TY COBB TIES UP WITH ST. LOUIS STAR

Major League Stick Men Were Very Busy This Week; Charley Carr in the Limelight

Chicago, Ill., June 27.—Baseball averages published here to-day show C. Walker, of St. Louis, and T. Walker, St. Louis, .321; Coveleskie, Detroit, .300; Shotton, St. Louis, .299; Lelivett, Cleveland, .297. Philadelphia with .259 and Detroit with .251 lead in club batting. Malsel, of New York, with 26, has most stolen bases. Hall, Detroit; Plank, Philadelphia, and Leonard, Boston, rank as three leading pitchers in the American League. Hall has 4 won and 1 lost; Plank, 7 and 2, and Leonard, 9 to 3. Robertson, of New York, leads the batters of the National League with .405. In the first ten are C. Charley Carr, one-time manager of American association teams, is leading the batters of the Federal League since he joined the Indianapolis club of that organization. In the International League McAllister, of Rochester, is ahead in batting with .500 for ten games. Next comes Mays, Providence, with .394.

Commander in Chief Cockill Is a Connie Mack Leader

MANAGER GEORGE COCKILL

By "Ump"

"Gee-e-t-t-t E-e-e-m-m."

That familiar cry, coming from a husky athlete at Island Park is the keynote to George Cockill's success. There may be some times when George falls to "get them," but the times are few. George Cockill is the commander-in-chief of the Harrisburg Tri-State team. This is his third season here. One season he landed the pennant. It was the first championship flag Harrisburg has ever had. The second year he gave all the teams a chase and tied up for second place. This year he is going after another flag and has the team back of him who will do it. At the request of Manager Cockill it should be said at this time that he has a team of youngsters. It is the gospel truth. Cockill says never judge the age of a baseball player by the number of years he has been in the game, but there is no player who is more than thirty years of age. In the opinion of Manager Cockill the name "Ponies" should be used for Harrisburg, rather than Senators. Cockill is a leader. He has proven that fact many times. He is of the Connie Mack school. With no material to start with, George Cockill two years ago selected a team that brought the first pennant. It was harmony, good baseball playing and a manager who had the confidence of the players that did it. Cockill's ponies this year are one big happy family. Errors now and then have no effect on Cockill. He knows when a baseball player is not doing his best. Where He Broke In George Cockill started baseball at Kutztown Normal School, and during the summer he was seen on fast independent teams in and around Williamsport. He broke into the game right at Bucknell University, and since that time has always been recognized as a baseball star, playing any position. Cockill was one big man when he was with the Williamsport Tri-State team. Cockill remained with Williamsport until the game was shut off in Billington when he joined the Montreal team of the Eastern League, now the Internationals. He was selected to get a berth on the Philadelphia ball team, but Reading loomed up as a good town and with Bill Coughlin he cast his lot as a part owner and assistant manager. George Cockill was the one man responsible for the success of the Reading team. Then came a demand from Harrisburg and the Bucknell star took charge of the Senators. Everybody knows what he has done since he came to Harrisburg and baseball fans in general are proud of the opinion that he is going to land the pennant. George Cockill is batting at .300, leads the first basemen with an average of .994, having made but two errors in thirty-seven games. He has been at the bat 131 times, scored twelve runs, made thirty-eight hits, stole eleven bases and scored three sacrifice hits. From fifth place Manager Cockill has brought Harrisburg up to third in club batting, and first in club fielding. He has served notice that the ponies will be leading the chase by July 4.

Williams' Wing Wins for Bengals

Cockill's Ponies Soared With Adams; Old-time Ginger Came Too Late

Suffering from psychological depression of ginger, hits and a few other baseball essentials, Harrisburg fell before the Bengals yesterday, score 6 to 1. Mark Adams, except in one inning, had southpaw puzzlers that were sure winners. Even "Home Run" Johnson was a victim of this boy from the upper end of Dauphin county. Adams went soaring in the third, and part of the team went with him. Then came an interesting battle, but Harrisburg could not hit Williams. In the third inning Adams hit Hammond and Meyer, Poland singled to short. Johnson hit to Crukshank, who made a hard flight to get under the ball, but dropped it. One man scored and the bases were filled. Yale was hit by an inshoot, scoring another run. Lee went slider down to short, which bounced to center, allowing two more runs to score. A single, sacrifice and Whalen's error allowed a run in the seventh and three singles brought the one in the ninth. Harrisburg had men on bases in the second, sixth, seventh and eighth. In the ninth Cris walked and scored on Miller's triple. The score: TRENTON: A. B. R. H. O. A. E. Hammond, 3b, 3, 1, 1, 2, 0, 0. Meyer, 2b, 4, 1, 2, 4, 2, 0. Poland, lf, 5, 1, 3, 4, 0, 0. Columbia Crew Wins the Big Race

Pennsylvania Oarsmen Took Second Place; Results Are a Big Surprise

Special to The Telegraph Poughkeepsie, N. Y., June 27.—In a thrilling four-mile triangular struggle with Pennsylvania and Cornell, the Columbia University eight-oared crew won by a scant length the premier race of the twentieth annual regatta of the Intercollegiate Rowing Association on the Highland course, late yesterday afternoon. Pennsylvania finished second, defeating Cornell by the length of its shell, with Syracuse, Washington and Wisconsin taking the wash of the leaders in the order named. Penn was a big surprise. The official times of the crews for the four miles were as follows: Columbia, 19:37 4-5; Pennsylvania, 19:41; Cornell, 19:44 1-5; Syracuse, 19:52 2-5; Washington, 20:13 2-5; Wisconsin, 20:20. Columbia's victory was the result of a desperate and sustained spurt in the final half mile. The Cornell crew, completely exhausted in trying to keep pace with the victors, faltered and slipped back into third place at the finish. Better fortune, however, attended the efforts of the Cornell Junior varsity and Freshmen eights, each combination in turn winning its race in impressive fashion. Pennsylvania finished third in both these events. The victory of the Columbia crew after twenty years' effort was extremely popular and last night all Poughkeepsie, aided by the Morningside University students and alumni, celebrated the event in uproarious fashion. Not since 1895, when Columbia won the four-mile race, defeating Cornell and Pennsylvania in the initial regatta held on the Hudson river course, have the New York city university oarsmen showed the way to the finish line.

Johnson Is Ready For Frank Moran

Special to The Telegraph Paris, June 27.—Jack Johnson, world's heavyweight champion pugilist, and Frank Moran, of Pittsburgh, who hopes to wrest the title from the big Galveston negro to-day, were early to bed last night in their training quarters for a restful sleep before their twenty-round battle in the amphitheater of the Velodrome d'Hiver to-night. Each man declared himself physically fit for the fray and each was highly optimistic that victory would rest with him. Moran had only light exercise yesterday and spent the remainder of the forenoon loitering about his quarters at Meriel-on-the-Oise and in picking wild flowers in the nearby road. During the afternoon he came into the city for a thorough examination by physicians, who declared him to be physically perfect. The doctors expressed great admiration over the marvelous muscular development of the white man. Johnson did his usual run on the road near his training camp at Asnières. Afterward he rode into Paris in a new automobile to cash a check. Entering the bank, he was surprised to meet an old acquaintance, an attorney from his home town in Texas, to whom he declared he never was in better condition. Johnson is a 3 to 1 favorite to-day. Moran money is plentiful.
