onal and S

Senior Class

DON CRESSWELL

JUNE 13, 1914.

CARDS AND SUPPER Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kuhn Many Good Wishes From Take Continental Tour Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kuhn, of Chicago, who are guests of Mrs. Kuhn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adler, leave for New York to-morrow and will sail Tuesday, June 16, on the handsome new Hamburg-American liner "Vaterland" for Europe. Mrs. Adler will accompany them to New York. TO MISS RUTH CREEP

Another Pre-Nuptial Events in

Daring Cavalryman Comes to Battle Flag Transfer

MEET TWO COLLECGE MEN The dinner given last evening by Miss Marguerite Wildman at her home, 2206 North Third street, was in honor of her brother, R. E. L. Wildman and Frank McCaugh, of Greensville, Ohio, who is a classmate of Mr. Wild-man at Carnegie School of Tech-nology. The table appointments were in pink and green. Covers were laid for Miss Emma Graupner, Miss Doro-thy Spicer, Mrs. George Smith, of Pittsburgh; Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Wild-man, Sr., Frank McCaughey, Thomas Lourimer, Thomas Boyd, Clayton Lappley, Dewey Wildman and R. E. L. Wildman. Captain William R. Eyster, the cele-Captain William R. Eyster, the cele-brated novelist and poet, of Topeka, Kansas, one of Pennsylvania's most dashing and daring cavalrymen of the Civil War whose scouting services, in the Gettysburg campaign, were of great value to the authorities at Wash-ington and Harrisburg, has announced his intention of making the journey to Harrisburg for Monday's ceremonies, so that he may view once more the flags 'neath which he fought. Captain Eyster was one of the three men on some of whose adventures was founded Prof. J. Howard Wert's story, "A Trio of Tramps," first pub-lished in 1905.

MRS. BAI/TZELL TO ATTEND BIG MILITARY WEDDING

AUTOMOBILING BY MOONLIGHT Mrs. Loren Morris, of Youngstown, Ohio, was guest of honor last evening at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Orth at their residence, 430 North street. Later, the guests enjoyed an automobile ride in the moonlight. The party included Mrs. Morris, Harold Morris, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fought, Mrs. John Bodner, Mrs. Mame Kent, Paxtang; Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Wolf, Mrs. Margaret Potter, Mrs. Cartio Douglas, Mrs. Sara Crownshield, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Orth. Mrs. William H. Baltzell, of 1917 Market street, has gone to Pittsburgh to attend the wedding of her sister, Miss Mary Brunot Roberts to Lieu-tenant Francis Kosier Newcomer, of the United States Army. The ceremony will take place Tues-day evening, June 16, at the residence of the bride's father, Colonel Thomas R. Roberts, Aiken avenue, Pitts-burgh.

Miss Hilda Fohl, of 88 North Sev-enteenth street, attended a fraternity dance of Dickinson College at Carlisle Thursday evening: Miss Elizabeth Garner, of 218 Fors-ter street, a member of the high school faculty at Hollidaysburg, is home for the summer recess. Mrs. Jacob Sneidman, of 521 North Fourth street, and Miss Sneidman are home from State College where they attended the commencement festivi-ties. Maurice Sneidman was a mem-ber of the graduating class. ber of the graduating class.

On the

Excursions

The

Victrola

member of the crowd.

Another Pre-Nuptial Events in Honor of a Popular Bride-Elect
Miss Sue Williamson, of 1438 Ver-non street, was hostess last evening at another of the delightful pre-nuptial events in compliment to Miss Ruth Creep who will be married this month to William Julius, of Washington, D. C.
Mountain laurel decorated the house. After games of five hundred the guests were served with supper-the table appointments were of pike. Miss the country and Rrs, Kuhn will take to be spent at Marienbad, the guests were served with supper-merets in compliment to Miss Ruth Charles Suller-mon street. Miss Ethel Bratton, Miss Laura Nich-olas, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Dick, William Julius, Joseph Smith, Charles Suller-merator, late in the auturns.
During Canadyuman Comes
Miss Willowang County and List for home on the Imperator, late in the auturns.
Miss Willowang County and Mrs. Kuhn will take a country to of Lengland followed by visits to places of historic and litter-the table appointments were of pike. They will sail for home on the Imperator, late in the auturns.
Miss Willowang County and Mrs. Kuhn will take a country to place and Colored by visits to places of historic and litter-ther will sail for home on the Imperator, late in the auturns.
Miss Willowang County and Mrs. Supper Smith, Charles Suller-ther will sail for home on the Imperator, late in the auturns.
Miss Willowang County and Miss Cuerts and Miss Eslinger played second parts. Miss Kuenty Played the following with a country and Miss Kuenty and Miss Eslinger played second parts. Miss Kuenty Played the following the country and and Miss Eslinger played second parts. Miss Kuenty Played the following with a second parts.

