MISS ETHEL HENDERSON
WEDS A PHILADELPHIAN
The marriage of Miss Ethel Virginia
Henderson to Samuel Waiter Dolfman of Philadelphia, was an event of noon yesterday, solemnized at the home of T. Miles Logan, 1802 North Fourth street, the bride's uncle, by the Rev.
John H. Daugherty, pastor of the Ridge Avenue Methodist Church.
The bride wore a frock of white crepe de chine with touches of point lace and carried a shower of sweet peas.

Mrs. Logan was matron of honor, Miss Freda Kipp, the flower girl and Miss Esther Julius the ring bearer, Benjamin Dolfman was the best man for his brother.

A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony. The honeymoon spent in Atlantic City will be followed by a residence in Philadelphia, where Mr. and Mrs. Dolfman will be "at home" to their freinds after June 15.

White Hats

We have anticipated what is going to be a "white hat" season. Both our Main and French Rooms are given to this display which far surpasses anything we have previously shown. Notwithstanding the fact that our prices are moderate, we are constantly in touch with the newest ideas which are adopted and moderated to suit our patrons.
