

Women AND THEIR INTERESTS

There's No Place Like Home

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX

"If a girl of seventeen wishes to have male acquaintances, and has not a nice home to invite them to, and if she does not entertain the idea of meeting them elsewhere, must she drop the friendship of these young people?"

"If you will advise me upon this subject, which I am sure has perplexed many a girl, I would appreciate it more than words can tell."

"KATHERINE." Suppose your home is not elegant, Katherine—it is OUR HOME. It is the place from which you have sprung and which shelters you.

Can't you make some corner of it sufficiently pleasant and HOMELIKE so that you can receive friends in it? Even if it is small and shabby and up four flights of rickety stairs, can't you give it a little charm through cleanliness and coziness? Can't you receive your friends there with a spirit of cordial hospitality that will make them feel the spirit of the place and forget actual furnishings and surroundings?

The Wrong Way

The girl who meets boys at street corners, in parks, at subway stations or dance halls does not claim from them the same respectful attitude they feel toward a girl with whom they associate the sacred idea of home. She is putting herself in an unprotected and dangerous position.

Your home gives you a certain background, girls. It is worth your while to clean and scrub and arrange and manage so that background will be neat and sweet and pleasant. The commonest of the dance halls has a gold and tinsel elegance but it lacks the fine charm you can put into a dull little eight by ten room if you lovingly set about making it express a little of your own personality.

WOMAN COULD HARDLY STAND

Because of Terrible Backache. Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I suffered from displacement and inflammation, and had such pains in my sides, and terrible backache so that I could hardly stand. I took six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I can do any amount of work, sleep good, eat good, and don't have a bit of trouble. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to every suffering woman."—Mrs. HARRY FISHER, 1642 Juniata Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Another Woman's Case.

Providence, R. I.—"I cannot speak too highly of your Vegetable Compound as it has done wonders for me and I would not be without it. I had a displacement, bearing down, and backache, until I could hardly stand and was thoroughly run down when I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It helped me and I am in the best of health at present. I work in a factory all day long besides doing my housework so you can see what it has done for me. I give you permission to publish my name and I speak of your Vegetable Compound to many of my friends."—Mrs. ABRIEL LAWSON, 126 Lippitt St., Providence, R. I.

Danger Signals to Women

are what one physician called backache, headache, nervousness, and the blues. In many cases they are symptoms of some female derangement or an inflammatory, ulcerative condition, which may be overcome by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Thousands of American women willingly testify to its virtue.

In Severe Cases of Constipation Take Lax Links

Men and women who are habitually constipated often rely upon purgative medicines to obtain relief, but the trouble invariably returns as well as ever. Take this advice and notice the beneficial results! In obstinate constipation, take a glass of lemonade or eat an orange after taking one or two Lax Links. These are delicious candy laxatives, exquisitely flavored with the oil of spearmint and do not contain any habit-forming or dangerous drugs. They are mild, but sure in their action and do not gripe or cause pain. They will act properly upon the bile, nature's own laxative, causing it to flow freely. Ideal for children. Recommended by physicians. Sold by all druggists. 10c and 25c boxes. Write for free sample. Boro Salicine Co., Philadelphia.

Cheap, garish splendor will not bring out any fine in you. It will not appeal to anything good in boys or men. But if you put on a fresh little white blouse and bring a boy into a neat little place to which you belong and which belongs to you, you appeal to the best in his nature, you win from him a lasting regard instead of a flaring flame of interest that will make him "rush" you and drop you.

The feverish interest of the dance hall doesn't win you any lasting regard from boys, my dear seventeen-year-old friends. The lax air of an excursion boat with couples all about you loitering in each other's arms doesn't suggest to the mind of your escort the sort of regard you want to win. Seeing low standards about you will either affect your own modesty or cause an angry boy to wonder why you aren't "fun" like the other girls. Home would save you from this degrading influence.

