FASHION'S FOOTWEAR

We repair as many fine, fashionable shoes as we do workingmen's heavy duty shoes, and all are done trimly, thoroughly and satisfactory. Remember that we have the only Goodyear welt shoe repairing outfit in the city, the kind that is used in the making of the finest footwear. City Shoe Repairing Co., 317 Strawberry street.

LOOK PROSPEROUS

They say that prosperity comes to those who LOOK prosperous. A Lacktailored suit gives a man that well-groomed appearance that is only to be found among those who wear customtailored garments that look as if they were really made for the man that is wearing them. Lack, Merchant Tallor, 28-30 Dewberry street.

JACOBEAN FURNITURE
Light and graceful in construction, close reproduction of the seventeenth entury furniture, the Jacobean dingroom suite in Birwal should be of oecial interest at this time. A comination of birch, burl walnut and ull ebony black, the whole suite recets to an unusual degree the rich nish and dignified lines of old cobean furniture. Harris, 221 North econd street.

NOT ACTING RIGHT

AN OLD VIOLIN'S TONE May be equal or superior to the new instrument; so it is with used planos. Some splendid values are taken in exchange daily from those who prefer player-planos, or for other good and sufficient reasons. "In the present case with respect to the streets to whose residents the greater discount was allowed by the respondent, there was competition of a serious character. To these residents another supply was offered at lower rates. The undisputed testimony is that it was necessary to meet their rates or lose the business entirely. To lose the business entirely. To lose the business would be to render valueless the investment in that part of the plant. The competition was the more threatening because of the fact that it had the strength and power of the municipality to support it. As to what considutes such competition as will create a dissimilarity of circumstances and conditions must petition as will create a dissimilarity of circumstances and conditions must be determined from the facts of each case as it arises. After giving careful consideration to the ascertained facts and the situation as it exists in West Bethlehem, it is our conclusion that such dissimilarity between the conditions upon the streets named and the others exists as to make the prohibition of the statute inapplicable. It follows that the complaint should be dismissed and it will be so ordered."

best productions.

It is all petty story and an abit is all petty settings is the oporating room and the showing of the surgeons at work in the single shaft of light that pierces the absolute darkness. The elaborate kitchen will interest the feminine side of any house. It is a detail, but not a minor one. The fire in the big tenement house with the fieeing tenants and the entering fremen, is vividly portrayed. Charles Craig, who plays Gordon, is excellent in his characterization. It will be noticed that in Miss Lawrence's interpretation of the slavery there is an absence of the lightness of foot which is one of her characteristics; in its stead there is the stiff-jointed gait of the drudge.

Bess Meerdith, Wm. Wolbert and Eddie Boland will also be shown in a Joker comedy, "The Fascinating Eye," which is heraided as a riot of fun and sensationalism. Murdock MacQuarris, Pauline Bush and Lou Chaney will also be shown in a Rex drama of love, hat

be shown in a Rex drama of love, hat
and revenue and rectair drama, "Our Daughter."—Advertisement.
