GLASSES OR WRINKLES?

Did you ever watch a person trying to read or look at some other small object without glasses and note the wrinkles and frown and crowsfeet that appeared and increased in depth as he increased his efforts to see?

ONE-THIRD LESS ELECTRIC

That is what we claim for our electric fans. Made of extra thin, fine quality steel blades and exceptionally rapid motors, you can have cool breezes all summer for one-third less than the average fan.

A SUBSTANTIAL REDUCTION

can be secured on your fire insurance rates if you use or have on hand a Pyrene fire extinguisher, approved by National Board of Fire Underwriters.

ELECTRICALLY COOL

That means to have one of our electrical fans installed in your home or office to stir up the still air and send it flying toward you at the rate of sixty miles an hour or any other speed you prefer.

AMUSEMENTS

PAXTANG PARK

Anyone who thinks the brand of vaudeville presented at the Paxtang Park Theater is in any way inferior to the article seen in the big variety houses during the winter season should take a trip out to Paxtang this week and be agreeably surprised.

ALWAYS COOL AT THE COLONIAL

Just about the coolest spot in Harrisburg these days to spend an afternoon or evening is the Colonial Theater, where one brief step from the heated thoroughfare carries one beyond the reach of the sweltering sun and into the cool waves of continually churned cold air drawn into the building by the Colonial superb ventilating system.

Special to The Telegraph

Carlisle, Pa., June 9.—With the exception of the baccalaureate address delivered on Sunday morning by Dr. Eugene A. Noble, his last sermon as head of the institution, commencement week at Dickinson has so far been given over mainly to social activities, class reunions, society and fraternity dances and banquets being held in numbers.

Many June Weddings in Central Pennsylvania

Newport.—Miss Elizabeth Bechtel Hartzell, daughter of the late Jesse Hartzell, was united in marriage to Raymond Lewis, of Shamokin, at the parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal Church by the bride's pastor, the Rev. John C. Collins, S. T. D., at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Robbers Steal Buck of Paint at Pen-Mar Park

Waynesboro, Pa., June 9.—Thieves have paid several visits recently to the Western Maryland Railway passenger and freight stations at Pen-Mar Park.

consigned to Jason Crout, proprietor of the Pen-Mar Hotel and Pen-Mar House, valued at $20 or more.

They broke open the passenger station for the purpose of securing tickets but failed, as the tickets have not as yet been placed on sale at the station.