 $\mathbf{n}^{\mathbf{1}}$ and inventory department of that company, at the residence of Mr. and

MISS WILDMAN'S GUESTS MEET TWO COLLEGE MEN

D'on M. Cresswell,

ings and Miss Eslinger played second parts. Miss Knaub played the following program with excellent technique and expression: "Silver Waves," Wyman; "Boát Song," Mendelssohn: Second Valse, Valse in E Flat, Durand; "The Mountain Stream." Smith: "Bell Ring-ers," Bohm; "Birdling's Evening Song," Richards; plano duets, "Span-fare Militaire," Behr.

MISS JOHNSON'S SUCCESS AT A CANADIAN COLLEGE

Miss Kathleen Johnson, daughter of Max P. Johnson, of this city, has re-turned home from Canada, where she is a student at Ursuline College, On-tario.

tario. After completing the music matricu-lation course Miss Johnson also passed the final examinations under the Toronto Conservatory of Music. While at school she had the honor of sing-ing before the Duke of Connaught, Governor General of Canada and his daughter, the Princess Patricia.

ENTERTAINED AT PAXTANG

Mrs. William Bates and son, John Harmon Bates, of Pittston, have re-turned to their home after a pleasant stay in the city. Among the pleas-ures arranged for Mrs. Bates during her visit here was a large plenic at Paxtang park on Thursday with her nicces, Mrs. William Davis, of 624 Ross street, and Mrs. George Heckert, of 435 Reily street, hostesses.

IN MISS LIBHART'S HONOR.

AUTOMOBILING BY MOONLIGHT

Miss E. V. Haldy Libhart, of Mari-etta, is visiting her uncle, A. W. Lutz, of 2141 North Second street. Many delightful festivities have been ar-ranged for Miss Libhart's enjoyment.

David Sherman and daughter, Miss Rose Sherman, of Peffer street, left to attend the graduation of Abe Sherman at State College.

Mrs. S. R. Saylor and her sister, Mrs. T. B. Sheaffer, of Oberlin, Pa., left this morning for Hiram College, Ohio, to be present at the commence-ment exercises Tuesday, June 16. Roy E. Saylor, formerly of Oberlin, is a member of the graduating class this year.

Kar.ick M. Castle, of Stamford, Conn., is a guest of his Yale classmate, Edward J. Stackpole, Jr., who return-ed from New Haven yesterday. Professor and Mrs. Howard R. Om-wake, of Riverside, have been called to Green Castle by the death of Mr. Omwake's mother, Mrs. Henry Om-wake, last evening.

Mrs. Russell J. Stackhouse is home after a visit to New York and New Rochelle, N. Y. Miss Katharine Beatty and her brother, G. Irwin Beatty, have return-ed to their home, 207 North Front street after an automobile trip to Bed-ford with Mrs. William O. Hickok, with whom they spent a week. Miss Jean Davis, of 115 Pine street, has gone to Detroit, Mich., to spend the summer with relatives.

William Shearer Denchey, 1423 North Front street, has returned from a several months' stay at Grand Rapids, Michigan. Miss Mary Ellzabeth Detweiler, a student at Vassar College, Pough-keepsle, N. Y., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Meade D. Detweiler, 23 South Front street.

