WATCH BLUE LAW AT NORRISTOWN

Harrisburg Advocates of Strict Sunday Closing Observe Tactics in Montgomery Co.

Harrisburg Blue Law advocates and violators, members of the Civil Council of Churches backing the project, and in fact the general public, are watching with interest proceedings in Norristown, where small businessmen last Sunday kept their stores open despite the edict of Burgess Saul and the activity of the Pennsylvania Sabbath Observance Association. The old law of the eighteenth century, imposing a fine of $4 was invoked upon each of three dealers. Magistrates informed the violators that hereafter such lenity would not be shown and they would be visited with heavier sentences. When asked what he thought of the results attained on the first Sunday's attempt to enforce the Blue Laws, Burgess Saul said: "The results of the first day's attempt to force the Sunday laws in the borough of Norristown have been quite satisfactory and encouraging. Of course, there have been some violators and there will have to be some prosecutions. This we greatly regret, as it is not our wish to make arrests and impose fines. That is incidental to the accomplishment of the task to which we have set our hand. "Numerous dealers, who heretofore were obliged to remain at their places of business all day Sunday, are expressing their appreciation of the day of rest. "It is the experience of other cities and towns that even those who criticize the movement at first will fall in line in a short time and that when the Sunday closing movement is fully established hardly any one would go back to the old order of things.

PAXTANG PARK

The vaudeville bill at Paxtang Park this week proved to be the best comedy show the park theater has had this season. Evans and Anderson were billed as the headliners and proved their title to that honor in a clever sketch, entitled "On the Rocks." "On the Rocks" is a humorous story of two young actors in reduced circumstances and furnishes plenty of good material for Evans and Anderson to display their exceptional ability as comedians. Conn and Latelle made a big hit with the park audience in a "Rube" skit somewhat different from the various rustic sketches seen on the stage. Miss Latelle is an eccentric comedienne of great ability and Mr. Conn displays considerable skill with his violin and cello. The Stine Trio in a knockabout comedy bar act kept the audience in a roar of laughter all the time they were on the stage with their grotesque antics. The straight acrobatic work of the trio brought forth much well-earned applause. The Musical Crockery Shop was a decided novelty in the musical line and greatly pleased the audience. Jim Gidea told humorous stories and sang parodies. Jim was encored until he had no more material with which to satisfy his admirers. Every arrangement has been made to make the fireworks display on Friday evening one of the big events of the season. The explosives have already arrived at the park and will be set up on Friday morning on the hill at the back of the theater.—Advertisement.

Business Locals

NO GUESSWORK

In the making of Holsum and Butter-nut bread. Every loaf is always the same—never burnt, never sour, always that palatable and nutritive flavor which distinguishes Schmidt's Butter-nut and Holsum from the ordinary baker's bread. Made scientifically in surroundings especially sanitary. For sale at all good grocers.

CHOICE OF HATS, 45c to 95c

Our entire stock of untrimmed shapes is subject to your choice at 45 cents to 95 cents each. Nothing reserved. Everything must be sold before the season is over. Trimmed hats 95 cents to $5, values up to $15. Flowers and all trimmings reduced. Mary C. Glass, 1306 Market street.

LUNCHEON GOODS

For picnic baskets or warm day meal. Dainty, ready-to-eat and wholesome foods that make a palatable spread. We have the choicest of the good morsels in tins or glass, and a score of other delicious edibles and soft drinks that will make the basket or table a pleasant surprise. Either phone. S. S. Pomeroy, Market Square Grocer.

WIDE AWAKE CLERKS

In a drug store where prescriptions are filled that may determine life or death it is essential that the clerks are alert and in prime physical condition to assume their responsible duties. Our clerks work in eight-hour shifts, a fact which has been observed and favorably commented on by Philadelphia's leading druggist. Potts' drug store, North Third and Hierr streets.

STEAK TO CAKE

Everything for the table from steak to cake is to be found in abundance at this store. Our meat department has fresh cuts of the choicest meats as well as the cured meats and potted varieties. Staple and fancy groceries, baked goods and vegetables, as well as the fruits in season. B. B. Drumm, 1801 North Sixth street.

GEISHA WAISTS

And other Japanese articles innumerable, such as long crepe kimonos and kimonos for babies, embroidered slippers, beads, hand embroidered fans, jewel cases, cushions and the many quaint and artistically designed articles from Japan. All so distinctively different from the average that the difference appeals to all who see them. Mrs. Ida Cranston, 204 Locust street.
