John Dando, Jr., Well-Known Tower City Man, Killed by Train at Williamstown

Special to The Telegraph - Williamstown, Pa., July 2.-A distressing accident occurred here at 12:30 o'clock to-day, when John Dando, Jr., a well-known young man of Tower City, had both legs cut off while attempting to get on a freight train on the Philadelphia & Reading railroad. Young Dando had come to Williamstown this morning and intended to return to his home when the accident occurred. He was picked up and medical aid summoned, but he died about two hours later. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dando, were summoned and reached the son's side before he died. The family is very prominent and well known in the upper end of Dauphin county and formerly lived at Wisconsin.

Young Dando was about 19 years old and recently graduated from the Tower City High School.

MAY INVADE FOREIGN FIELD - Washington, D. C., July 2.-Judging from the number of applications received by the reserve bank organization committee for the establishment of foreign branches, members of the committee believe many of the large banks in leading commercial centers of the United States expect to invade the foreign field.

PROGRADE A STONE CRUSHER FOR $2,200

New Machinery Will Be Installed at Almhouse Within Ten Days

Dauphin county's Board of Poor Directors awarded the contract for furnishing the almshouse with a stone crusher for vegetable waste, etc., to the Universal Road Machinery Company, of Kingston, N. Y., for $2,200.

The crusher has been ordered and according to J. G. Anderson, the local representative, will be here within ten days or two weeks. It will have a capacity of 240 tons every ten hours and will be used and the first job to be undertaken will be the repairing of the almshouse and the walks and drives around the institution buildings.

Jag List Contains 195 Names - The list of judges of the county who have ever been housed at the almshouse for the last couple of years and whose condition is charged directly or indirectly to the use of alcohol has been made public by the poor board. It is mailed to the various liquor dealers throughout the county within a few days. With the list will be a letter calling attention to the poor board's action instructing the saloonmen not to sell drink to any of those on the jag list.

Mercantile Licenses - About 2,000 retail mercantile licenses, 125 wholesale, 55 broker, 66 restaurant, 22 billiard and pool room keepers and 20 amusement places have been taken out to date by the office of County Treasurer A. H. Bailey.

No Sale of Securities - To-day had been scheduled for the sale in front of the Courthouse of the public utility and bank securities held by the Commonwealth Trust Company as trustee. No sale was held, however, and it was postponed to some date not definitely fixed.

Suggests Single Tax Collector - At the meeting of the Dauphin County Commission yesterday Commissioner John H. Eby again suggested that one tax collector instead of a collector for each district be named. In offering this suggestion Mr. Eby said he understood that the county had appointed over a certain financial consideration to someone or some persons for the privilege of getting the books.

10 for Hunters' Licenses - July 1914 will be started by County Treasurer A. H. Bailey. About 8,000 will be distributed.

Repairs Swatara Bridge - In the near future a general repairing of the bridge over the Swatara creek at Middletown will be ordered by the County Commissioners.

Poor Business Again Debated in Senate

Washington, July 2.-Property and depression were pictured in another Senate debate to-day. Republicans cited instances of industrial dullness and business recession, while Democrats asserted that conditions were better in the United States than anywhere else in the world.

Senator Simmons started the argument when he quoted the official treasury report showing a surplus for the fiscal year just ended.

"The Treasury may be in a satisfactory condition," interjected Senator Gallinger, Republican, but the industrial country certainly is not.

He then read from letters saying a New Hampshire shoe manufacturer had lost a $200,000 yearly contract with a Baltimore customer who found he could buy shoes cheaper in England under the new tariff. Senator Gallinger also presented correspondence to show that the wool manufacturing industry in New Hampshire had fallen off.

Committee on Tennis Tournament Is Named; to Erect Club House

Initial steps were taken to-day for holding the annual summer tennis tournament on the Reservoir Park courts when a general committee to conduct the event was named for the tournament, etc. was named.

Despite the fact that only fifty-eight names have been submitted to the park department for membership in the proposed tennis club, park authorities have decided to go ahead with the construction of the clubhouse. The park department originally agreed to provide 100 tennis players were enlisted, each of whom would guarantee to pay $3 per year. In arranging the tennis tournament it is probable that the question of membership of the club will be considered so. Following is the tennis committee:

E. J. Miller, chairman, Charles E. Dasher, A. L. Lightner, James Q. Handshaw, Jr., C. C. Kunkel, Jr., Charles W. Pollock, Misses Anne Sewer, Katherine Sewer, Elizabeth Killinger and Beulah Starry.

FUNERAL OF ALDERMAN - Funeral services for Alfred P. Rodgers, Alderman of the Tenth Ward, who died Tuesday morning at his home, 2149 Cooper street, will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The Rev. Peter H. Balsbaum, pastor of the Sixth Street Methodist church, presided by the Rev. Amos M. Starnes, pastor of the Augsburg Lutheran church, who officiated at the funeral.

Under the direction of Robert W. Hoy the sixty foot flag pole was erected at Front and Market streets. The grandstand for the speakers and city officials will be placed in position tomorrow. Colonel Joseph B. Hutchison was busy to-day giving instructions to the members of his staff.

Weather indications are favorable to a fair Fourth of July according to the indications received to-day at the weather bureau. To-morrow will be clear and hot, but the fair weather movement will extend over another day at least, although it is too early, said weather forecaster Deiman to-day, to make definite prognostications concerning the weather for Independence Day.