Want Streets Clear of

Vehicles will not be allowed in Mar-ket street between Fourth and Front streets or on other streets over which the parade will pass on Monday, during the parade hour. This is in accordance with instructions from Colonel Joseph B. Hutchison to-day. Colonel Hutchison requests that Market street be cleared by 1.30 o'clock, and that all vehicles be off the street not later than 1.45. Market street will be roped off at noon. Ropes will be placved on other streets where there is likely to be a congestion of spectators.

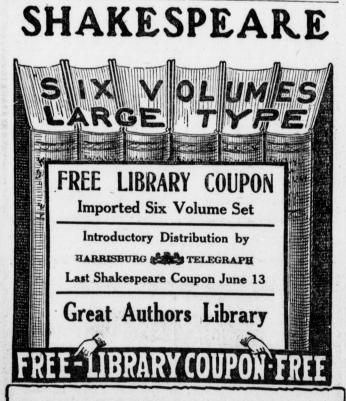

APPOINTMENTS OF PINK

Appointments of pink prevailed at the luncheon of six covers given to-day by Miss Marian Leese, of State street, in honor of her house guest, Miss Kathleen Harvey, of Cambridge, Mass. Corsage bouquets of sweet peas were given as favors.

PLEASURES OF WASHINGTON Mrs. Jack F. Graeft, of Harrisburg, Pa., is visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Colonel and Mrs. Harry Jenks, of Washington, D. S. Mrs. Graeff and Mrs. Jenks were éntertained at lunch-eon at Hotel Ponhatan Thursday by Congressman and Mrs. Victor Mur-dock.

AT HIRAM COLLEGE EXERCISES

Tolls Repeal Bill Is

No matter where you go for the summer; no matter what little "side trips" you take; the Victrola is always ready to accompany you. And it is always the jolliest

Don't leave town without a Victrola in your equipment.

You'll find it a never ending source of pleasure. Consult our salesmen about prices and terms.

C M Sigler everything Misical annound 30 North 2nd St Annound

HOW TO GET IT!

Clip the Library Coupon and bring or send to the Telegraph office, with the expense item of 98c for the entire six volume set of books.. This amount we ask you to pay to cover the cost of transportation, U. S. custom duties, handling, etc. If you desire to have set sent by mall or express, all charges prepaid, add 17c, or $1.15 in all, and fill in name and address below.

Name
1
Address	 ••••••	• ••••••

Rapids, Michigan. Miss Mary Elizabeth Detweiler, a student at Vassar College, Pough-keepsle, N. Y., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Meade D. Detweiler, 22 South Front street. Miss Rose Cohen, of 314 Calder street, has left to visit her sister, Mrs. Skyles of Olean, N. Y. RGRADUATES AT PRINCETON GRADUATES AT PRINCETON Among the Princeton graduates this year are Jackson Herr Boyd, Warren Nissley 'and William S. Middleton, of this city. Commencement festivities are held from June 12 on for several days. Quite a number of Harrisburg-ers will attend the various exercises.

Mrs. Jay C. Saltzgiver, of Green street, is home after a pleasant visit with Carlisle friends. The Misses Minnie and Clara B. Sample have gone to Colorado to spend the summer on their brother's ranch. spend ranch

Miss Louise Johnson, of 1625 North Front street, has returned from Eden Hall, Torresdale, Pa., to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max P. Johnson. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse F. Rees, of 1845 Regina street, left to-day for Wikes-Barro to spend several weeks with Mr. Rees' parents.

Miss Marian Clifford Angell, of 9 North Front street, left to-day for Reading to visit her sister, Mrs. James Blackwood Cameron. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Mathig, of Germantown, are guests of their rela-tives, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Mathias, of Market street.

Miss Sarah Elizabeth Cooper, a stu-dent at Castle School, Tarrytown, N. Y., is spending the summer holidays with her father, Frank M. Cooper, of Camp Hill. Frank L. Cook, senior partner of L. W. Cook & Co., is home after a fishing trip to Virginia and Maryland.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Z. Hartzler, son Henry and Mrs. Bragdon, who have been the guests of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Hartzler, Washington Heights, returned to their home in Merchantville, N. J., to-day.

home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Goodyear, 1927 Kensinger street, June 13, 1914.

× · 1