CLAFLIN RECEIVERSHIP WAS FEATURE OF WEEK

Prices Yielded but Little; Shares of Few Commercial Companies Registered Declines in Wall Street

By Associated Press

New York, June 27. — The Claffin receivership was the all-important feature of the week in the stock market, throwing into the background all such considerations as the freight rate queue tion, gold exports, which continued in more moderate volume, and the Mexican mediation negotiations, which at last accounts gave promise of an early solution. It is yet too soon to gauge the full effect of the Claffin failure, but even now it is evident that among its round to market, it must be admitted, gave an indubidable exhibitions of strength in the face of extraordinary conditions.
