MODE CHURCHES JOIN IN BIG FALL REVAL PROJECT

Several Thousand Hazletonians Expected to Make Trip to Harrisburg

More churches to join in the movement; committees busily at work; a plan for a gigantic excursion here when Stough is well under way—such are the present developments in the Stough evangelistic project.

The Rev. Edwin E. Curtis, the secretary of the co-operating ministerium, has sent out invitations to every church not now participating in the Stough campaign and as a result several inquiries have been received which would indicate that a number of churches will join with those now enlisted in the campaign. Up to today one church, the United Evangelical Church of Rutherford Heights, the Rev. P. K. Bergman, pastor, has accepted the invitation and will be added to the list of co-operating churches.

Plans are also in preparation for a visit to this place to greet the evangelist, who has concluded a campaign in that city. It is planned to start a Harbush fund for putting away small amounts, so that the total shall reach the sum required to make the trip. It is believed that between 2,500 and 3,000 persons will be interested enough to make the journey here. In addition it is the expectation of the projectors of the excursion to take on parties at Mount Carmel, Berwick and other places that Stough has been in.

Kathryne Frick Coming Home For Vacation

Kathryne May Frick, the Harrisburg girl, who, bereft of three senses, is nevertheless receiving an education along many lines at the institution for the blind, deaf and dumb, arrived home today to spend her vacation with her parents in Harrisburg.

The performance at the Harrisburg girl at the commencement at Mt. Airy, yesterday, filled all the spectators with surprise. One of the features of yesterday's demonstration was the display of fancy and useful articles made by the children. Kathryne was given a prize for knitting and crocheting. She proudly pointed to a necktie, her gift to her father, and to ashawl that she knitted for her mother.

RISE IN LONDON IS REFLECTED IN NEW YORK

Cheerful Feeling Abroad Is Felt by Wall Street Brokers in Today's Trading

New York, June 18.—The cheerful feeling in London, owing to brightening of the political outlook, made itself felt in the home market at the opening today. There was no more life in the dealings than yesterday, but the downward movement which had been in progress for two days was checked. The advance of American stocks in London resulted in corresponding rise among the international issues here and as trading got under way, the whole list hardened. Railroad stocks made the best showing under the lead of Union Pacific, which advanced nearly a point.
