BIGELOW CASE IS SUBMITTED TODAY

Briefs Are Presented in Action Which Has Attracted State-Wide Attention

Deputy Attorney General W. M. Hargest represented the State, and C. A. Whitehouse, district attorney of Schuylkill county, to-day submitted to the Dauphin county court in briefs the motion to quash the indictment found against Highway Commissioner Bigelow and his principal assailants in Schuylkill county court by direction of Judge Brumm.

This is the case transferred to this county by order of the Supreme Court. In Northumberland county the indictment found was quashed several months ago, it being held that Mr. Bigelow could not be indicted