Last winter a girl friend of mine was invited to a number of teas and dances given by her wealthy relatives and friends. At several of these affairs she met Mr. K., of whose wealth and importance she was well aware. He was always particularly pleasant to her, but even when he escorted her home she never rewarded his courtesy with an invitation to call. She felt that he would cease liking her if he saw her in the very humble environment of her simple little home, since she was decidedly the poor relation of her family. His manner changed at last, and on meeting her at affairs he did not even ask her to dance. She grieved over it, but decided that he preferred the wealthier more elegantly dressed girls to her simple little self.

A Forced Invitation

One Sunday afternoon early this Spring she met him in the street, and with a little constraint he ventured that he was going her way and would like to walk home with her. At the door they met her brother, who suggested that it was tea-time and that "Bessie" was a famous little cook, so Mr. K. had better come in. Bessie had to second the invitation, and Mr. K. said he would be delighted if he might play butler to her maid.

HERR MOESLEIN IS RE-ELECTED CHAIRMAN OF COUNTY DEMOCRATS

Howard Jones Is Chosen Head of City Body After Speech by McCormick

Herr Moeslein was re-elected chairman of the Dauphin county Democratic committee without bloodshed at a meeting at the Board of Trade this afternoon, but there was an undercurrent of warfare over the late primary.

When the county committee met Herr Moeslein said that he did not know whether the committee was satisfied with him or not.

"It doesn't matter," said someone. Moeslein was then named by Howard O. Holstein, before C. B. McCormick, picked to make the speech, could unlimber. Mr. McCormick, however, did well when he did start. Moeslein was elected and in his speech said that the country would be all right if Wilson and Bryan got a chance.

"They've had their chance," he said near the door. Several members craned their necks to see who was saying things, but all looked innocent. C. W. Rubendall, of Millersburg, was elected vice-chairman in a canter and Charles W. Erb, of Gettysburg, secretary in a walk. Fred L. Morgenthaler being picked for treasurer to succeed James K. Linn as treasurer.

It being a Democratic meeting long resolutions were adopted. The meeting of the city committee resulted in the election of Howard Jones, president of the Central Democratic Club, as city chairman without anything more exciting than a speech by Mr. McCormick in the course of which he said the city chairmanship is not of vital importance, but has its significance.

For the last two or three days several Democrats have been boasting of School Director G. A. Werner for the city chairmanship, but the boom seemed to have been hit by something between 11 a. m. and 2 p. m. to-day. Rumor had it that Charles McCormick had called off the men opposing Jones.

When the city committee met at 2.42 the Werner boom was out of sight. Fred Morgenthaler nominated Jones; McCormick made his speech and the committee adjourned, having advanced several paces toward the "peaceful twilight" next November.

Sons of Veterans Reserves in Camp Near Selinsgrove

Selinsgrove, Pa., June 16.—Camp Colonel James Cameron, Pennsylvania division, Sons of Veterans Reserves, at Rolling Green, above here, is run on about the same general plan as a regular National Guard encampment. Pitched in the middle of a big wheatfield the camp presents a picturesque appearance. However, the ground is rapidly being tramped under foot and before the end of the week the wheatfield will be a thing of the past.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on the advice of some reputable physician, as the damage done by them is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine, as it is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Price, 50c per bottle. Sold by Druggists. Price, 75c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

The smallest in size and price Francis Bacon baby grand piano

Copyright, 1913, by Stone & McCarrick, Inc.

All lovers of music and all lovers of a home have wished for a baby grand piano—if only the size of their rooms and the size of their incomes would permit. How many young teachers have wished that their small studio would accommodate a grand piano—that the cost of a grand piano would not be such a strain upon their purse strings. We have at last been able to produce a piano that will meet all these requirements. SMALL IN SIZE AND SMALL IN PRICE.

The Francis Bacon baby grand—the smallest perfect piano ever made

This piano is but 4 feet 8 inches in length and only 4 feet 6 inches wide—possessing a tone marvelously rich, sweet, and powerful.

Although small in size—this baby grand piano is so wonderfully constructed that every available inch of space has been utilized—with the result that the strings are MUCH LONGER than any grand piano near its size, thus, producing a deep and wonderfully sympathetic tone.

