He insisted also that the Mexican dele-gates had not wired for permission to withdraw as had been reported and that the American plan was submit-ted in writing last week, the Mexican delegates had no intimation of the de-sire of the United States that a con-stitutionalist be chosen.

Explanation Withheld

Explanation Withheld It was suggested that the mediators, for diplomatic reasons, might have withheld an explanation of the Ameri-can point of view in the hope of per-suading the United States to make concessions as the negotiations de-veloped.

concessions as the negotiations de-veloped. Augustin Rodriguez, another of the Mexican delegates, was emphatic in his statement that the Mexican dele-gates were not getting ready to with-draw. He said they would exhaust every effort and make every concession within reason in order to arrive at a peaceful solution. All sides agree that on the selection of a provisional President the success or fallure of mediation depends. The Huerta delegates have suggested five, names. The Americans have inform-ally mentioned several but are wait-ing for a complete list from the con-stitutionalists through Washington. London, June 15 .- A bomb was exploded in St. George's church, Hanover Square, last night. There is evidence to show that the explosion was the work of suffragettes, and coming the work of suffragettes, and coming so close upon the bomb outrage in Westminster Abbey, the desectration of this famous edifice has increased alarm as to how far the militant women in-tend to go. Fortunately the famous painting of "The Last Supper," by Sir James Thornhill, which hangs over the altar, was not damaged although the window above it was splintered.

CRAPSHOOTERS ESCAPE

An interesting twelve-handed crap game was broken up at the Twelfth street playgrounds yesterday by Ser-geant Page, and Potrolmen Shelhas and McFarland. The crapshooters were chased to the Eighth Ward, where they eluded the officers.
