Purchasers of the old properties in South Second street began early to-day tearing down the buildings. At public sale on Saturday notice was given that the buildings must be removed within thirty days. The Cumberland Valley Railroad Company needs room for more sidings.

It is also believed that the orders to rush work on the removing the old landmarks, is a verification of the report that work on the proposed new freight station would start at an early date.

Incompatible Jobs.—In an opinion to the State Highway Department the Attorney General holds that the offices of tax collector and treasurer of township supervisors are incompatible. The question arose in a number of rural townships throughout the State and it is the official view that the township road act of 1913 indicates that the Legislature intended the taxes to be collected by a person who is an official of the supervisors' board.
