Fenton Whalen, the popular short-stop on Cockill's crew is now the property of Harrisburg. On Saturday a deal was closed by which this youngster was purchased from the Milwaukee team of the American Association.

Whalen was sent to Harrisburg from Wilkes-Barre. As the Barons have a good man at short, Harrisburg was given the opportunity to make the purchase, and jumped at the chance. The price paid was not mentioned. Negotiations are on for two other players.

Cruikshank is a product from West Somerville, Mass. He was the real baseball boy when at school, and when on the high school team in his home town, was the star that brought the victory to independent teams, anxious to bring their towns into prominence would seek Cruikshank out for special games and many towns in Massachusetts boasts of a championship because Cruikshank hit in a winning run; or stopped a long fly that would have given the other fellows a victory.

He took up athletics at the age of 16 and this brought him into the baseball game. After Cruikshank had played independent baseball in Pennsylvania, in the Huntingdon League and in the New York State League, Hank Ramsey, who was manager of Altoona, discovered him. Cruikshank next played on the Reading team and came to Harrisburg in 1912. Cruikshank is a Bucknell University football star, and last season was captain and coach of the Bucknell eleven. He has another year to go and will graduate next June. Being a Bucknell boy, brought Cruikshank into close touch with George Cockill. His ability was sized up by Harrisburg's leader, and while it required some special efforts Manager Cockill landed a good man when he brought Cruikshank to Harrisburg. It was his work at first, and in the field that helped Harrisburg move up near the top last season.

His Record

Up to last Wednesday Cruikshank to played sixteen games. His batting average is 250. He was at the bat Centerfielder on Harrisburg Tri-State Frank P. Cruikshank, centerfielder on Cockill's crew, football star and coach, is being watched closely by ma-

Cruikshank came nearly getting away from Harrisburg but there was a way from Harrisburg but there was a howl from the fans that was heard in New Jersey and Philadelphia. Zeke Wrigley's tricks could not get Cruikshank; and President George M. Graham said there was nothing to it—the boy belonged with George Cockill's bunch. BASEBALL AND SPORTS OF INTEREST TO EVERYONE

By "Ump"

Jack Johnson at Paris on Saturday successfully defended his title as champion heavyweight puglilist of the world when he defeated Frank Moran, of Pittsburgh, in a fierce ring battle. The fight went twenty rounds and was awarded to Johnson on points.

Johnson was master of the battle from the start and gave his opponent a terrible beating. Moran proved the gamest man Johnson has ever met. It was Moran's gameness and wonderful stamina that enabled him to stand the blows of the title holder. As is always the case, there were many reports regarding this battle. No knockdowns occurred and Moran appeared at his camp in France yesterday with a bruised nose and cut over one eyebrow.

Whether the fight was on the level or not, the fact remains that Jack Johnson is still champion. Later reports say that Johnson was not the man he was when he met Jim Flynn and that while he was up against a fighter different in action than anyman he had previously met the champion did not have the steam of two years ago. Moran says:

"I don't look like a man who has been killed," he said, as he was partaking heartily of a chicken dinner. "I figured I could whip Johnson in view of his age, but I now believe him to be as strong as he ever was. I hope to get a match with Sam Langford, as I want to meet the toughest man I to get a match with Sam Langford, as I want to meet the toughest man I can get. I believe I could have won from Johnson except for the foul blow on the nose in the tenth round, which sent the blood down my throat and sickened me. The result of the fight has anything but discouraged me and I shall go into training again immediately."

diately."

Johnson has agreed to fight Sam Langford the middle of October. For this battle he will receive $30,000, win, lose or draw, and in addition will be given 50 per cent. of the moving picture receipts. The articles for the fight with Langford will be signed in London July 1.

"I am always glad to speak a good word for Tuxedo tobacco. Constant use of it only serves to make it better liked. Its fragrant, soothing flavor makes it the choice of many golfers."

"Tuxedo, cool and mild, is essentially the smoke that satisfies. Many of my fellow golfers agree with me in giving preference to Tuxedo." ABrander Ross

Tee Up! Smoke Up! S satisfying as the sounding smack of the A perfect drive, is the open-air relish of the perfect smoke—Tuxedo. Both go together, too. When you grab your bag and start for the links, grab up your tin of Tuxedo and take it along.

"Follow through" the snappy afternoon with Tuxedo. Put Tuxedo in your pipe and you will "put" the best. And at "the nineteenth hole" rest up and relax with a good, solid smoke of Tuxedo. That's the advice of good golfers everywhere.

It's worth your while to try Tuxedo. Especially if a sensitive tongue prevents pipe smoking.

Tuxedo positively cannot bite-not even if you smoke pipeful after pipeful, as many as you can crowd into a day or a week.

Tuxedo is made of only the finest, choicest, selected leaves of perfectly aged Burley tobacco. It is made by the original "Tuxedo Process" which removes
