COCKILL'S CREW HOME THIS WEEK

Start Week With the Wilmington Chicks; Teutons Return For Two More Games

Cockill's crusaders will do most of their fighting at home this week.

Jimmy Jackson and his Chicks will scratch at Island Park to-day and tomorrow. On Wednesday and Thursday, Harrisburg will invade the White Rose dominion. Johnny Castle and his Teutons will wind up the week at the island.

Weakness in the pitchers box is the only thing that appears to me worrying George Cockill at present. He has a controversy on hand with Trenton regarding Cruikshank's services which may terminate in an appeal to President George Graham. Trenton claims the popular first baseman belongs to them. That he advanced money to the Bucknell player.

On the other hand, Manager Cockill says he has not turned Cruickshank over to Trenton, that the Tiger management failed to agree on terms and that Heist, a part of the deal, refuses to play with Harrisburg. Local baseball fans are raising a howl over the likelihood that Cruickshank will not be with Harrisburg. He is a hard hitter and is making good on first sack. Manager Cockill says that as long as Cruikshank is not needed in Harrisburg he may prove a valuable asset in landing a good pitcher. Eddie O'Connor, who helped to pull Harrisburg through last season, may report to Harrisburg most any day, according to reports. President Graham will be in Harrisburg this week and a conference will be held on the Cruickshank controversy. Weakness in the pitchers box is the

Cockill's Twirlers Are Easy Picking

Harrisburg's pitchers were easy at Reading on Saturday. The "Pretzels" nosed out a victory, score 7 to 6. Clunn the pitcher who holds the runless and hitless record in the Tri-State, was bumped by Harrisburg, but bumps came too late.

Adams started for Harrisburg. Failure to get support at critical times, and raw decisions on balls and strikes put the Elizabethville boy in the air. Phillips settled down after he had a few wild beaves. Clunn showed a weakness in the last four innings, and was saved from defeat by brilliant playing back of him. The score:

Harrisburg Telegraph

Winning their ninth straight victory on Saturday, by defeating Enola Y. M. C. A., score 6 to 2, the Harrisburg Telegraph team entered the race for the amateur championship.

The game was played at Enola and was an interesting contest from start to finish. Scheffer was a big star on bases. Fast fielding by Mersinger, Daugherty and Ibach for the Telegrap, and Swingle and Gibson for Enola made the game attractive. Kline did not weaken until the last inning. Sellers hit for a home run in the ninth. Enola's last run was a gift. On Thursday the Harrisburg Telegraph team will play at Dauphin. The score:

DAUPHIN A. C. BASEBALL TEAM UPPER END CHAMPIONS

Notwithstanding the Dauphin A. C. baseball team was a little late in getting into the game this season, this aggregation has been setting a pace that is attracting attention throughout the county. The Dauphin team is a strictly amateur organization and has won the championship in their class for several seasons. On Thursday night they play the Harrisburg Telegraph tteam. The line-up is as follows: Back row, reading from left to right, George Rhoades, team manager; George Conrad, Park Buffington, John L. Porter, business manager; Wesley Bricker, Roy Welker, Charles Garman, John Robb, George Howard; front row, Blake Gilday, captain; Charles Hoover, Clarence Shatton. The game Thursday will be a benefit for Charles Garman, who broke his leg last week while sliding to second base.
