Father Gets His Day in Church Tomorrow

Some Harrisburg churches will tomorrow observe Father's Day. The Rutherford Y. M. C. A. will have a celebration. The thing started in Spokane. The Rev. Conrad Blum, of the Ministerial Association of that city, says the idea is to establish normal reciprocity between God and man. Red and white roses are the colors and some will wear them tomorrow.

Tone, Touch, Action, Durability And every requisite that goes to make up an artistic instrument. We have 'em. Spangler, Sixth above Maclay.—Advertisement.

REV. A. A. KELLY GETS BIG INCREASE

Former Pastor of Christ Church Here Has Remarkable Success at Waynesboro

Waynesboro, Pa., June 20.—At a special meeting of the Lutheran Church council of Waynesboro last evening, the salary of the pastor, the Rev. A. A. Kelly was increased from $1,800 to $2,200 a year.

The increase was made in recognition of the very effective work done by the Rev. Mr. Kelly during his two years' pastorate here. In this time 740 new members have been added to the church roll, making a total of 1,200; the Sunday school was doubled in numbers and now has an enrollment of 1,200; and all of the church debts, including $10,000 on the new church edifice, have been paid.

The Rev. Mr. Kelly has demonstrated his remarkable executive ability as head of the congregation and has inspired every department to more vigorous and effective work, with a result that each has been enlarged and a new earnestness has been aroused in the membership.

The congregation is now the largest in the Maryland Synod and pays its pastor the highest salary.

The Rev. A. A. Kelly was pastor of the Christ Lutheran Church, this city, before going to Waynesboro and while here showed his ability to head a successful congregation.
