CATFISH BREAKFAST AT WILD CAT FALLS

Well-Known Members From All Parts of Pennsylvania Are Present

FAMOUS RESORT IS OPENED

United States Senator Boies Penrose Guest of Honor

Special to The Telegraph

Marietta, Pa., May 29.—The twelfth annual opening of the Wild Cat Falls Association was held to-day at the clubhouse of the association along the banks of the picturesque Susquehanna river, opposite Marietta. It was the most successful affair ever held by the club. This morning at 8 o'clock a catfish breakfast was served to many of the guests who had arrived last evening at Wither's Cross Keys Hotel, and few toasts responded to. As the men gathered for the parade, which started shortly after 9 o'clock, United States Senator Boies Penrose, who is the guest of ex-Congressman Cassel, was called upon for a few remarks and responded amid the cheers of the crowd. Here fancy Japanese parasols were given the men, and headed by the Stars and Stripes and the Daniel Loocks Famous "Wild Cat" Band, they paraded the main street to the square and, countermarching, took the steamboats at the foot of Walnut street for the resort. The band, which accompanied the men and in addition to the famous colored quartet of Pittsburgh, there was not a minute of the day that there was no music.

At 1 o'clock a planked shad dinner, with all the accessories of the season, was served by the proprietor of the inn, Norman T. Pickle. At each plate was laid in a neat box a scarf pin, beautifully engraved with a wildcat, and inscribed as a memento of the day. This was the formal opening of the resort, and to-morrow there will be dancing all day, with music by an orchestra. Many toasts were responded to, and it was certainly an enjoyable day for the gathering. About 4 o'clock in the afternoon many who were from distant points began to leave. Among the places represented were Harrisburg, Philadelphia, Scranton, Lancaster, Columbia, Mountville, Mount Joy, York, Williamsport, Boston, St. Louis, Chicago, Middletown, Highspire, Maytown, Brooklyn, Buffalo, Greensburg, Coatesville and other places. The officers of the association are: President, H. L. Hershey, Harrisburg; secretary, Charles A. Grady, and treasurer, Henry S. Rich, Marietta.

Woman's Back Broken by Log Rolling Over Her

Special to The Telegraph
Duncannon, Pa., May 29.—Mrs. Fred Stubbon, of Watts township, had a narrow escape from instant death yesterday, when a heavy log rolled from a wagon and pressed over her, breaking her back and injuring her internally. Mr. Stubbon and a boy were loading a heavy log on a wagon and had the one end on when it started to slide. Mrs. Stubbon grabbed a stick and was assisting them. Her husband warned her to get away, but she persisted in assisting. They lost control of the log and her husband tried to stop it with a log hook, but could not. The log struck and knocked her down, then rolled over her. In falling she lay along side of a stump, which kept the log from rolling on her head, but her back received the weight of the log. The unfortunate woman was conveyed here and later taken to the Harrisburg Hospital.

DESTRUCTIVE HAIL STORM IN PERRY CO.

Barn Torn to Pieces and Early Fruits and Vegetables Destroyed

Blain, Pa., May 29.—A terrific hail and thunderstorm visited this section last evening, destroying the crops in many localities. Early fruit and garden vegetables were literally cut to pieces. The heavy downpour of rain washed the newly-planted fields. So severe was the storm in the locality of Center, several miles east of this place, that building were unroofed and blown down. The barn of Jacob Loy at Center, on the farm tenanted by Mapleton Sheep, was shattered and torn to pieces, scattering the timbers in all directions. Burchfield's barn roof was torn off. Trees in this locality were uprooted, broken down and snapped off like pipe stems. In sections where the hail fell the thickest ground is lying full of cherries under the trees.

During the summer gravestones, such as are furnished by the United States government, will be secured and erected on all unmarked graves provided permission can be secured from the nearest surviving relatives. The camp also secured the services of the West End Band for this occasion, which will furnish the music for the division composed of United Spanish War Veterans and Foreign Service men.

May Storm Tomorrow

Warmer to-night, with probable thunder showers to-morrow afternoon, is the best Memorial Day prediction the weather man can give Harrisburg. It was eight degrees cooler at 8 o'clock to-day than twenty-four hours ago. At noon the temperature was about equal to that of yesterday, and the mercury was still rising. Thunder storms are central over the Mississippi Valley, and Harrisburg may get a downpour to-morrow afternoon. It will be six degrees warmer to-night than it was last night.

OLD SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKER IS DEAD

Never Missed at Pine Street During Twenty-three Years

Mrs. Alice Jane Mack, No. 3 South Ninth street, aged 64 years, widow of the late John H. Mack, for years an ironworker died at the Harrisburg hospital yesterday following a prolonged illness. Death was due to a general breaking down as a result of an attack of Bright's disease. Mrs. Mack was for a number of years employed about the Capitol as a janitress. "Aunt" Mack as Mrs. Mack was better known, was a record attendant at Pine Street Presbyterian Sunday School having an unbroken attendance of twenty-three years up to five weeks ago when she was taken ill. Mrs. Mack was a charter member of the Mothers' meeting at Pine street church and was a member of the church for thirty-seven years. The funeral will take place Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Services will be conducted by the Rev. Lewis S. Midge, pastor of the Pine Street Presbyterian church. Burial will be made in East Harrisburg Cemetery. To Hold "Love Feast"—A "Love Feast" will be observed Sunday evening at the Church of the Brethren, Hummel street. The feast will begin in the afternoon, at 4 o'clock, and continue until 7 o'clock. Several interesting speakers are expected. Herman Will Not Go.—The Rev. S. Winfield Herman, pastor of Zion Lutheran Church, who has served in that capacity since 1905, and for two years previous as assistant pastor, will not go to Erie to become pastor of the Memorial Lutheran Church. It was widely rumored through his parish that he forestalled that action by advising them against it. Harrisburgers Officers.—A Sunday School conference of the Eastern Pennsylvania Synod of the Lutheran church at Williamstown elected Harrisburg ministers to the offices of president, secretary and treasurer, respectively: The Rev. R. L. Meisenholder, of Trinity Lutheran; the Rev. E. Victor Roland, Church of the Redeemer and the Rev. E. E. Snyder, St. Matthew's Lutheran.

day morning at 10 o'clock. Services will be conducted by the Rev. Lewis S. Midge, pastor of the Pine Street Presbyterian church. Burial will be made in East Harrisburg Cemetery. To Hold "Love Feast"—A "Love Feast" will be observed Sunday evening at the Church of the Brethren, Hummel street. The feast will begin in the afternoon, at 4 o'clock, and continue until 7 o'clock. Several interesting speakers are expected. Herman Will Not Go.—The Rev. S. Winfield Herman, pastor of Zion Lutheran Church, who has served in that capacity since 1905, and for two years previous as assistant pastor, will not go to Erie to become pastor of the Memorial Lutheran Church. It was widely rumored through his parish that he forestalled that action by advising them against it.
