

WOMEN AND THEIR INTERESTS

This Matter of Fools

It has long been said there is no fool like an old fool. But a little observation shows us there is no fool so foolish as the young fool.

happiness on earth which might not be bought with money. She was young and chaste and beautiful, and she sold her youth and virtue and beauty to the man fool; and together they went forth to people the world with more fools.

COULD NOT STAND ON FEET

Mrs. Baker So Weak—Could Not Do Her Work—Found Relief In Novel Way.

Adrian, Mich. — "I suffered terribly with female weakness and backache and got so weak that I could hardly do my work. When I washed my dishes I had to sit down and when I would sweep the floor I would get so weak that I would have to get a drink every few minutes, and before I did my dusting I would have to lie down. I got so poorly that my folks thought I was going into consumption. One day I found a piece of paper blowing around the yard and I picked it up and read it. It said 'Saved from the Grave,' and told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for women. I showed it to my husband and he said, 'Why don't you try it?' So I did, and after I had taken two bottles I felt better and I said to my husband, 'I don't need any more,' and he said 'You had better take it a little longer anyway.' So I took it for three months and got well and strong."—Mrs. ALONZO E. BAKER, 9 Tecumseh St., Adrian, Mich.

Spend Your Holiday on a Western Ranch. Out in the ranch country of the West, around Sheridan Wyoming, or in the Big Horn Basin of Wyoming, where Buffalo Bill founded the town of Cody, the practice has grown for the good ranch people there to provide for summer boarders and I don't know any more interesting and pleasurable way of spending one's vacation with the wife and children, than to go out on one of those ranches, and ride and fish for trout, (great fishing out there) and eat good, plain, substantial food, and sleep—my! how one does sleep after days spent exercising in that wonderful mountain air. This "Ranch Vacation" is a novel idea, but very easy to accomplish, for I can tell you all about what you can do and how to do it and what it will cost and what you can get and all about it. Just write and let me suggest a plan for you to follow. Wm. Austin, General Agent Passenger Depts., C. B. & Q. R. R. Co., 836 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.—Advertisement.

Beauty at the Colonial. One of the most beautiful acts that was ever presented to a vaudeville audience in Harrisburg began a full week's engagement at the Colonial yesterday. This was La Graciosa, the act beautiful, in which a young woman of rare grace poses while enveloped in ever changing colored lights that throw all kinds of effects imaginable. One moment the picture is that of the seaside, with summer girls and high ocean waves, and the next moment the audience is gazing on a winter scene in which the snow is falling and La Graciosa is clad in winter garb. There are two other good acts and movies on the bill with this one, and these acts will change in midweek as usual.—Advertisement.

Storms Play Havoc in Sections of Ohio. Columbus, Ohio, June 23.—Various kinds of storms broke over Central Ohio yesterday, injuring a score of persons and damaging thousands of dollars' worth of property. Rain fell in some sections, breaking a drought which had threatened growing crops. In others the precipitation was accompanied by terrific winds and lightning. In the western part of the state crops suffered from a heavy hailstorm. A tornado passed through Shelby county. In Quincy, a village of 500 population, several buildings, including a church, were destroyed. The tornado was followed by a violent hailstorm. Lightning set fire to two 300-barrel oil tanks near Newark and a spectacular blaze resulted. Many farm buildings, ignited by lightning, also were reported burned.

Austria Started Trouble. Rome, June 23.—The recent revolutionary movement by the anarchists in Italy was started by Austria, according to a statement made by Deputy Vital who has been investigating conditions in Romagna. The deputy says he found evidence of the presence of Austrian agents and learned that an Italian vessel intercepted wireless messages from these agents giving detailed reports of the disturbance to Vienna.

PENROSE SMILES AT PALMER'S DEATH

Says Issues Will Be Prosperity No Matter What the Congressman Asserts

"Protection and prosperity will be the issue in Pennsylvania this Fall. Nothing that A. Mitchell Palmer, Democratic senatorial candidate, or William Flinn, boss of the Progressive party in the State, may do to becloud the issue will confuse the voters. Mr. Palmer says the real issue is Penroseism. I will not only meet him on that issue, but any other that he may bring before the voters. I am making my fight for re-election on the tariff, a revision of which by the Democratic party has upset business conditions and driven honest workmen from the employment to which they are entitled. Any campaigning that Colonel Roosevelt may make against the Republican party does not concern me."

Senator Boies Penrose thus summed up the situation in the Keystone State in speaking at Washington last night. He predicts that Republicans in Pennsylvania will be elected from top to bottom. The complexion of the congressional delegation will be changed to the extent that Republicans will supplant all of the six Progressive members, while at least six of the twelve Democratic districts will be reclaimed. A crucial township election in Pennsylvania has set in Pennsylvania continued Senator Penrose. "Not only have those Republicans who left the party in 1912 returned, but 100,000 Democrats, mostly business and working men, will support the Republican ticket in the Fall. The administration's tariff tinkering has disgusted a large element in the Democratic party and the antagonism caused by the bossism displayed by Mr. Palmer and his associates has driven from the Democratic ranks thousands of other voters who will not accept the methods employed by Palmer."

"No more flagrant bossism than that of the past six months has been experienced in Pennsylvania in twenty years. While the distribution of patronage has disgusted the rank and file of Democrats, the manner in which the primary slate was jammed through, has alienated thousands of other faithful Democrats. The ticket of Palmer and McCormick was dictated from the White House. Not content with this, Cabinet officers were permitted to go into the State and take sides in the fight, to the disgust of honest Democrats who had hoped for a free and open fight to determine the choice of the voters of their party."

"The high-handed method employed by Palmer and others in dictating a party platform in secret has not helped the Democratic ticket. Instead of permitting the State committee, which is supposed to represent the party, to assist in the formation of a declaration of principles, the Democratic bosses prepared their platform in secret conference, referred it to a committee of nine which did not report to the full committee and jammed it down the throats of the Democrats of Pennsylvania, who were in ignorance of what the instrument really contained. The platform of the Republican party will be framed to meet the wishes of the party after consultation with party leaders in all sections of the State."

"The people of Pennsylvania are concerned in a return of prosperity and a Republican victory this Fall will pave the way for such a condition. The business men of the State are unalterably opposed to any further legislation by Congress that tends to unsettle business conditions, and if the administration has any doubt as to this the result in November will clear away any misgivings on that score."