The cases of these pianos are made from the finest selected woods having either highly polished—dull—or satin finish which ever you prefer. The designs are artistic and correct in every particular.

Twenty-five of these baby grand pianos at $455.00 each

Just as these Francis Bacon baby grand pianos are SMALLEST IN SIZE—so are they SMALLEST IN PRICE.

The price of a baby grand piano that would in any way compare with this would be worth and would sell for $600.

The co-operative price of this piano is $455—which is $145 LESS than the piano is actually worth.

The initial payment is $5—the same as on the upright or player-piano.

The balance is payable $10 monthly—giving you 45 months (195 weeks) in which to pay the remainder the same as on the piano or player-piano. THERE IS ABSOLUTELY NO ADDITIONAL CHARGE FOR INTEREST.

Should you not care to take the full time—45 months—in which to pay for your piano, we will give you a rebate of 60 cents in cash for each and every payment you make in advance. It is, therefore, possible for you to reduce the cost of your baby grand piano $27—or any portion thereof—according to the number of payments you wish—at any time to make in advance—or before they are due.

If at the end of 30 days' trial the piano is not satisfactory we will GIVE YOU YOUR MONEY BACK.

You have one year to fully satisfy yourself as to its merits. You may then exchange it for any other piano or player-piano in our entire stock and get credit for every dollar you have paid.

Last but not least—should you die during the 45 months (195 weeks) period in which you are making your payments—your UNPAID PAYMENTS will be VOLUNTARILY CANCELLED AND A RECEIPT IN FULL turned over to your family. There will be no more payments to be made on the piano.

Our co-operative plan applies to the baby grand—upright—and player pianos. The TERMS—PRIVILEGES—LIBERALITIES AND CONDITIONS OF SALE ARE IDENTICAL.

The Guarantee

The Francis Bacon baby grand piano is guaranteed in every detail of its construction. Each piano is guaranteed absolutely and unconditionally for five years.

We especially invite all musicians—teachers and music lovers to inspect these pianos.

This guarantee is our Bond of Confidence with the purchaser. This tag will be found tied upon each piano or player-piano offered for sale through this co-operative plan.

Creator's Band at Paxtang Park Friday

An event in the musical world of this city will be the appearance of Signor Creator and his band at Paxtang Park. If Creator could describe the force which emanates from him when he takes the baton he might be able to answer the question: "What is genius?" No one can tell what it is, but everyone feels that Creator has it. The spirit of it travels over the house, electrifies every member of the band and makes people in the audience shout with pleasure and tremble with appreciation.—Advertisement.

KILLED FOUR WEASELS

Special to The Telegraph

Millerstown, Pa., June 16.—John Hetrick, of this place, while on his way to Perry Valley, Saturday, about a mile below town, found a weasel with ten young ones. Not knowing that there was a bounty on weasels he killed only four, receiving $2 for each one.

Officers of New York to Be Called to Stand

New York, June 16.—Captain W. J. Roberts, his officers and members of the crew of the American liner New York, who were on lookout duty at the time of the collision between the New York and the Pretoria early last Saturday morning, are among the witnesses called in the inquiry to be held to-morrow by the board of inspectors of steam vessels to ascertain the causes for the accident. Another inquiry will be held in Hamburg where officers of the Pretoria will testify.

17 HURT ON SCENIC ROAD

Rochester, N. Y., June 16.—The seventeen persons injured on the scenic railway at Ontario Beach Park last night when a two-car train turned on its side and was rammed by another car, were all reported on the road to recovery to-day.

Coal Is Cheapest and Best Now

To buy coal now is to buy it at the cheapest price for which it can be obtained during the year. And then you gain in quality, too, for the coal sent from the mines at this time of the year may be thoroughly screened before delivery, a difficult matter in cold weather when frost will cause the dirt to cling to the coal. So to buy Montgomery coal now is to buy the best quality of the best coal at the lowest prices. Place your order.
