I go."

GEO. RANDOLPH CHESTER famous author
 "Why shouldn't a man be willing to recommend a tobacco which gives as cool, sweet and satisfying a smoke as Tuxedo?"

J. N. MARCHAND famous illustrator
 "Fill my pipe with Tuxedo and I'm content. You can't beat Tuxedo for mildness and purity."

There is a Great Difference in Tobaccos

Tuxedo is the Mildest, Sweetest, Most Pleasant Smoke in the World, Because—

First—No one but the makers of Tuxedo is willing to spend the money necessary to buy the mildest, choicest, most thoroughly aged, selected Burley tobacco.

Second—No one but the makers of Tuxedo knows how to treat this Burley tobacco so that every bit of pleasantness and goodness remains in the tobacco and every bit of unpleasantness and harshness is taken out.

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

Tuxedo was born in 1904. Its first imitator appeared two years later. Since then a host of imitations have been born, and are clamoring for your patronage.

No imitation is ever as good as the original. No amount of advertising, no amount of bluster and bluff, can ever make an imitation tobacco as good as Tuxedo.

If you are not a pipe smoker, you are denying yourself the greatest smoking pleasure known to man. One week of Tuxedo will give you more enjoyment than you have ever had—and at the end of the week your nerves will be better and your general health will have improved. Try Tuxedo this week!
