RELENTLESS WAR ON STEELTON FLY

Civic Club Distributes Traps Like Those Used So Successfully in California

The crusade against the fly began in earnest here to-day. The Steelton Civic Club is back of the campaign and expects to wage a relentless, summer-long crusade to exterminate the pest.

Eighteen large fly traps were received and distributed by the Civic Club. These traps are similar to the ones used with great success in Redlands, Cal., where a campaign was waged against the fly with so much success that it is said now there isn't a fly in the town.

Other measures against the fly consist of the usual "awattling" campaign and lots of publicity. Large posters will be distributed telling of the beneficial effects of having flies about the house and the usual premium of 10 cents per quart will be paid for all flies not caught in the traps.

FEDERAL AID FOR AGRICULTURE NOW

Governor Signs Acceptance of the Lever Law and Says He Is Glad to Do So

Governor Tener today said the State's acceptance of the provisions of the Lever law, recently passed by Congress for the aid of agricultural work in the States. This is one of the most important federal aid laws enacted in years and will give the State substantial financial assistance in its farm bureau work. Last year the Legislature appropriated $20,000 for this work.

President E. E. Sparks, who brought
