Harrisburg and Reading Tie; Tri-State Race Is Close

First Honors Hinges on the Results of Games To-day; One Game To-morrow

Harrisburg and Reading are running neck and neck in the Tri-State race to-day. Harrisburg meets the rejuvenated George Washington Heckert bunch at Island Park this afternoon; the Reading team argues with Allentown.

Other teams in the Tri-State are showing form that means a close race between now and July 4. One and two victories by teams in the second division would bunch up five of the Tri-State clubs for second place. York by winning three straight victories would get into the race. Harrisburg is still showing an uncertainty in the pitcher's box and Manager Cockill is getting anxious.

There will be one Tri-State game in Harrisburg to-morrow. York plays in the morning. The game starts at 10 o'clock. Harrisburg and York, with a large crowd of Harrisburg rooters, will leave at 1 o'clock in the afternoon for York, where the afternoon game will be played.

Telephone Team Is Now Ready For Games

Another new baseball team entered the field to-day, the Bell Telephone Company's nine. The new team is made up of local stars. The line-up will be:

Outfielders, Frantz, Strickler and Black; first base, Jenkins; second base, Gulbrandsen; shortstop, Garrison; third base, Cox or Walzer; pitchers, Packer and Wheeler; catcher, Bingaman.

Games wanted from the Baker A. A. of Steelton; Lemoyne, Hummelstown, Linglestown, Oberlin, Elizabethtown and all other teams desiring a strong team and good attractions. Address H. S. Bingaman, care Plant Dept., the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania, Harrisburg, Pa.

Sign College Men For Tri-City League

Special to The Telegraph

Hagerstown, Md., May 29. — The three teams comprising the Tri-City Baseball League of the Cumberland Valley, Hagerstown, Frederick and Martinsburg, will be made up principally of college men. The managers of the three teams have drawn largely upon St. John's College, at Annapolis, the Maryland Agricultural College and the Emmitsburg College for their players.

The Hagerstown team will have five or six men from St. John's College, while Martinsburg has signed a majority of their players from the Maryland Agricultural College. Frederick has drawn heavily upon Emmitsburg.

Better baseball will be furnished the fans of the three towns, it is expected, as a result of college men being on the teams and owing to the rivalry existing between the college teams. Manager Grove, of the Hagerstown team, and his assistan,t Jack Wilson, are both St. John's College men.

THE HOMELIEST MAN IS MARTY KAVANAUGH

"Marty Kavanaugh and Nick Altrock met face-to-face for the first time Monday. The Tiger infielder after lamping Nick's stunning face, said that he was satisfied that the title of the world's homeliest man remains in Detroit.

Marty takes a lot of pride in being the most unbeautiful athlete in the major leagues and was plainly relieved when he found that Altrock is not a serious contender for his laurels. Nick hated to admit that he was outclassed, but as soon as he saw Kavanaugh, he said "You win," and extended his hand in congratulation like a true sportsman."—Pittsburgh Sun.

Harrisburg Loses, Chicks Are Joyful; Pitchers Were Bad

Something went wrong with Harrisburg's pitchers at Wilmington yesterday. The Chicks won; score, 8 to 2. This victory caused great glee in Peachtown and it is expected that, having won a game from Harrisburg, at least a dozen more fans will go to see the games at Wilmington.

Harrisburg had a few things to their credit, including a double play. Wilmington hit the ball and did their swatting at the right time. Harrisburg made both runs in the fourth inning. The score follows:

Trenton Gets Pitcher From Connie Mack

Trenton, N. J., May 29.—Manager Zeke Wrigley signed Pitcher Graves, an athletic recruit. The youngster reported last evening. The deal was arranged through Connie Mack, the famous leader of the world's champions, who was only too glad to lend assistance to Trenton in keeping with his promise at the "booster" meeting at the Trenton Y. M. C. A. before the season opened.

Graves has been carried by Mack ever since the spring training season and while not used very much by the White Elephants has nevertheless been keeping himself in first-class shape.

Manager Wrigley, backed up by President Morris, is determined that Trenton must be in the race, and in securing Lee and Cruikshank he has greatly strengthened his club. Cruikshank, who is coaching Bucknell College, will play with Trenton at any time he can get away and Manager Wrigley is making arrangements whereby he can get the heavy-htting first sacker here permanently and will arrange with Cockill for his release, as Cruikshank is the property of the Harrisburg club. Irwin, who has been playing first, will be held temporarily pending the deal. Morrow, whom Manager Wrigley loaned to York, has been given his release.
