"HUNCH" FAMOUS THE NATION OVER

Cheerfullest Character That Ever Smoked a Jimmy Pipe or Rolled a Cigarette

HOW HE WAS CREATED

Featured in One of a Remarkable Series of Advertisements Which Starts in To-morrow

Beginning to-morrow, the most unique and interesting series of advertisements ever printed in these columns will appear at regular intervals. It is all about Prince Albert, "the national joy smoke" tobacco. This publicity is notable from the standpoint of reading interest and illustrative treatment.

ply natural and so cheerful that to read one advertisement makes you feel you want to read more and more, just as you anxiously await new chapters of a continued story.

There's a lot of quaint humor in the "copy" and oddity and humaneness of expression. It seems to "inject some real sunshine into your system." That's because it's natural talk about how good Prince Albert really is.

The R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. have received thousands of letters about their advertising. Folks just seem to get "happy" over it. You will.

Illustrations are as unique as the reading matter. Some of the greatest character artists in the country have contributed to this new series.

It will interest everyone to know that the odd picture printed herewith was named "Hunch" and is probably the most famous of a long series of notable illustrations. You know him—everybody knows him. That's why he's so popular. He appears in large size in one of this new series of ads.

By the way, we recently asked the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. whether "Hunch" was sketched from life or was just "created." We found that "Hunch" does not exist in real life. It is said that when the artist was given his instructions he was told to create a character "who lived in a small country town, who was always at the station when the train came in, knew everybody's business better than his own, was always broke, with money 'just in sight'; happy natured and just kind of glad he was alive if he had his Jimmy pipe and a tidy roll of Prince Albert."

"Hunch" was the result! Now he's famous all over the nation. The series of ads that starts to-morrow will certainly interest you.—Advertisement.

KALSO MINING DAY FOR COCKILL CREW

Izzy Hoffman's "Pretzels" Were Palatable Morsels For the Senators Yesterday

Harrisburg kalso mined Reading yesterday, winning the game by a score of 5 to 0.

It was Reading's first trip to Island Park. The beauties of the surroundings turned the heads of Izzy Hoffman's husky boys. They forgot it was a game of baseball at intervals. The beautiful foliage, green sward, and a real baseball crowd was something new to them.

Jake Weitzel could not understand why Connie Mack's third team didn't do better. It was Harrisburg's day to win.

Baker pitched good ball for Reading. His support was amateurish. Four of Harrisburg's runs were made possible through miscues.

Harrisburg took the opposite view. Gohon handed up the pill in a wondrous manner. One clean tap was made off this pitcher in every inning but one. With game team work, brilliant fielding and puzzling curves Reading couldn't get a man home.

In the second inning Miller scored when Baker, Smoyer and McInnes fell down in one two three order. Gohon and Keyes had round trip tickets in the third. A pass, sacrifice, out at first and Doty's error, with Keyes' stolen base and Crist's double were factors.

In the fifth Keyes and Miller went the circuit on two singles, two stolen bases, a sacrifice and Joyce's error. The score:
