OLDEST WAR CORRESPONDENT DEAD

Londoi, June 17. — Bennett Burleigh, oldest and most widely known of war correspondents, died here today. A Scotchman, born in Glasgow, nearly seventy years ago, he joined the ranks of the Confederates in the Civil War and fought through the entire campaign, being twice captured and sentenced to death by the Northern troops. Later he turned to newspaper work and reported a number of campaigns for a news agency. He reported thirteen wars and outbreaks all over the world.

SMALL AND IRREGULAR TRANSACTIONS ON STREET

Lehigh Valley Heavy; Loses Point; Western Union Falls Back Over Point

By Associated Press

New York, June 17. — The stock market was freed at the beginning of trading to-day from the pressure which bore down quotations yesterday. Transactions were smaller and after half an hour's business the market came almost to a halt. The small and irregular fluctuations of American stocks in London gave traders no lead. The list held steady at the opening, but later shaded off slightly. Lehigh Valley was especialy heavy, losing nearly a point. Western Union, which fell back 1⅝, was the weakest stock in the market.

Committees Named For the Rotary Club

Last Meeting For Summer Held at School of Commerce

The Harrisburg Rotary Club met for the first time under the presidency of William S. Essick last evening in the rooms of the School of Commerce in Market Square.

D. L. M. Raker, of the school, talked on the advisability of employing skilled stenographers in business and of the necessity of paying fair wages in return for good work. He outlined the growth of the school and said that the standard of business education in Harrisburg has been substantially raised in the past ten years.

President Essick's recommendations for several improvements in club work were announced and the following committees were named for the year:
