CAPTAIN CHEAPE IN SADDLE

Special to The Telegraph

Hempstead, N. Y., June 12.—By a total of 8 to 4% the challenging British poloists scored a victory yesterday over what is considered to be the second strongest team in the United States. The challengers played somewhat uncertainly, showing brilliant work only in spots, due probably to the accident that befell Captain Leslie St. George Cheape last Sunday, when he was struck on the nose by a polo ball. Cheape kept his place throughout the seven periods which comprised the game.

Doc Milliman surprised imself and let the Senators down ith two hits. Who could win a game in two hits, who could win a game in two hits, especially when the other itcher who was "Babe" Adams, was umped hard in three innings.

Reading's second tumble at Allensurp was a factor in pushing Harrisurg into third place. The Teutons, who are the attraction at Island Park oday and to-morrow are now leaders ind will have to be considered from low on. Barring their lack of hits link Emerson and his youngsters at up a rattling good game.

Harrisburg's only run was scored the fourth, an error by Ruoff making it possible. Crist cracked the ball the the nose, which Hooper stopped with one hand, but Duoff dropped the
