MISHAP GIVES THIRD OF SERIES OF YACHT RACES TO RESOLUTE

Associated Press Boat, off Glen Cove, L. I., June 4.—(By Wireless).—Driving rain and flying spray drenched the crews this afternoon as the cup defender candidates Resolute and Vanitie started their third trial race in Long Island Sound.

Committee Hoisted Code Flag and Contest Was Soon at an End

The thrash to windward was a pretty struggle. At 1.25 the forestay sail sheet of the Vanitie parted and she lost minutes getting in the sail. Meanwhile Resolute rapidly closed up the gap between them.

The forestay sheet on Vanitie broke and she withdrew from the race. The Resolute continued, rounding the first mark at 1.36.35. The committee hoisted the code flag "M," indicating that the race would be finished as soon as Resolute passed over the line on the second leg of the course.

ACID ON YOUR HEAD?

If acids are used to clean your straw hat or Panama, then when you perspire the moisture within the crown of the hat extracts the acid and your hair and scalp absorb it, thus promoting brittle hair and baldness.

GLASSES OR WRINKLES?

Did you ever watch a person trying to read or look at some other small object without glasses and note the wrinkles and frown and crowfeet that appeared and increased in number as he strained his efforts to see?

ENGINEERING GENIUS

Is embodied in the making of Abbott-Detroit motor cars. The man who created Abbott cars and who stands responsible for their mechanical construction has designed engines and heavy duty machinery for use in every civilized country.

"JUST RIGHT"

That is the way the hostess wants the dessert to be when she is entertaining. Hershey's Ice Cream is of uniform excellence because we go back to the country, the source of supply where we have our own suburban creameries for the receiving, testing and pasteurizing of cream.

ONE-THIRD LESS ELECTRIC

That is what we claim for our electric fans. Made of extra thin, fine quality steel blades and exceptionally rapid motion, they cool you with breezes all summer for one-third less than the average fan.

THE CLASSIC IN PICTURE

Many business and professional men as well as women of culture make it a practice of coming to the Victoria Theater several times a week to see the great scenes of history and literature reproduced in motion pictures. This refreshes the mind pertaining to studies of college days as well as a source of entertainment. The best films first, always, at the Victoria.

TAKE OFF YOUR COAT

On hot summer days men like to toss their coats and be as comfortable as possible. Upon these occasions a silk shirt is certainly the most desirable and makes you feel at ease whatever the outing event may be.
