Business Locals 'IT SERVES YOU RIGHT'

That's what they tell you when you "get it in the neck" for doing something you shouldn't do. But that's what the satisfied patrons also say to their best friends after they have eaten a dinner at Menger's Restaurant, 110 North Second street. It serves you right, with the best 35-cent dinner in Harrisburg.

SHIRT IN SHREDS When he attempted to get inside of his shirt he found that it began to rip and tear. So brittle from cheap, lumpy starch that it cracked and separated into several sections. The Troy way leaves your shirt smooth and flexible and makes them last longer. Try the Troy. Either phone brings the wagon.

EXPENSIVE EXPERIMENTS Many a beautiful gown or suit has been ruined and brought to us after home methods had been resorted to, because they wanted to save a cleaner's bill. You may beat us forty ways in making a cake of in the knowledge of your own business, but when you want garments cleaned, phone for Finkelsteine, 1320 North Sixth street.

YOUR POSTAGE BILL Is just as great for poorly printed and cheap imitations of letters as it would be for letters that look like the original typewritten one. Furthermore, a cheaply gotten-up letter is like a slouchy-appearing personal representative—he doesn't make the proper impression. Weaver fac-simile letters look as good as your own original. John A. Good Made President of Veterans

After a boatride on the Susquehanna in the morning and taking part in the flag transfer parade, the members of the veteran organization of the Governor's Troop, Pennsylvania Volunteer Cavalry, in the Spanish war, wound up their reunion with a banquet at the Dauphin, at 6 o'clock. A. Baer.

Unfair Methods Used to Enter Annapolis

Accord- ing to reliable information obtained here, the Naval Academy authorities are investigating circumstances that indicate unfair methods were used by one or more candidates who took the examinations for admission to the Academy last April.

A well authenticated report has it that in at least one case a boy who had taken and passed successfully the previous mental test, held in February, substituted for another, and that while the boy he was representing was quietly keeping under cover at Washington he was masquerading under the hider's name before the civil service examination board at Norfolk, Va.

GIFTS OF $1,725,000 FOR YALE By Associated Press New Haven, Conn., June 16.—Gifts of $1,725,000 for the Yale medical school were announced by President Arthur T. Hadley, president of the university, last night at a dinner of the school alumni, with which the centennial of the foundation of his department was brought to a close.

William B. Hornblower Is Dead in Connecticut

Litchfield, Conn., June 16.—William Butler Hornblower, associate judge of the New York Court of Appeals, died here early to-day. He had been ill for a long time.

Splendid Singing at Colonial

One of the best bills of the entire season began a three-day engagement at the Colonial yesterday, and audiences that were surprisingly large enjoyed the show immensely. The singing of the Arion Four, a quartet of men with voices that just about equal any ever heard in quartet work on the vaudeville stage of this city, set a new standard for Colonial entertainment, and the management needed no further proof of the audience's appreciation than the liberal applause that followed every number given by the Arions, and their voices harmonize splendidly. They dress themselves, man and woman, in artificial bodies of midgets, and with their own heads setting off this miniature body garb present an interesting picture as they sing their songs. Hogestown Horse and Cattle Show Will Open Tomorrow

Hogestown, Pa., June 16.—To-morrow the Hogestown horse and cattle show will be opened and all the tents and shelters for the smaller exhibits have been erected. Open stalls, pens and corrals for the larger stock have been put in shape. There are 516 entries of all classes and varieties in the exhibit. All indications point to the biggest show and the best exhibition from an educational standpoint that has been held in the ten years' history of the affair. Hay and feed for those who do not carry their own will be on sale at the grounds at market prices.

Curtis is Nominated

Portland, Maine, June 16.—Mayor Oakley S. Curtis, of Portland, secured the Democratic nomination for Governor at yesterday's primaries, according to returns in hand to-day. Governor William T. Haines, Republican, was renominated without opposition.
