The Epworth League Cabinet of Stevens Memorial Methodist Church last evening entertained the league cabinets of the city in the third month-lly city cabine conference. The following Methodist churches were represented: Curtin Heights, Fifth Street, Ridge Avenue, Grace, St. Paul's, Epworth and Stevens Memorial. About seventy cabinet members were present. The president of Stevens Memorial Chapter, R. K. Bergstresser, presided, and Miss Alva Shoop, of the same chapter, acted as recording secretary. The seating of the delegates was so arranged that all similar officers were grouped together, all the presidents being in one group, the first vice-presidents in another, and so on. A place-card large enough to hold ten names was furnished each delegate and on it he secured the name and address of each member of his group, so that he coul readily confer with any similar officer in any of the city leagues concerning problems pertaining to his own department.

Dr. John Wesley Hill Believes Colors Should Fly Over Mexico City

New York, June 9.—"I am tired of all this talk about an apology from Huerta. If I had demanded an apology I would have had it by this time or put the Stars and Stripes over Mexico City," said the Rev. Dr. John Wesley Hill last night at the Metropolitan Temple, where a mass meeting in the interest of world peace was being held. Dr. Hill, who was chairman of the evening, had just risen to introduce Bainbridge Colby, after Henry Clews had spoken of the situation in Mexico and his hope of an amicable agreement being reached by the A, B, C mediators.

Dr. Hill went on to speak of the "syndicated cutthroatism" in Mexico. In speaking of Carranza and Villa he said that "one is as well fitted to be president of Mexico as the other."

Tyson Says He Didn't Get Divine Injunction Not to Bend His Back

G. S. Tyson, whom the newspapers a few days ago, said was the best dressed man in the county almshouse, wouldn't work because "God told him not to bend his back to labor," and was called "King," denies all this. He says he isn't the best dressed man at the almshouse, that he never said anything about a divine injunction relative to work, that he never wore patent leathers and doesn't dress so swell. He has always worked, he says.

Ever Offered to Readers of a Newspaper

All the wealth of the world's greatest intellect is contained within the covers of these Six Volumes. They are an inexhaustible store of wit and wisdom, poetry and philosophy. Shakespeare understands human life as no one before or since has understood it, and he put that knowledge into words that will live as long as the language. He is not only the delight of the scholar, but the guide, philosopher and friend of the everyday, average man.

Abraham Lincoln Said:

"The Bible and Shakespeare form a complete home library."

If you were cast away on a desert island these books alone would supply all your mental needs.

THE TELEGRAPH
